

Walkthrough MindBreak v0.3.5

Introduction This is a guide made up to help you to advance in the game. The core of the game is very simple, to advance you simply need to repeat over and over particular actions (various inside the game) in order to increase the variable stats of the girls unlocking the possibility of "Breaking" the girl.

MC

-You can work at the onsen to make some money or in the school as a keeper. Roaming around will trigger some random events.

Pro tip

Inside the bag, there's the hints journal, check it often since it updates automatically in order to progress inside the game.

Anna

To start corrupting Anna (And the other characters), you need to raise her stats: First, you need to raise the Love of Anna with numerous events. Working inside the Onsen, consoling her in the sofa, ...etcetera. After a while, check the journal, if there's an update about Anna, find the strange noise coming from the living room during the night. You should trigger the event of Anna masturbating. Now go to sleep and the next morning Anna will come to your room to "talk" (Break + 1).

From now on Anna should start acting shy around you, but you also have unlocked a bunch of new events. You can now start to ask her sexual favours, molest her during the night, and other events. Now, once again, you need to raise her sex stats to advance to the next break. Asking sexual favours, Spying Anna in the toilet, Keeping her company in the dining room, Onsen Events, ...etcetera.

As Always As always, check the journal if there is an update. As soon as you get the update, go to the Onsen during the working hours, and talk with her at the reception. This should trigger the second (Break + 1).

For the third break keep raising the stats of Anna exploring the new events, until the update at the journal pops up. After that, visit Miko, while she's preparing for school in the early morning, she will advise you to find a drug dealer in front of her school during the night to buy an aphrodisiac. Now, at night go to the school and buy this aphrodisiac. Now, you should visit Anna in her room to start the third (Break + 1).

Now enjoy ;) , more is coming!

Miko

Miko doesn't have a proper questline, but there are some events about her inside the map.

Rey

To start Rey questline, basically, just go in the Tea room during the afternoon and snap some compromising picture of her (The event is random so don't worry if not pop up the first time). After that just go to her room and blackmail her. From now on, raise her stats with the events in the game and wait for the update of the journal. After that, at night go to her room (Break + 1).

Now enjoy ;) , more is coming!

Mizuki

-The route of Mizuki it's a little more complicated. Basically you need to raise her stats by doing simple stuff with her during the day: Helping her cleaning the garden, Praying with her, Giving her a footrub, ...etc. After you raised her stats enough, check the journal for updates, go to Miko and ask her if Mizuki is ready for a special yoga training. Then the next day, visit Mizuki and propose to her a yoga class without Miko, this will trigger the first (Break + 1).

The second break of Mizuki is actually really simple, you just need to go to her house at night. An event should start, where you can find some old BDSM picture of a younger Mizuki. After retriving the photos, visit her during the daytime (Break + 1).

Now enjoy ;) , more is coming!

Aiko

Aiko has maybe the most difficult questline of all the girls for

now. To start her questline, just visit her during the daytime, her apartment is located downtown. The day after, visit her in the early morning, should start an event where you search for some hot material her phone. Visit her again for a new event. Now just go to sleep to your room and a corruption event will pop up (Corruption +1).

After that, visit her again in the early morning the next day and ask about the photoshoot. Do the same thing another time and she will ask you to bring Anna with you (Corruption + 1). (WARNING: Because I'm dumb, Anna must be at her second stage of Break or the event won't start)

Nice, after the photo shoot with Anna, you can now enter Miko's school and work as a keeper during the day.

Sakura

Sakura doesn't have a questline, for now, just visit her sometimes at the beach, eventually, some events will pop up.
