The Redburns: Chapter 5

Welcome to the walkthrough for The Redburns: Chapter 5.

This walkthrough chooses paths that will offer the best of the different experiences with each girl. These can change scene visuals or add content. Sometimes I'll also give some insight into a character's thinking or motivation.

Names used in this walkthrough:

Megan = older redhead

Sam = younger redhead (older than you though)

Chapter 1

Avoid Megan and sneak out

You'll miss a nice non-sexual scene (IMHO) in the basement, but you'll have experienced the warehouse. This will matter.

Escaping the warehouse

OK, this is a walkthrough, but there are several paths through and you can start the maze again, with no penalty.

Have a go. Can you get the massed zombies death image?

It's not Sam, it's you

You believe you've run out of chances, so desperately pin your hopes on her not seeing you as a threat to Sam.

This may backfire later, but it gains points for now.

Don't button her shirt

Refusing, on the grounds that your trying to mend your relationship, helps win her over. For a moment.

Apologize

Wow. You have a lot to make up for. Apologize like a man and begin to break down her hostility towards you.

Don't ask for a hand-job

You're either a wily dog or genuinely care for her, but she appreciates the gesture and even gives you another chance to put yourself in her hands.

Keep your pants on Whether she believes you or not, playing hard to get will gain even more points. You need these to unlock a later variant scene.

With the deal in its early stages and so much at stake, she doesn't take no for an answer, so...

Kiss me

She's taken aback, but she's beginning to think that your feelings for her go beyond your base needs. Don't they?

Tell her about entering the warehouse

Your close call is embarrassing, but share the knowledge. This will matter.

Wash the cup properly. Or not

This has no repercussions, though leaving a memento leads to an alternative scene.

From the beginning

Choosing this will lead to an explanation of her actions. If you choose the other, she'll find out you lied.

Yes, I'll stay

You'll have another chance to choose to stay, but agreeing immediately gains the most points.

Run at it

Nothing proves your love more than charging a quick-on-its-feet undead eating machine.

Quickly look at her tits

Hey. She started it.

Agree

or

Cheekily agree

Your choice.

You'll gain points for either, though 'Cheekily agree' has more boob-grabbing.

Continue her little game

Stop sitting back and show her how this game is played.

Hug her

Don't be mean, she's hurting.

Kiss her

She kissed you first.

I'll join you

Show her you care for her well-being. You'll gain points for the other option, but this will unlock future scenes.

Chapter 2

Mention the shower incident

You're playing with fire, but it's good to clear the air.

Focus on her needs

She's struggling to justify her actions, but they seem to be coming from a good place.

I bet you have a cute cumface

No one could ever accuse you of having class.

Put your hand on your head

A small step in you touching her during your encounters.

Play dumb

Tease her and she'll tease you back.

Chapter 3

Stall for time

Sometimes doing nothing earns you more rewards.

Help Them

Be a hero!

Look closer

There's no harm in looking.

Give her some more food and your spare knife

You can try each option to see how it plays, but you need to give her the knife. This will matter.

Accept the offer

Duh.

Offer to put on underwear

It's just nice to make an effort.

Ask about her flashing her tits

This will lose you a point, but you'll get a small scene later on.

However you could choose 'Try to find out how she feels about you'. You'll gain a point, but lose the scene.

Go find them

What is going on with Sam?

Ask about Sam

This shows Megan you care and you'll get a small reward.

It will be OK Megan. We'll be OK

or

Aren't you going to finish what you started?

This is a major relationship decision.

Choose the first to continue the "romance" path.

Choose the second to begin to change your relationship so that she bends to your sexual demands.

Chapter 4

You now have chosen either to Romance or Dominate Megan. Choices will be highlighted if they relate to one path or the other

Help her

or

Don't help

Your choice.

Though if you choose the first choice, remember to stay where you are and follow through on your commitment.

Apologize for pushing for the blowjob (Dominate Megan path)

Whether you mean it or not, it's nice to be nice. After emotionally blackmailing someone into giving you a blowjob.

Kiss her (Romance Megan path)

Feel her tits (Dominate Megan path)

Gloves off

or

On.

Your choice.

Skin to skin, or rough leather.

Cum on her tits

Give her what she's expecting.

If you choose instead to distract her, you'll lose points, but will level-up in spank bank material.

Lick her

Make her melt on your tongue.

Spit on her

Well, it's the thought that counts.

That'll never apply to you...

Let her know that she's more than just a collection of moist orifices.

And I love you

The obvious choice on a romance path, but this may have repercussions.

Kiss her (Dominate Megan path)

Show her that you care about your new pet.

I could pee on you

or

Let's just get back

Your choice.

Although choosing the first option allows the possibility of future sprinkly encounters.

Go in there

or

Don't go in there

Your choice.

Do you want to see the deviant's sex den?

If you choose not to subject yourself to that, you'll be asked again, but only because curiosity is hard to resist.

Future story spoilers ahead!

By its very nature, a walkthrough is a spoilerfest. However the next choice is a doozy.

I suggest, and hope, that you try the story first before reading any further.

There's always rollback.

Grab Sam

or

Reason with the girl

This is a major relationship decision.

Choose the first if you want Sam and Olivia to get along. This creates the Sam & Olivia path.

Choose the second if you want Sam to... hold a grudge against Olivia. This creates the Sam vs. Olivia path.

Drag Sam to safety (Sam vs. Olivia path)

However, if you feel brave, you could try to Rush the attacker...

Help her (Sam & Olivia path)

You'll now begin to influence Olivia romantically with your decisions.

Chapter 5

Now begins the start of a new group dynamic.

To reflect this, sometimes multiple choices may be offered. They'll have a brief explanation of their general aims or repercussions, so you may choose your own path with that character. No promises on where they may eventually lead.

Kiss her

Everyone likes a bit of romance with their morning wood.

I Like Them

or

I'm not a fan

Your choice.

Do you want Megan to lose her nipple jewelry?

I'm glad she's here

or

I just wish she wasn't here

The option whether or not to be involved with Olivia will come later

The first choice is pretty straightforward. You're cool with her being there.

The second is more complex. If you choose this, you open yourself up to the possibility of dominating Olivia. It doesn't make a romance option impossible, but it does make it harder if you decide to try some domination, then romance her later.

Trying to dominate Olivia will be marked 'Third Wheel Olivia'.

Let her continue (Sam vs Olivia path)

Time for Olivia to see some sexy times.

If you're on the 'Third Wheel Olivia' path

Yes, Yes it is

or

No, No it isn't

Choose the first to try some domination of Olivia.

Choose the second to continue the fun times, (almost) blame-free.

Wait until Olivia isn't around (Sam & Olivia path + Third wheel Olivia)

You can try to get Sam to blow you, but this option helps your chances of romancing Olivia (if you decide to do that later).

I mean she's not wrong (Sam & Olivia path)

Girls like compliments.

Apologize for Sam's behavior (Sam vs Olivia path)

Apologize for the blowjob (Sam vs Olivia path)

Whichever option you're offered, it keeps the chance of romance alive.

Don't involve Olivia (Sam & Olivia path)

You could ask Olivia to get involved, but Sam's got you covered, so you don't need to be the dick.

I'm cumming Olivia! (Sam & Olivia path)

If you're on the 'Third Wheel Olivia' path, this will cost you romance points.

Otherwise it's a good move.

When you're with Megan in the bathroom, and you're on the Romance Megan path, any choice is fine. Your choice.

If you're on the Dominate Megan path, you have a decision to make...

Slowly push her head back down

The time for talk is over.

Hug her

or

Slowly push her to her knees

The first is you being a nice master.

The second begins a slow descent into treating Megan as an object of your base needs, with all of its consequences. You have been warned.

Cum in her mouth

or

Cum on her food

Your choice.

However, choosing the second will lead to more chances to add protein to the girls diet.

Touch her feet

or

Don't touch her feet

Your choice.

No harm either way. She won't feel it.

Kiss her

Or

Caress her breasts

or

Reassure her

This is a major relationship decision.

You now need to decide your future with Olivia.

The first is a Romance Olivia path, with no true domination.

The second will put you on a Dominate Olivia path, with little hope of real romance.

The third means you won't pursue Olivia at all.
