

Long Lost Daughter – The Guide

By Fawny Fairquim

While it is true that this VN requires no walkthrough, there are multiple timelines and characters, so I thought a game guide might be helpful.

As I populated the game guide map with my characters, I admit I had a “what the fuck” moment. It became pretty clear to me why so many people were comparing my game to “Ecchi Sensei”. Then I realized that this game guide is pretty much a necessity. See for yourself:

This guide will be nothing fancy since I don't want to devote too much time to it, but hopefully it will be helpful for those who want to keep track of who all these females are and to sort out all the timeline shit.

Getting Started

The first thing you'll be asked to do is to name the school you'll be teaching at:

Yep you've seen this school before if you've played even a handful of Koikatu-based games. For a first-time developer making a practice game it was just too tempting to use these already fully developed settings instead of spending weeks making my own.

Later you will get the opportunity to select the ages of your first (18-year old default) and last year (21-year-old) female students (which will include four of your daughters). Keep that in mind while naming your school along with the fact that this is a Christian girl's academy. Also, in reference to the ages, any girl listed in this guide as 18 or 21 will actually display what you typed in the blank when their ages are referenced to in the VN.

I've gotten a number of complaints about my writing being too formal, but it is what it is. This VN is purely self-indulgence on my part so I'll save the more approachable narrative for my upcoming commercial game that will be produced after this one is finished.

Next, you'll be asked to rename the pastor principal of this school. Kind of hard to do so when you don't even know what she looks like, so here she is:

This guide will now show the various groups of characters with their default ages and whether they are fuckable (perhaps optionally). I'm not adding any heights or measurements...you have eyes. But for a baseline the MC is about 5'10" (178 cm). Petite Skye is about 4'11" (150 cm) and weighs around 85 pounds (39 kg).

Bunni

This friendly and delightful love goddess will show up early to introduce you to the game mechanics regarding how the options work. She will also assure you that if you're not really into spiritual and existential dialog, you can skip a lot of it.

If you decide to go the full harem route in this VN, you will be rewarded with a final glorious scene with her and will find out what it's like to fuck a goddess who exists outside of time and space. She will appear periodically in the game to provide some commentary. She will also pop up to give you a score if you make certain game-ending choices.

The Family

Michael (renamable)

Age: 40

This is you. You will play most of the game POV but I didn't lock myself into that mode so I would be free to show other more pleasing angles, particularly during the H scenes.

You had a rough upbringing being raised by the Matriarch (a statuesque steely blue-eyed blonde) who had the mentality of a mob crime boss. You became rather detached, but perhaps somebody will come along to help you become more emotionally available.

You left your childhood home in the mid-country suburb that you grew up in as soon as you could and quickly fell in with a disreputable west coast crowd who showed you how drugs and alcohol could help you dull your pain and lead you to make ridiculously bad decisions.

- Spoiler

Long Lost Daughter

Age: 2

One of the early bad choices your alcohol and drug-addled mind made was to marry and impregnate your first wife after only knowing her for a couple of months. This wife became hopelessly addicted to crack cocaine and became a total skeezer. Luckily you were able to maintain enough integrity to give your baby daughter some semblance of loving care, but you still ended up in a horrible crack house with her until she was rescued your sister's friend Colette.

You managed to clean yourself up after this and were supposed to be able to be part of the girl's life as she grew up, but Colette disappeared along with your sister and you never got to see your child again.

April (renamable/fuckable)

Age: 40

You met this lovely lady while still living in the crack house of your youth, but she saw something salvageable in you and helped you to eventually become clean and sober with the help of the AA and NA programs. With this woman's help, you finally attend college to get a teaching degree.

She has her own baggage, of course, and while she is a loving and devoted wife, she is also something of a tyrant.

• Spoiler

April will be the impetus to the family orgy experiment. She shares the MC's devotion to spirituality which has led her to not being romantically possessive. When she finds herself becoming sexually attracted to one of her twin daughters, she does not stand in the way when it becomes quite apparent that both of your daughters are very interested in you that way.

Charlotte (renamable/fuckable) Age: 18

This good-natured but edgy geek is a total gamer girl and is the older twin sister. She is aspiring to become a world-class gamer but is held back by the shitty computer and internet connection she is forced to operate with. She is a virgin with a propensity for romance and so is very curious about experimenting with her sexuality.

• Spoiler

Charlotte sees that you are finally gainfully employed as a teacher and sees her opportunity to upgrade her gaming system. She makes it very clear that she will offer you sexual favors if you help her out. But being a romantic she just ends up falling in love with you anyway. Still, much to your wife's chagrin, you give her the computer upgrades she was hoping for.

Skye (renamable/fuckable)

Age: 18

This tiny ethereal girl who is your younger twin daughter was seemingly born completely spiritually awakened and was what is known as an indigo child. Though extremely bright, she also was not very interested in being part of this world. Her total apathy towards sexuality seemingly kept her from reaching puberty until just very recently. But now that her hormones have finally kicked in, she is finding that she has an issue to overcome after all...she's hot for both her father and her sister. She plays for both teams like most of the females in this VN do ala Penthouse style.

• Spoiler

You will get to watch how this simple girl eventually evolves into becoming the love goddess Bunni. The question is what happened to motivate her to fuck with time and space and meddle with the lives of you and everyone you know?

Deirdre (renamable/fuckable)

Age: 52

This feisty ginger, also known as Mother (the MC's mother), is good-natured, but is also rather self-centered and selfish.

• Spoiler

There's a good reason she turned out that way.

She was raped and impregnated by her father when she was only 11-years-old and gave birth to you the MC. After the Matriarch had the father killed, Deirdre made it her mission to protect her children from the emotional abuse and rapacious sexual appetite of the Matriarch. Without any support system of her own, Deirdre used every method at her disposal to make sure her mother was always sexually satisfied so that she would leave you and Azaleah alone. Now this troubled woman is stirring the pot in the current family and butting heads with April.

Even though Deirdre has huge a sexual appetite, up until recently she found herself completely frigid and unable to have an orgasm. Largely because of Bunni's love goddess aura, and her propensity to voyeurism, Deirdre broke through her frigidity and was able to make herself cum through masturbation.

But that wasn't enough for the woman. She soon found it was her delight to tease her son behind April's back. This escalated into a bathroom shower scene where she snuck in behind the MC to give her son a reach-around handy.

That's when things got really strange.

- Note, everything beyond this point is a spoiler!

Young Michael (renamable)

Age: 18

There are four versions of this character in the VN in all four timelines that are portrayed. Only the Alpha and Bubble versions of the MC will be discussed here.

When you begin the game you only remember the Alpha timeline. Although you grew up under the Matriarch's craziness, it wasn't nearly the fascist regime of the Bubble timeline and you had a fairly normal childhood. You even were finally able to get a computer with free online access that helped you to get much closer to a female Japanese pen pal.

You even had a normal relationship with your fairly well-adjusted mother. But unbeknownst to you there was another version of you that didn't have things quite so good.

Young Mommy (fuckable)

Age: 30

In the Bubble timeline the Matriarch was a true psychopath who needed to control every move her children and grandchildren made and kept them in her little “bubble” of control.

You had zero freedom here and you, your young Mommy and your twin sister Azaleah were becoming quite disturbed. Because repression was the rule, it erupted in various ways and there was much sexual tension between Michael and Young Mommy. It finally culminated in a scene where the desperately horny boy whipped his dick out in front of his young mother.

This is where Bunni intervened and pulled the Alpha mother and Michael from the shower handjob scene and into this scene. They both were able to see through the eyes of their younger selves and feel everything they were feeling, but they had no direct control.

But the so-called Alpha version of the mother that was pulled back from the shower scene was in reality the Bubble version of her.

During a previous occurrence of this scene, she had chosen to get freaked out by her son's lewd display and fled the room. After that Michael ran away the same way his twin sister had and left this poor woman alone to deal with the Matriarch. Bunni had mercy upon her and pulled the nearly insane woman out of that situation and placed her in the Alpha timeline with the saner version of the Matriarch.

So what happened to the real Alpha mother? Sorry to say, she exchanged places with the Bubble mother and was left to fend for herself in the original Bubble timeline. Though she's a goddess, Bunni has her blind spots.

But that version of the Bubble timeline was short lived as Bubble Deirdre, desperate not to let her younger self repeat her hellish experience, influenced Young Mommy to impale herself upon her son's cock and fuck him until he came inside her and immediately impregnated her thus producing an all new version of the Bubble timeline featuring...

Peach (renamable/fuckable)

Age: 21

Both Alpha Michael and Bubble Deirdre immediately became aware of their previously non-existent daughter Peach the second Young Michal blasted his load inside her womb. This unsettled Alpha Michael who became merged with his Bubble self along with his horrible memories, but Bubble Deidre became strengthened by merging with the Bubble version of herself that had raised Peach and became far more stable and confident. The earlier version of her that had covered behind her son in the face of April no longer existed.

What did now exist was the innocent bubbly Peach. She was the ultimate survivor and learned early that charming the psychopathic Matriarch was by far the best choice.

But the new family dynamic she is living under is putting the simple young girl's survival abilities to the test as her long held belief systems are now being challenged as she is attracted to you.

Matilda (renamable, fuckable)

Age: 21

The long lost daughter had been raised by insane Bubble Azaleah. Matilda only had her faith in God to maintain her own sanity. She saw how worshipping the biblical god of wrath had warped her mother and though she followed her mother's religious belief system she had an inkling that God wasn't really like that. Her God, she decided, was truly loving and wasn't crazy.

But her mother absolutely was nuts and made her wear long dresses, lest she would attract a boy who would get her pregnant. Azaleah didn't seem to care that even in an all-girl Christian academy she had set her child up to be an outcast.

But Matilda sensed something in her new teacher that she could hold on to. When she found out that you were her real father, she was both delighted and then appalled when she realized she was romantically attracted to you. Things only became more complicated after she moved in with your family.

Classmates

Valentina (optionally fuckable) Age: 21

This girl was angry through and through. She was an only child after her mother had a hysterectomy after bearing her and she keenly felt her father's disappointment about not having a son.

So Val decided to become that son even though deep inside she was a total girly girl. She became an elite athlete but that still wasn't enough to win her father's approval and love. This just made her angrier and as she enters this story, she's a ball of rage.

Val has had a longtime crush on her classmate Monique. But she also is finding that she's attracted to her new teacher.

Is Val also hiding a secret under her skirt? That is for you the player to decide.

Monique (optionally fuckable) Age: 21

Monique is the first of five characters from the Sinfest comic strip to appear in this VN. At this point the young woman is projecting her shallow boy crazy It Girl persona who is entirely vain and self-absorbed. She has been brushing off her classmate Val's advances, though she is secretly interested. When you come upon the scene this girl who has been sheltered by her wealthy conservative parents gloms onto you as she sees her first opportunity to practice her seduction skills on a real man (that isn't her father).

Later in her life Monique evolves into a slam poet and then into a socially conscious radical feminist who develops an endearing lesbian relationship with the lovable devil girl Absinthe.

But for now, she's totally into sexual experimentation and you can choose to be the beneficiary of this phase in her development.

Fuchsia (optionally fuckable)

Age: 21

Before you met Fuchsia, you'd seen a few devil girls on the tube or in social media but you'd never met one. They generally seemed to be the slutty opportunists one might expect from succubae.

But after meeting this Sinfest devil girl who was openly spying for the devil in an all-girl Christian school, you sensed that this being was not matching the stereotype.

There was something deep and innately decent about this artistic girl despite her spoken allegiance to evil.

You figured every heterosexual man was curious about what it would be like to fuck a succubus, but you would decide about that later. For now, you just wanted to get to know her better.

No matter how you choose to interact with her, you will have quite the influence on her as she later rebels against the devil to engage in an innocent romance with Criminy the bookworm.

Mirai (optionally fuckable)

Age: 0.05

This girl had saved your bacon the first day of class by keeping Valentina from staging a total rebellion. Then you found out from your sister-in-law Katyrina that she is an android that had been activated only a couple of weeks ago.

The biggest shocker was that she had been programmed by your Japanese pen pal Kumiko from your early youth. Your budding romance had been thwarted by the beautiful young girl's mother and your heart had been broken. Now you find out that this android has an embedded program called Aiko that is coded to continue the romance between you and Kumiko by proxy since the girl from your youth had died recently.

You can choose to romance the android or reject her which will send you into a tailspin of grief that immediately launches you into the Bunni Zone Kumiko Timeline described in the Kumiko character description later in this guide.

Schoolmates

Principal Fairchild (renamable/optionally fuckable)

Age: 29

Despite being a religious fanatic, you found this woman to be likeable and reasonable. She allowed the girls to express themselves with their school uniforms and makeup which was unusual for Christian Pastors heading up an all-girl school.

Her unusual permissiveness could be a reflection of some inner turmoil as she is the daughter of the prophetess who started out the Seventh Day Adventist reform sect that built the academy. Your own twin sister Azaleah is complicating matters by staging a coup to become the new principal and send the school tumbling back into the dark ages.

Her given name is Abigail, and it is clear that the crush she had on you as a little girl is still in full flame if you wish to fan it.

Tange (fuckable)

Age: 18

This feisty screwball is the founder of the Bare Shoulder Club that helped to rescue your daughter Skye from her spiritual crisis.

Raised by her mother in a farmhouse, she is the third main character from the Sinfest comic strip that you'll meet in this VN. Given to malaprops and mental confusion, she nevertheless has an indomitable spirit and a heart of gold. More importantly, despite being in a lesbian relationship with another of your long lost daughters, Betsy, she is very curious about your cock.

Although this VN likes to give you the choice of whether or not to romance non-family members, this girl is the exception as the Bare Shoulder Club is just gonna have their way with you.

Harpy Golemette (optionally fuckable)

This former school mascot is a construct who was brought to “life” by Bunni when Azaleah threatened to destroy it. This 12 foot tall creature wanders the world to do the love goddess’ bidding.

You may wonder why it didn’t cause a total panic at the beach when it appeared, but don’t forget this is Sinfest world. The beings inhabiting this planet have seen far weirder shit.

This golemette (yes, I’m coining that word) will later play a key role in this VN, after which you will have the opportunity to invite it into the harem. Since it was programmed by Bunni, the being is intelligent and playful and probably knows a few tricks about sex if you can get past the indigo skin color and the fact that it’s literally twice your height.

Extended Family

Katyrina (fuckable)

Age: 39

Your wife April's younger sister is the robotics genius who designed the body for Mirai/Aiko the android. She is a weirdo who loves cats so much that she had kitty ears surgically attached to her skull.

Fortunately, she is also very good natured but is rather emotionally shallow. For her sex is simply a fun diversion she engages in between her robotics projects which is her true passion. She is currently renting a hotel room that she shares with the android she designed. It is apparent that she hasn't engaged with the android sexually herself, so you have to give her credit for integrity as she is respecting Kumiko's wishes for Aiko to be only for you, if you so choose.

Azaleah (aka Leah, aka Pastor Leah, fuckable)

Age: 40

Your twin sister went batshit crazy after she ran away from the Matriarch just before you did when you were both 18. You wonder what would have happened if you had run away with her, as she clearly was romantically interested in you.

As it was, the crazy woman had the presence of mind to have her friend Colette rescue Matilda from the crack house that you lived in and you would always be grateful for that.

Matilda was able to help restore your sister to a semblance of sanity and she allowed your long lost daughter to move in with you. Whether Azaleah will continue to stage her coup of the academy remains to be seen, but you still had many questions for your sister and you would be visiting her again soon without Matilda.

Young Azaleah

Age: 18

Your twin sister was rebellious and that was not a good trait to have when one lived with the ultra-control freak Matriarch. The fact that it took so long for your sibling to run away from home is the remarkable thing. She invited you to join her and you would always wonder how that would have turned out. Perhaps she wouldn't have gone insane and you wouldn't have turned to drugs and alcohol. But then again, it could have been a total cluster fuck.

You had missed your twin greatly over the years and were now happy to have another chance to resume your relationship now that she was back to being the feisty and loving girl you grew up with. There had been a great deal of sexual tension between you two before she left and you were more than a little interested to see if you could reignite that passion within the current religious fanatic version of your sister.

Betsy (renamable/fuckable)

Age: 18

You first encounter Betsy walking down a sidewalk with her mother while you were sporting an obnoxious boner while remembering your Kumiko romance. The young girl had been impressed and when she told her lover Tange about it, the Bare Shoulder Club was born.

As the BS Club was pursuing its agenda to see your dick, you came to realize that Betsy was probably a daughter that you had fathered during a blackout at a wild party just after you had impregnated your wife April. The harpy golemette later confirmed this.

Your newest daughter is passionately in love with you so it's just a matter of time before you romance her, but how this will unfold remains to be seen as thanks to Bunni, her mother is onboard the sex train.

Kumiko Timeline

Kumiko (fuckable)

Age: 18

Your Japanese pen-pal fell in love with you in both the Alpha and Bubble timeline. The difference was that in the Alpha you both had computers and were able to escalate the romance by trading digital photos online:

You both had to be more subtle in the Bubble timeline with your letters and photos that you exchanged, but that seemingly only increased the passion.

In both timelines Kumiko's mother nixed the romance so that the girl could focus on her academic studies.

Kumiko was indeed focused and became a world class AI programmer. She hooked up with Katyrina (in more ways than one) and the two produced Mirai/Aiko the android, a being who is state of the art in both AI and robotic bodily function.

If you choose to reject the option to romance Aiko near the beginning of Chapter 2, the android will deactivate that program and become just Mirai forever. This launches you into a state of horribly unresolved agony as you realized that the recently deceased first love of your life is truly gone forever. You are instructed to save the game at this point so you can resume it from here after experiencing what's coming up next.

Bunni comes to your rescue and you find yourself fully in the body of another young Bubble version of yourself that defied everyone by traveling to Japan to marry the girl you love. This is the Kumiko timeline. This timeline is different than all the others in that you fully become and control this new version of yourself.

Soon you enter the church and meet your new bride for the first time. After getting to know the bridesmaid Petra and the priest Janice, both close friends of Kumiko, you find yourself at the altar ready to take your vows. This leads to a three-option branch that will determine how the game ends for you.

Petra (fuckable)

Age: 21

The bridesmaid is a friendly and voluptuous blonde from Germany. She makes it pretty clear early on that she is quite attracted to you.

Being a teenaged male, you find it quite difficult not to stare at the bridesmaid's almost exposed boobs all during the proceedings, but either your bride doesn't notice or she doesn't care.

It seems to be the latter since Petra verbally draws attention to the raging erection that is obscenely bulging your dress pants.

Priest Janice (fuckable)

Age: 25

Female Catholic priests are almost unheard of even in the Sinfest universe. Janice from New Zealand may look like your average librarian, but there's more to her than meets the eye.

Janice's cassock cannot hide the fact that she is very well-endowed and it seems that she isn't even wearing a bra.

When you notice that the priest is surreptitiously masturbating through her robe you realize that both of Kumiko's friends might be DTF.

Knowing that you are with three very horny females all staring at your bulge leads you to a choice at the altar that will determine how this timeline ends.

Honeymoon Daughters Ages: 8 and 11

The first choice: Traditional marriage

Despite the tempting offer seemingly being offered by Kumiko's friends, you are a man of honor and principal and flee the scene with your luscious bride. This is the traditional choice and you happily deflower your bride and immediately impregnate her with the first of two adorable daughters.

And that's pretty much it. After some having hot prego sex with your wife, you raise your children in such a traditional way that's so bland that neither daughter is even worthy of being named. What might have been is a story that may or may not be explored in a future Bunni Zone. After all, someday these daughters will be 18 and 21. Even the sub-Kumiko timelines could very well have branches!

Absinthe

Age: 21

The second choice: Instant gratification

Neither of you can wait to fuck each other and with no regard for the feelings of the onlookers who wanted to see the romantic ceremony, you take your bride's cherry right on the altar. Janice is especially horrified and even though her pussy is literally dripping under her cassock, she blackballs you as a couple for defiling the church and neither of you can find a decent job.

But the devil heard about your act of blasphemy and sends the lovely Sinfest character Absinthe to offer you both a gig with Devil Corp.

Absinthe is proof that devil girls come in every variety as she has a heart of gold. Monique later falls for her charms and the two of them have a lovely romantic relationship.

Blue (aka Baby Blue)

Age: 21

You both become wildly successful working for the evil one and you become his left-hand man!

One thing about working for Devil Corp, though, you better always watch your back. In this case literally.

Your personal assistant, the Sinfest character Blue, seizes her opportunity to take you down and takes over your job as second in command. Nobody cries for you as chaos is the way at Devil Corp and only the strong are meant to survive.

Blue and Fuchsia started out at Devil Corp as cocktail waitresses and rose through the ranks together to get on the short list of those who would accompany the devil on his evil joy rides of destruction. Blue continues to be the evil one's number two, but Fuchsia eventually ditched Beelzebub (unheard of) to be with her one true love, Criminy the bookworm.

Triplet Daughters (fuckables)

Ages: 18

Choice three: Polygamy

You seize the opportunity and play your cards right to end up with three brides for the price of one! You impregnate all three of them on the wedding night and end up with three lovely "triplet" daughters who all were born on the same day!

When Khloe, Juliet and Poppy celebrate their 18th birthday (or whatever number you chose to put in the blank), they all know exactly what they want their present to be and lure you to their favorite playground to get it!

You end up getting your triplet daughter's pregnant too and so you have a happy ending with your extended family that only very few men in history have experienced.

Delta Timeline

Young April (fuckable)

Age: 18

If you decide to fuck your wife in the Chapter 1 introduction to your classroom scene and then go on the first Bunni Zone trip, you enter the Delta timeline. Like most of the alternate timelines you are mainly a spectator though you can feel everything your younger self feels and influence him if you shout out in your mind.

You are with a very young version of your wife, quite a bit younger than when you first met her in real life.

You take her cherry and getting carried away she lets you cum inside her, perhaps impregnating her as her sister Katyrina is secretly voyeuristically masturbating herself to her first ever orgasm while watching you. Then the scene ends.

Katyrina (fuckable)

Age: 18

In Chapter 3 you get the opportunity to revisit the Delta timeline to find a very pregnant April along with her Irish twin sister Katyrina. The young girl is brilliant and sweet and also a bit unhinged as she seems to think she's literally a cat girl. She is still very fuckable, though, and you happily impregnate her as well.

Naturally since you have impregnated both of these girls in this alternate timeline, Bunni will only be too happy to allow you to visit a third time later to see how it all turns out.

Other Characters

Marianne (fuckable)

Age: 39

At first forbidding and distrustful, Betsy's mother eventually comes around to join team Family Orgy as with some help from Bunni you find out that she is hot for both her daughter and you.

Marianne is a massage therapist by trade and most certainly a welcome addition to the family with all that implies.

Waitress Janice (fuckable)

Age: 25

If you experienced the Kumiko timeline, then you've met this New Zealand woman there. In that timeline she was the older woman priest. If you choose to romance Aiko you will meet her on your first date at the new eatery. In this Bubble timeline Janice is a struggling young woman who is trying to open a restaurant with her mother.

When you meet her during your second date with Aiko, you will find that things have changed for her and you also will meet her mother (to be named later).

Janice's mother (fuckable)

Age: 48

This character has yet to be designed.

Sister Colette (optionally fuckable) Age: 42

The mother superior is a piece of work as she enjoys terrorizing and then seducing young girls. She is undergoing some major changes in her mind as her lust for Peach and her curious hunger for cock causes her to act out in the confessional.

This character will return and then you will get to choose whether to romance her or not. After all, she was the one who rescued LLD from the crack house. You were planning on visiting your twin sister Azaleah soon to find out what happened after that to cause this woman to give up custody of LLD to your crazy sibling and then become a nun.

Kyu Sugardust

Age: 395

If you've played the eroge game Huniepop you know this character well. But you only met her corporate persona. In reality Kyu is an opportunistic love fairy who is always looking for ways to fulfill her addiction to sexual tension, which she literally feeds off of.

After mother punts her into the sky, you can hear the fairy's foreshadowing threat. Yes, she will be back and with a vengeance.

Self-Indulgent Shit

If you're a fan of this game and follow the thread on F95 Zone, you know I don't take anything very seriously. I literally believe that this life is a dream and live accordingly.

That being said, I do take my commitments seriously and intend to finish this VN before taking on my next project which I plan to render using Daz. It will be far more realistic than LLD and of course will feature all of the kinks you've come to expect in this VN.

Even with those intentions, I make no promises about anything. I don't think one can do that in this volatile existence. I'm working out my own issues and this VN is a reflection of those. I find the interaction of the obscene and the spiritual to be a fascinating tug of war. It is interesting to me how the more forbidden something is, the more sexual juice it has. Naturally indulging in these kinds of things has consequences in one's mind and therefore in one's life.

I guess what I'm trying to say is that at any given moment I could have a total spiritual awakening and abandon this VN. But considering that I've been struggling with this issue for literally decades, this doesn't seem likely to happen any time soon. I seem to be getting signals from the universe that I'm meant to finish at least this VN. My spirituality is based upon "A Course In Miracles"

I live with my wife of many years in a condo in a suburb near Chicago. Both April and the LLD are based upon my wife.

I have a grown daughter who I had rescued away from me the same way it happened in this game. She came back into my life right after she gave birth to my grandson around five years ago. She lives close by and we've developed a good relationship and can talk about all kinds of things. She is majorly into anime so it's tempting to share this project with her. But it when it comes right down to it, that would just not be appropriate.

You see, this is just a fantasy VN and in reality, I'm a person who has never cheated on his wife and would never dream of romancing my own daughter.

Tawny Fairquim is my favorite avatar that I've use while playing video games. I am very comfortable playing both male and female characters in those games as I am gender neutral despite seeming to be in a male body. I can go golfing with my buddies and then come home to my wife and happily watch romantic movies and then later listen to my favorite singing artists Alanis Morissette and Liz Phair while jarringly mixing it up with some Black Sabbath and Guns N' Roses.

Why limit yourself?
