Guide Updates for v0.13.3

- I restructured a lot of the guide and incorporated all the alternate paths into the main guide. I also ditched the appendix sections.
  - The new storylines for Patrick and Rachael have been added to the guide.
  - The (very short) storyline for Leah has been added to the guide.
  - I added emojis to the guide to give a visual indicator as to what you will be doing.

Notes

- I am only listing the multiple-choice dialogue options.
  - If you cannot find a guest, check on either side of the house.
  - Be careful not to untie Ashley's top when talking to her.
  - Hold down the Shift key to move faster.
  - Right-click an object to lift it, hold the button to throw it.
  - Save often.

Appendix - Fun with Console Commands

Note: Using console commands will disable achievements on the current save

I intended this section to be referenced after completing everything else. I would beat the game first before proceeding...

So now that there is not much else to do, how about having some fun with console commands? There are a ton of them, but here are a few to get you started. To make things easier, you can copy/paste these into the console.

Oh and you know that table I have at the beginning of my guide that indicates all the sexual acts you can perform in the game? Well you can blow that table to smithereens using console commands. For this update, I suggest using a command to get more intimate with Leah 😊.

- Warp outside
  - warpto player outside
- Make everyone friends with everyone
  - social 30 friendship all all add
- Make everyone in love everyone
  - social 30 romance all all add
- Make everyone nice
  - nice all add 70 personality
- Make everyone an exhibitionist

- Make everyone like women
  - personality all likeswomen 100 equals

  - warpto player all
- Make everyone drunk
  - social all drunk 25 equals
  - social player drunk 0 equals
- Orgy (you can mix an match whoever you want - first character is performing the act on the second, and you can swap out a character name with player to perform that sex act on that character)
  - sexualact intimacy derek madison startdoggiestyle
  - sexualact intimacy brittney amy startsixtynine
  - sexualact intimacy rachael vickie startcunnilingus
  - sexualact intimacy frank katherine startmissionary
  - sexualact intimacy patrick stephanie startbj (spell bj out, steam is censoring it so I can't type it here.)
  - sexualact intimacy ashley startmasturbation
  - sexualact intimacy player leah startcowgirl

There are a ton more console commands to play around with. I will eventually get around to making a guide for them, though an in-depth help system is provided inside the console itself.
