A screenshot from the game 'The Legend of Zelda: Breath of the Wild' showing a 16x16 grid of stone tiles in a dark, ancient setting. The grid contains various items: a small figure of Link on the left, several glowing blue squares, a red and white striped flag, a yellow and black radiation symbol, a blue wavy line, and a small bomb. Above the grid, a stone archway with two green masks and a glowing number '23' is visible.
