

Normal Mode Walkthrough

(Updated 8.17.18 as of Version 0.55)

The major difference between normal and easy mode is normal mode requires 5 uses of each skill before you can level up, rather than 2. This will lead you to doing more with side characters throughout the course of the main goals, rather than being able to develop skills and finish the main path quickly.

Made with a ton of info from previous guides by wildride, Logana, and mocha.

Read her sins to find out about a secret she keeps at home. Burgle into her home between 16:00-18:59PM to find her in a compromising position, and choose to abuse her. Her sin level will increase to 70, and your sin level will increase for the use of advanced sex.

Subverting Reanna Willson

SPOILER

Go to the Williams Home after 20:00PM and introduce yourself to Reanna. Apologize for the previous misunderstanding to receive an invitation to watch her again. Peep on them around 17:00PM for a scene that will increase Reanna's sin level to 10.

Talk to Reanna and use Egg On: Would you like to go for a drink with me. She'll invite the hubby. Talk to Reanna after 20:00PM and choose "Go to Bar." When stalling Ted, ask how he met Reanna to hear a clue about a song they loved. Fail three times at trying to drink like him and then name the right song to continue stalling him:

SPOILER

Yellow Submarine

Afterwards you'll get a scene where you find out what Reanna was up to in the bathroom, which will increase her sin level to 30.

Return the next evening and show Ted your photos of Reanna. He won't believe you, but Reanna's lying will increase her sin level to 50. Unfortunately, you'll be kicked out of the house and not invited back.

Come back to the Williams Home the following day and use burglary while Reanna is home alone (8:00-9:59PM). Burgle again to get upstairs, and read Reanna's sins. You'll get some useful intel on Reanna. Afterwards search her clothes to find a small key. Exit the home and wait until Reanna goes to work (10:00AM-15:59PM). Burgle your way back to the bedroom and open the wardrobe to find a box. Open the box with the key. You'll get more intel and find out the Ted is leaving for a business trip. The next day, burgle in between 8:00-9:59AM and kidnap Reanna.

At the abandoned house, question Reanna for a scene that establishes her resistance, increases her sin level to 70, and increases your sin level for the use of advanced sex.

You will now need to use a combination of teasing, abuse, and questioning to break Reanna's resistance over the course of several days.

SPOILER

You can simply tease her in the morning and leave her unfulfilled. After the third tease, she will be ready to give in.

Once she's broken, you will use her phone to contact Ted. Go to the Williams Home after 16:00PM and choose to Bring Ted to Reanna. The following scene will raise Reanna's sin level to 100, and give you another sin level increase for advanced sex.

Subverting Tessa Clayton

SPOILER

Once you've opened up the Linneaus Room during the process of corrupting Joe, return here to meet a new professor, Tessa Clayton. Introduce yourself and use the various chat options and you'll offer to play spy for her to find out what the students think about her. Each of the students in the entrance hall will have a different, but it is

Rubi's opinion of "too young"

that will upset Tessa to the point she shows her pride, increasing her sin level to 10.

She'll then ask you to investigate crude drawings that appear in her classroom before she arrives at 10:00AM. Come to the Linneaus Room before then and choose to Hide, and you'll catch the culprit in the act. Report this to Tessa, wait until the next day, and meet her to find out her confrontation didn't go so well. You'll need to set up Craig to get caught breaking a major rule.

SPOILER

Rubi is once again the right choice

so ask her to seduce him so Tessa can catch them in the act and get angry, increasing her sin to level 30.

The next day, visit Tessa and read her sins to discover she's hesitant to make a report, and then use Egg On: Keeping Creig as an obedient student is more beneficial. She'll decide to disobey her superiors and follow your advice, increasing her sin level to 50.

Read her sins again to find out she wants some adventure, and then visit her in her office after 19:00PM. Use Egg On: Let's go for a drink, and she'll challenge you to a game with the date on the line. You'll play draughts (also known as checkers), though you won't actually get to control every move. You can choose between advancing or defending, and also choose to distract Tessa, which opens up a very brief time to use your new cheating skill on either the board or captured pieces in the Room Objects window. The following formula resulted in a win in multiple games I tried, so hopefully it works for everyone.

SPOILER

Play White, Advance, Ask about Award, Captured Pieces-Take a White Piece, Board-Remove a Black Piece, Defend, Drop a Piece, Board-Put a White Piece on the Board, Captured Pieces-Take a Black Piece, Advance, Touch her leg, Board-Remove a White Piece, Advance

When you win you'll hit the bar and Tessa's sin level will rise to 70. Your sin level will jump to 90, in this version anyway, as this is your only opportunity to cheat. The next day visit Tessa and read her sins to discover her specific fantasy. Now you need to recreate it to finish off her corruption

SPOILER

Look for the Hpnotiq at the bar and then the supermarket, and a woman you've seen before, Wendy's mother, will approach you. You should remember her favored activities from Wendy's route, so tell her "I'll fuck you like a worthless whore" to convince her to give you the goods, and the bottle. Her sin level will increase to 10 but that's as far as she can go in this version.

The go to the Seafront at 20:00PM, examine and chat with Marge the Prostitute to invite her to the Bar. Then go invite Tessa, choose Go to Bar on her options, and enjoy the scene as Tessa's sin level reaches 100.

You'll be at sin level 90, so choose Learn on your portrait menu to pick up the skill Forgery.

Subverting Helen Coombs

SPOILER

Go to the Herodot Room and use Examine on the thumbnail, then examine the vase, award, and papers. Ask Helen about the award and she'll reveal her envy for her coauthors and increase her sin level to 10.

She also mentions that she'd really like a stature currently in the possession of the Jeffersons. Visit Conrad at the Bar in the morning but he won't be amiable to parting with it, so use one of your other skills

SPOILER

Burgle your way into Layla's room and take it. Astarte should be the second figurine, or the white statue if the placement is random

Bring the figurine to Helen to increase her sin level to 30.

Now you'll need to wait several days, checking with her each day as she writes her paper, until she tells you it's ready to submit. Find a way to sabotage her.

SPOILER

Go to her office, make a copy of the papers, go home, click on your laptop and report plagiarism

Check back with Helen and she'll be livid, increasing her sin level to 50.

Go home and use the internet to search for "Helen Coombs," without the quotations. You get pretty standard info, but you might also see an incoming Email on your computer. It provides a hint for refining your search

SPOILER

The nickname Nellie, from Maria's email, and UniTor, Helen's undergraduate university, are bolded, so search for Nellie UniTor

This gives you some new insights about Helen and a connection to Annabelle Jordan, Wendy's mother. Find Annabelle in the morning at the Supermarket and talk to her about Helen, then choose to bring her to Helen forcing Professor Coombs to lie and increase her sin level to 70.

Track down Helen and use Read Sins for info, than meet with Annabelle to hatch a plan.

SPOILER

Visit Helen when she's at the University and use Lie: Bryson asked for you so she'll drop her handbag. You have a brief time window to search the bag in the Room Objects menu. The secondary pocket has the pills but you can't take them, but the inner pocket has the prescription. You'll then return to Annabelle and need to tell her the name of the pills (Armentadoln), prescribing Dr. (Amberson) and signature (2) to attempt to forge the prescription.

If you did everything correctly, visit Annabelle the next morning to get replica pills. Go to Helen's office, switch them in her handbag, and Induce her to Sin: Lust. Repeat this process for a few days until she's ready, then visit her at the University and Induce to Sin: Lust once more to call her Annabelle and get Helen to 100 corruption.

You should now have 18 ladies and 2 men completely corrupted, and a sin level of 90.
