

Parental Love Achievements

Here's a quick breakdown on how to get all the achievements in the game.

Most of these will get unlocked as you reach them; others require you to complete the entire route.

Make it special

Made Elly's first time special and remembered Ada's first time somewhat clearly during the same playthrough

Harem

Got to the Harem route ending

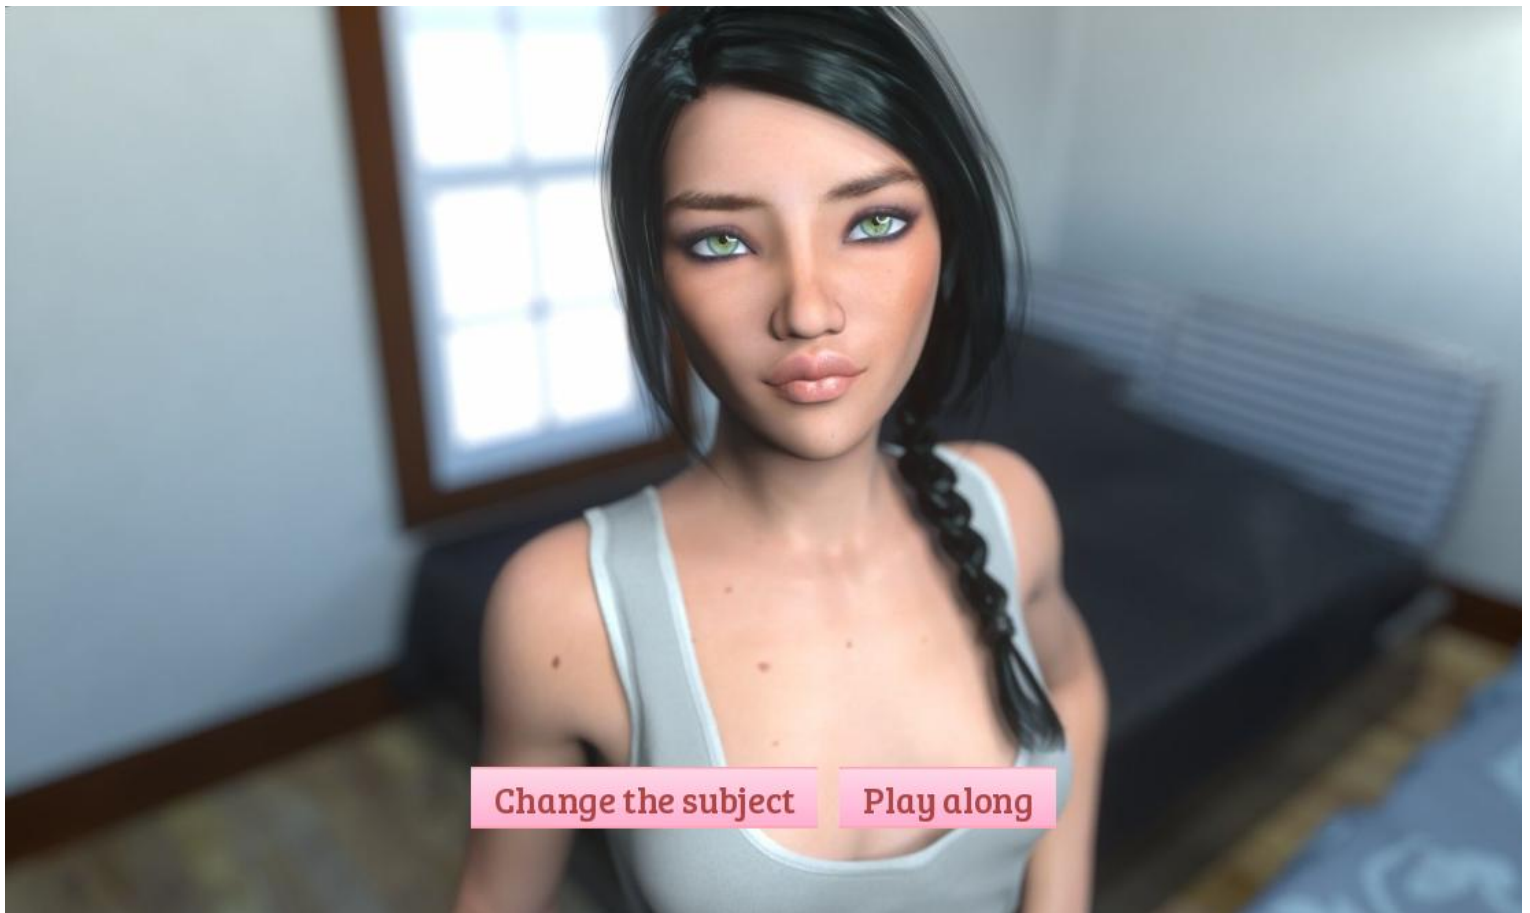

Now where did I leave my Sofi...

Got to the Harem route ending without Sofi moving in at the end

Now where did I leave my Sofi may be confusing on how to get but during a playthrough of the Harem route, after Sofi comes to your place and moves in she makes you an offer. You choose Play Along and continue to the end of the Harem route

My sweetie

Got to the My sweetie route ending

The pure husband

Got to the The pure husband route ending

The Forbidden One

Got to the The Forbidden One route ending

Dear sister

Got to the Dear sister route ending

That's all folks!

Achieved every possible ending to the story. This doesn't account for soft-harem or non-soft-harem. Did you know there were two versions of the harem ending?

It don't grow on trees

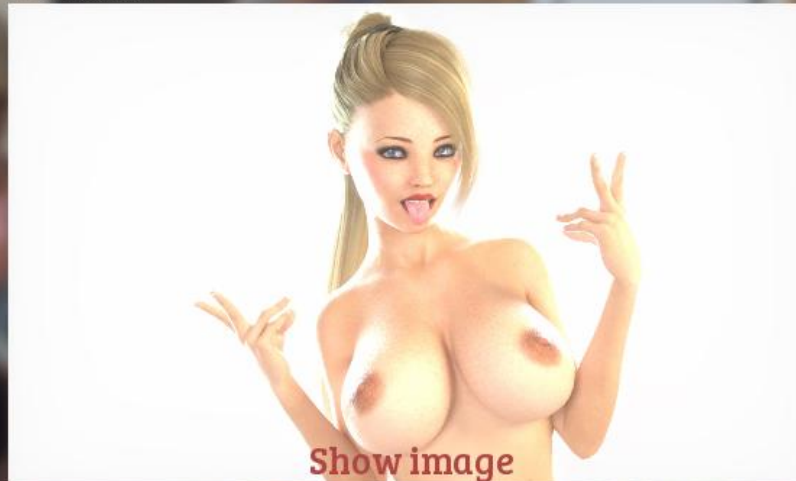

Willingly chose to bully both Elly and Ada during a single playthrough with the same joke about not buying them clothes. Not nice!

It don't grow on trees requires you to jokingly say no 2 different times during the same playthrough/route when you go shopping with Elly and then later with Ada.

Dating my... doughnut!

Took at least five seconds to look at the 'DMD' reference during the Sofi hair salon sequence. DMD was absolutely THE largest inspiration for this game. Without it, there's no way Parental Love would exist

During the Harem route you'll help Sofi choose a wig. In the background a girl is getting her hair done. After she gets up and walks past you, the MC will turn his head. I recommend staying on that image for a bit longer than 5 seconds.

I don't remember this...

Got to the massage parlor happy ending scene. This is an achievement because the scene wasn't originally in the game during development of that part. Shoutouts to the OG's who really didn't remember this scene :)

I don't remember this is achieved during the Harem route. It is not too long after spending a couple nights watch/waiting for the intruder. Just a heads up, the masseuse is Trans.

Dark mind

Started a game of Parental Love with the uncensored patch installed. Don't tell the others there's an achievement for this!

Rickshaw

Named yourself Rick at the start of the game. No offense to any players actually named Rick, but the main characters surname is Shaw, which makes Rick Shaw sort of a funny name to go for

Daddy's favourite

Chose to wake up Ada both times when prompted by Emily.
Choosing Elly doesn't have an equivalent achievement because during development, choosing Ada twice would lead to the exact same scene both times; this was because I was lazy haha

Completionist

Acquired all other achievements. Thanks for playing!
