

Shut Up and Dance

Episode 1 Walkthrough

- Go to any room you like; it doesn't affect anything. But you can visit only one room.
- "Actually I can" - you get +1 hate from Chen and won't see the last scene in Ep.2
- If you choose to help him, you get +1 respect and will see the scene at the end of Ep.2
- This will affect the scene in the second episode, so if you want everything to be fine, I'd recommend choosing "Help".
- In the evening if you "Tell them about the offer" you'll see Megan's scene.
- "Don't tell them" leads to Sarah's scene.
- Choosing between "Asking about the secret" and "Not asking about it" will affect later Episodes. (But if you want to see everything, I recommend asking her, obviously)

Megan's Scene:

- “Entering without knocking” - more revealing scene with Megan.
- “Knocking” leads to a conversation with her.

Sarah's Conversation:

- “Without knocking” - Sarah wears panties during the scene.
- If you choose “Turn it on as usual”, you'll get a chance to spank her a bit 😊
- “Turning on the safe mode” doesn't give you any points.

Sexting:

- “It was a difficult day” – this innocent message can make Megan send some nice photos to MC and will open the way to more revealing scenes with her.
- “Maybe you'll help me?” – on the other hand doesn't do much.

Jake's House:

- “Telling him the truth” gives you Jake's trust. If he knows what you're capable of he will ask you to influence Faith.
- You can agree (+1 trust and first scene with Faith) or disagree (+1 suspect).

Evening:

- Megan sends you the second photo if “It was a difficult day” was chosen before.

Thursday

Morning:

- If you got photos from Megan earlier, she'll ask you to help her choose a dress in her room.

Megan's Room:

- "Say she's hot" – will give you access to more interesting scenes in the shop and on Friday evening.

Shop:

- If you got photos from Megan, she'll invite you in the fitting-room.
- All the possible variants here are below:

	Say she's hot (Megan's room)	Say a compliment (Megan's room)
Peek	She lets MC jerk off to her.	She shows her tits.
Don't Peek	She gives MC a handjob.	She lets MC jerk off to her and twerks.

Special Scene:

- It opens if MC gets a handjob in the shop.

Friday Evening:

- If there were no scenes in the fitting-room, MC will jerk off to Megan.
- If MC said she's hot and peeked, Megan will give a handjob.
- If MC said she's hot and didn't peek, Megan will give a blowjob + there is a kissing scene on this route.

Episode 2

Beginning:

- If you told Jake about your powers or agreed to help him with Faith in the first episode, he will appear at the most interesting part of the morning.
- Though if you agreed to help him or just mentioned your powers, there will be a choice: to hide or to stay.
- If you hide, Jake will face some serious troubles in later episodes.

Back to Friday:

- There will be a special scene which depends on the ending of the previous episode. Megan will give you footjob/boobjob/blowjob.

After the Shop:

- Massage scenes also depend on the ending of the previous episode.

Talk to Sarah (First Time):

- Here you can choose if you want to talk to her.
- The first talk gives most benefits (there are three conversations with her in total)
- Be careful, if you don't talk to her at all, it may lead to some unpleasant scenes and outcomes.

First Talk:

- Choosing “Don’t believe him” leads to an interesting scene and will be useful later.

Sunday:

- If you talked to Sarah, Megan will come to your room. Again, everything depends on the previous ending.

Debt Collector:

- Choosing “Fuck you!” will impress Sarah, and if she decided not to believe MC during the first talk, she’ll reward him ;)

Evening:

- When MC comes from work, there will be new conversation with Sarah.
- She will let him touch her tits if she didn’t believe his words earlier.
- If there was no conversation with her, here is the second chance.

Debt Collector:

- If you simply give him the money, you’ll miss a lot of scenes in the restaurant!

Restaurant:

- Special scene with Sarah: If she checked his words, she’ll show her tits and rub his dick with her foot. If she just believed him during the first talk, she'll send him a photo.

- Scenes with Megan in the washroom depend on the previous ending.

Tuesday:

- If there was the conversation with Sarah, you'll have a chance to check her ass.
- If there was the second conversation, you'll oversleep.
- If there was no conversation at all, you'll have the last chance! If you still don't want to talk to her, it'll lead to NTR route / Sarah – MC – Jake route.

Jake's Birthday:

- Either Faith will be nude or not during his birthday – everything depends on the choices from the first episode.

Dinner with Megan:

- Do you remember Chen from the first episode? Well, if you agreed to help him, he'll help you too ;)

Episode 3

Beginning:

- The third Episode starts either with continuation of the scene with Megan or with MC waking up on Thursday.

Dr. Wood:

- After the scenes at the office MC goes to Dr. Wood and there you'll have a scene only if you had got that blueballing ending at the end of Ep.2
- Otherwise MC won't get lucky with the Doctor.

Back Home:

- Two different conversations with Megan depending on the ending of previous Ep.

Thursday Night:

- These scenes completely depend on your relationship with Sarah.
- If you talked to her during the second Ep. she'll come to your room at night. (There are two different scenes depending on the outcome of that dinner with Megan).
- If you didn't talk to her – well, be ready to face the result of your decision :-p

NTR/Threesome route:

- There are two options.
- Beat him: NTR route in the future.
- Listen to him: Sarah –MC – Jake threesome route in the future.

Friday Morning:

- Again, two different conversations with Megan in the kitchen.

After work:

- Several variants here.
- If Faith is angry with Jake (MC hid in the wardrobe in the 2nd Ep.), you'll get a chance to help him out and he'll be extremely grateful to you. You'll get a hot scene with Faith regardless of your choice here.
- If you refuse to help him – that will lead to MC – Faith route.
- If Faith isn't mad (MC didn't hide). You'll get a hot scene which opens a threesome route. But there'll be a chance to get rid of Jake (if you don't like him xD) in the future.
- If Jake knows about MC's powers but hasn't seen them yet – Conversation with Jake.
- If Jake doesn't know about MC's powers – you can decide if you want to tell him.

Back home:

- If MC took the money back from the debt collector, there'll be a news program describing recent events which will make Sarah upset.
- If you're aren't on the NTR or threesome route, you'll get a chance to comfort her ;)

- Her scene varies as well. If you talked to Sarah on the very first time she'd asked for that – the scene will be a bit more interesting.

Dinner with Ange:

- Please meet new girl, guys!
- Sarah may get pissed off because of Ange's words or otherwise may agree with her.
- And if you aren't on Sarah – Jake route, then the dinner promises to be interesting ;)

Ange's request:

- Asking for something in return will make your relationship a bit hotter later.

Special Scenes.

- You shouldn't be on the NTR route if you want to get both special scenes, guys ;)

Episode 4

Ange:

- If you decided to ask for something in return in the previous episode, Ange will be a bit clumsy and let you check her out.

Sarah:

- The scene in the living-room varies depending on the route you've chosen. If you didn't pay much attention to Sarah, she won't be really enthusiastic to talk to you.

Yoga scene:

- You can get this H-scene only on good path with Sarah.

Beach:

- Here we go! If you want to massage Megan – ask her! She'll refuse at first but will agree later. If you don't ask her and start with Sarah, then Sarah will be the one who massages Megan.
- You can't massage Sarah on the NTR path.
- While massaging Sarah you have to stop before 'Fingering' option. It will only make her mad

Looking for Sarah:

- This scene is available only if you massaged Sarah and touched her pussy. But didn't finger her.
- Fingering her chocolate eye will lead to anal scenes in the future.

Card Game:

- You can't get the scene on the NTR path.

Special Scene:

- A dream sequence, continuation of the card game.

Faith's scene:

- A big scene for the ones who has chosen the sharing route. Sharing is caring ... though this time someone can get hurt a bit :-p
- To get this scene you had to influence Faith in the 1st Ep. and meet Jake in the bedroom in the beginning of the 2nd Ep.

Restaurant:

- If you decided to leave Faith only to yourself earlier, then you'll head straight to the restaurant.
- Following Kate will lead to sex scene with her and using your powers on Megan.
- Staying with Megan will lead to a romantic route with her.

Episode 5

Beginning:

- There are a few different ways to start this episode.
 - 1) If you used the powers on Megan and you're on the sharing route with Faith then you'll get a scene in MC's room.
 - 2) If you're on the love route with Megan you'll start this ep. In the kitchen.

Kitchen (Megan – love route, Sarah – love route):

- When Megan decides to open her robe you'd better don't tell her anything because it leads to a quiz scene with Sarah.

Sarah's quiz:

- The right answers are 'Physician', 'Choir', 'Surname'.
- If you answer correctly, Sara definitely finds a way to please you ;-p

Kitchen (Megan – influenced route, Sarah – love route):

- When Sarah asks you if you're trying to get her attention – answer 'Yes'!

Office:

- Emma's question about using the powers doesn't have any impact on the story at the moment but it will have it later. So I suggest answering honestly.

Postman's House:

- If you decide to answer the call and tell Ange the address, she'll help you. This choice also opens Ann's route in the future episodes. So if you're interested in both Ange and Ann, feel free to tell her everything.

Postman's House (No Ange):

- There's a choice either to use the powers or not. I'd vote for not using them but you're free to choose.

Back Home, Living Room:

- This scene has a few variations depending on your route.
- If Megan is influenced you'll get an invitation to her bedroom later.

- If she's on the love route and you haven't told her about the robe in the morning, you'll get an H-scene, otherwise you can count for a goodnight kiss.

Sarah's Special Scene

Massage Scene:

- You have to be on the influenced route with Megan to get this scene.
- And at the end of this episode you can decide if you want Megan to hit on Sarah. Choose according to your preferences ;-p

Episode 6

Beginning:

- The beginning of the episode depends on your ending in ep.5. You'll wake up either in Megan's bedroom or in yours.

Morning (Megan Influenced Path):

- You'll wake up in her room if you influenced her in Episode 4.
- Just enjoy the scene ;)

Morning (MC's Bedroom):

- If you decided to choose Megan's Love route, MC wakes up in his room.

- There's a choice either to Jerk Off or to Say 'Hi' to Megan.

Jerk Off (Sarah's Scene):

- If Sarah isn't mad at you (you talked to her in Episode 2), you'll get a thigh-job scene with her.
- If she's mad – well, she'll be still mad at you.

Say 'Hi' to Megan:

- If you helped Chen in Episode 1, Megan will let you come in her room.
- If you gave her Breast Examination in Episode 5 (and didn't tell her anything about her robe during Ep. 5 breakfast scene), she'll let you watch her changing and show you the third outfit.

Office:

- If Ange helped you get rid of the 'post man', Emma will send you to Ange's house.
- If you decided not to call Ange, you'll go straight to Emma's house.

Emma's House:

- Watch the scene while they're setting up the table, then her husband arrives.
- IMPORTANT: If you choose not to help Emma to deal with her husband – there won't be any fun with her in the future.

Ange's House:

- If you tell Ange the truth about the pills, you'll miss the scene with Ann.

- Lying to her/Doing as you want both lead to the scene with Ann.
- After the scene you'll head to Emma's house to report about everything and her husband will return home.
- IMPORTANT: If you choose not to help Emma to deal with her husband – there won't be any fun with her in the future.

Back Home:

- After returning home, Megan will give you a nice present which make your life way better ;)

Sarah's Party – Jenny's Scene:

- If you're in good relationships with Sarah, she'll ask you to join her little party which will definitely have a happy ending.
- If your relationships are bad – no party, no Jenny, no fun.

Special Scene:

- It starts after Jenny's scene, so you can watch it only if you were in Sarah's room and joined her party.

That's all guys, thank you for playing! I hope you enjoyed. Feel free to express your thoughts about the game and I'll be grateful if you support me on Patreon!
