

UPDATED TO 3.5.0 (Patreon-only update) -- See "Playing Simply Mindy" to import your save

I couldn't find a walkthrough anywhere, and Sexums announced they're working on the final ending, so I figured it would be a good time to write a guide so people can find all the endings. There was obviously a ton of work put into the game, I think it's worth supporting Sexums on patreon, which will get you the 3.3.0 version. With this guide, I'm focusing more on generals than specifics, partially because I just spent a week playing this game to get... Most of... the endings... (update: now have all of them) and partially because I'm lazy and the game isn't terribly hard as long as you read the dialogue. ALSO GOD DAMN SO MANY SPOILERS! Anyways, onward!

Playing Simply Mindy

Worth noting, as the game is now too big to play in your browser. You'll need to download the standalone Flash Player:HereDirect Link \(Windows 32-bit\)After you have that and the game itself downloaded, you're good to go.

It's also worth noting you can import your save file manually, even between versions, so that you're not wasting your time before the next version comes out. Do this at your own risk, obviously, I mean there's no guarantee it'll always work and it might even cause some glitches.Do this by going to this file:

C:\Users\username\AppData\Roaming\Macromedia\FlashPlayer\SharedObjects\Random numbers or letters\localhost (for me it was localwithNet) \Simply Mindy ver#From there, copy the file and paste it wherever as a backup and in the new version's folder.

General Tips

When giving initial stats to Mindy, I recommend pouring all ten points into Fuckability. Doing jobs drop points as well as adding them, but Fuckability is one of the few stats that is harder to lose all your points in. Plus it gives you more money per stamina used, so it's not as useless as some other stats!

Speaking of which, Charisma, Cleanliness, Creativity, Sociability, and Class all basically only serve as gates for certain stories or sidequests, and less importantly for minor crises. The other stats are all ones you use for battle, so anytime you have to fight a boss you'll want to buff up your Strength, Durability, Prowess, Intellect, and Spirit in school (How to Kick Ass and How to Kick Ass With Sparkly Things) or with jobs as much as you can. These stats will also occasionally be used as gates, but their utility in combat makes them more important than the others. Also important for combat are the swords and armor you get in the dungeons, one of each in each one, the magic Gloo sells you in Blood Orb Forest (especially Recover sold during Brimstone), and the seduction techniques Aember teaches you in each dungeon can come in handy as well.

As for which ending you should go for first, I recommend trying to go for Games Theorist in the Gameshow tree because it allows you to retain 1/4 of your stats between playthroughs, making starting over suck considerably less. D. After that, maybe the Shirley tree because one ending allows you to skip over having to pay rent.

If you forget where you are or need a hint on what to do in a quest next, check your "quests" tab on the main screen. It'll usually tell you the exact number you need to pass a stat gate, too.

Unlocking Dungeons

You start out with Blood Orb Forest only in your dungeon menu. In the first basement floor of the chapel there, you'll find a red orb. Activate it and you'll unlock Dirt Feast. Exit the dungeon through your inventory, and head to the new area next day. Head to the northwest corner of Dirt Feast to find a building labeled "Brit's Tits". Inside, you'll find another red orb to your right that unlocks Mt. Ruin.

Bad Endings

These are actually surprisingly hard to get unless you're trying to get them. Perv.

- Trash Girl: Get to the end of the fourth year without completing any storylines. If any Sinner's Orbs come your way, turn them down. Reward: +5 to Fuckability Ugly Hobo, Standing, From Behind
- Impish Fucktoy: Do nothing but sleep until you get this ending. Reward: +$2000 starting money Double Penetration, Bukake, Imps, Missionary

- MERRY: Camwhore until your computer starts acting weird. Raise your Intelligence and your computer will tell you to gather 4 metal scraps. Go to Blood Orb Forest, do the quests for JizzWhiz, Shay, and Cherry to get the first 3. For the last, come back to the forest when it's Darkly, there will be a cave open to the north. Defeat 5 of the creatures in the cave (not counting the boss in the back), then head over to Dirt Feast and fight Brain Case, who is standing in a path near the entrance. This will unlock Jerry as a sex option when you sleep. Sex that robot enough times and he'll offer you an orb. Turn it down and you'll get a Sinner's Orb instead. Reward: Start with the Gold Sword and Gold Armour. +10 Morality Female Robot, Cowgirl

- Lady Z: Same as Walker but win against John. Reward: +3 to Charisma and Durability Zombie Transformation, Mild Guro

Go into the chapel basement in the first dungeon at your first chance, then to the room with the stained glass. Open the chest and watch the cutscene.

Finale NEW TO 3.4/3.5

Unlocked by having 50 or more "Morality" and starting a new game. If you've been following along with every ending, you should have 100. If you don't, you just need to do the endings that are "good" like sending Chico to heaven or saving Mid D's girlfriend.

As far as I'm aware, there's only one ending here right now. Sexums may have more planned, or maybe I'm just inept and couldn't find more than one, but it's the "canon" ending meant to wrap up the game and segue to their next game.

You have 100 days to complete the mode by finding 4 keys and getting to the end of the dungeon. Losing in any battle doesn't get you much besides a "game over". Anything you might need, except for spells, can be found in this new dungeon, including the gold sword/armor and element enchantments. You can even find the corset of cheating in one of the chests. You'll have to use new game bonuses to get spells you need, however. The final boss also gets harder the more bonuses you use, so if you want to minimize them that's totally valid. I was able to beat them using all bonuses, however, just by maximizing all my battle stats and spamming the "morph" spell you get from the "Beast of Fucks" ending.

Start the game by messing around with the jobs. Each one of them has a new animation specific to this mode, for your enjoyment. You'll get quests from the farm, wall, alley, and mall jobs in order to get the keys. It's also worth noting you won't automatically transition to the next cutscene if you already pass the stat gates, anymore, so you'll need to pay more attention. These walkthroughs will assume you've already watched the first cutscene for each area.

Mall:

- Get your charisma high enough, check the mall again
- Get your intelligence high enough, check the mall again and prepare for a fight
- Key get

Wall:

- Work there until Su trusts you
- Go to the armcandy job, prepare for a fight (you'll also lose 5 days here)
- Key!

Alley:

- Get your class high enough, check alley again
- Go to modeling, prepare for a fight
- Moar key.

Farm:

- Go to the gloryhole. Not sure if there's a trigger besides the initial Farm cutscene or not.
- Get creativity high enough and have $5000, go to gloryhole again, prepare for a fight
- K-K-K-Keymbo breaker!!!!

Dungeon:

It's pretty straightforward. Make sure you open all the chests you can find. You won't be able to run since you can't get the running heels here, but the areas are small enough to not drag on. Find the blue locks and unlock them with your keys to continue to each next area. There are some mandatory minibosses near the locks, so come prepared. In the desert, follow the footsteps to the various treasures, there's a hidden one to the north of the abandoned tent. When you get past the final lock, you'll find yourself on a map reminiscent of Final Fantasy's void/crystal worlds. There are red orb minibosses in each of the corners of the map, fight them and move on to the northern platform. There's an autosave here, so if you die on accident then you don't have to restart the day. Beat the next couple of bosses (I basically just spammed Morph, Restored when needed and Drained when low on mana), and you'll have beaten the game! Note: As of 3.5, this fight has been fixed and is now a lot harder. You might actually have to disable some bonuses to get it.

Doing all this unlocks a new sleepover mate when playing in a normal game, complete with new animations.

Aaaand... That's it! Tell me what I missed, or if there's something you're having trouble finding, and I might add a section on it.

Update 9/12/2018: I added all the rewards for completing each ending, and I added tags to each one behind a spoiler tag. The aim with the tags wasn't to catalog everything about the endings, but to give an idea of what's there in case any of them happen to have your fetish. Minor note that almost all endings involving the Squirt action involve bukake, so I only added that to ones where the subject is already covered in cum.

Special thanks to u/Ethaneasy02 for helping me remember which endings give Morality.
