

New Earth

Chapter 01 - Version 0.6

Walk-through

Story: In 2121, interstellar travel isn't a problem anymore. A group of students won a prize to travel to Kepler-452 star system. But right before they could change their route back home, they received a transmission that the Earth had just been destroyed by a worldwide cataclysm. They had to land on Kepler-452b planet, a habitable planet. As the leader, you'll have to help everyone start a new life and populate (Pregnancy) the New Earth. (Please notice that there are no tentacles, aliens, monsters... in the story.)

Possible Endings (depending on your choices):

- ❖ Tyranny (Harem): You become a tyrant, have all women for yourself. The other men are your slaves.
- ❖ Democracy (Sharing): The society becomes a harmony democracy, where everyone has the chance to get laid.
- ❖ Anarchy (NTR): A guy not you becomes the new leader. Under his rule, the society becomes a disaster (especially for you).
