Guide for The Void of Deviance 0.1.7

It is recommended to have at least 7 levels for each B.D.S.M. Stat when playing through this update. Once your B.D.S.M. stats are all at maximum level, you can talk to X in your psyche menu to improve the level cap further. Having more B.D.S.M. stats will help you earn more points in the minigames as well. In certain cases it can help you take reduced damage from certain scenes and you can even earn more affinity points.

If your B.D.S.M. stats are 0, the button in the minigames will do nothing.

The suggested play order would be:

You can start either with the events first or do them after your affinity path play through.

The affinity path order would be to play Kurushi's Devotion first, Sarah's Devotion second, and lastly Leah's Bondage.

There are additional scenes for Isla's intimacy and Astrid's Bondage if you wish to check them out as well.

The reason why you should go Kurushi > Sarah > Leah is based on the content they have, from smaller to the larger amount of content. Kurushi and Sarah have the similar amount both Leah's content is much bigger and is more complex in terms of gameplay mechanics.

Bonding with a character's affinity path restricts you from interacting with other characters' affinity paths as the ACT button will be locked until you use Rebirth.

Kurushi

Kurushi does not care about your virginity status in her Devotion path.

Kurushi's 0 scene begins her affinity effects immediately, your own affinity status will be marked as "Bonding".

From that day, you will need to visit and worship Kurushi everyday lest you anger her. Each neglected day will cause her Condemnation to increase and once you are at 7 level condemnation it will trigger a scene.

If you manage to keep her satisfied each day and do not increase her condemnation level she will reward you after 14 days which can be accessed through her devotion menu.

The content itself for Kurushi is pretty straightforward other than these.

Once you reach her “Change of Life” scene, be wary of permanent changes that can require you to use rebirth.

Kurushi does not care about your virginity status in her Devotion path.

Sarah

Sarah does not care about your virginity status in her Devotion path.

Sarah’s affinity takes effect after her Change of Tides scene. During that scene, do not be fooled by the MC’s reasoning. Stay the way you are and DO NOT PRESS THE BUTTON or let the points get past the cap.

From that point on, you will need to assist Sarah at least once a week so that her condemnation will not increase.

At max 7 condemnation Sarah will no longer want to interact with you.

If you keep being useful to her and do not increase her condemnation level she will reward you after 3 weeks which can be accessed through her devotion menu.

The content itself for Sarah is pretty straightforward other than these.

At maximum level devotion or after the Change of Life scene, your affinity will be changed to “Devoted”. Sarah’s Devotion Path has no gameplay-altering mechanics so you are free to attend events or work/task even if you are devoted to Sarah.

Devotion Tip for Sarah and Kurushi

You can access their rewards as items after you receive them. Open the psyche menu and you will see the ITEMS button. Once you claim them, they will be permanently accessible there. The only difference is that, if you abandon their affinity paths, the accessible scenes through these items will be rendered as “memories,” losing their effects such as giving points.

Using Kurushi’s item counts as worship, whereas Sarah’s item does not count as worship.

Leah

Leah’s Bondage has game-changing phases.

Leah cares about your virginity status in her Bondage path, but it does not block her Bondage path entirely. Your virginity status, regardless of its state, allows you to play through her content. However having “Immaculate” status will allow you to have different interactions.

It begins pretty straightforward. After her 0 scene you will be able to access her TRAINING through her bondage menu. You will need to train until all your B.D.S.M. stats are level 7. Or if you already have them maxed out, you can just interact with her until you have level 2 Bondage with her.

After the Change of Tides scene your enslavement trial will begin immediately if you accept it. For 2 weeks, you will be kept at Luscious Fall as a slave for trial. You will not have access to your phone and map. Also, your house will be transferred to Leah. Your affinity will be changed to “Trial”

You can access Leah’s bondage scenes accordingly with her Bondage level (Unlock more scenes as you progress, as it has been with all the other characters), sleep, eat/drink, or clean Leah’s boots, or wait for Leah.

At this point, things get a bit tricky. Leah has an arrival frequency count which can be disrupted by your actions. Rule of thumb is not to do more than 3 things, and end with either cleaning her boots or waiting for her. Waiting for Leah will always end in her visiting, regardless of how many actions you have left before she arrives. She won’t enjoy catching you sleeping, or eating. After she arrives she will check if you have cleaned her boots, the bowls are empty, if you have ejaculated on your own etc.

Leah’s visits will trigger a random scene, selected from the scenes that are accessible to you as well in her Bondage content. The difference is that random scenes give extra Bondage points with her. Note that as these scenes are randomised, and the selection is as big as your Bondage level allows, if you are getting the same scene over and over, you will need to increase Leah’s Bondage. If you have not ejaculated on your own or during a scene, Leah will let you out of chastity once a week.

Having successfully cleaned Leah’s boots three times will trigger a small reward scene.

After 2 weeks Change of Seasons will trigger at Luscious Fall. Leah will visit but this time to tell you the results of your trial. If you have failed to be a good slave and raised her condemnation, while neglecting her Bondage level, she will throw you out. You will not have your house back. Your affinity will be changed to “Abandoned.” You can continue the game as it always was, but you will be living in the streets.

Rebirth will resolve this condition if you want the easy way out.

Or, if you want a more challenging route, you can visit Gena’s Law office first so that she can inform you that Rosalind can help you with the house. Visiting Rosalind’s Tattoo parlor/office you can get your house back. But you will have a debt of 2500 S.C. . This will change your affinity to “None”

(Although it might not be the case for this update, you will always be able to buy your house back from Rosalind if you ever manage to lose it through other means, however the price will be 3000 S.C since it will be accessed through Rosalind’s BUY menu.)

While “Abandoned” you will not benefit from your Investments as you don’t have access to your computer.

If you have been a good slave she will permanently keep you as a slave. Keep progressing through her Bondage until Change of Life Scene.

Change of Life scene will trigger after spending a total of 30 days as Leah’s slave and if you have at least 6 Bondage Levels with her.

MASSIVE STORY SPOILER

Leah will take you to her home to keep you as a slave there after this scene.

This implements another change to the gameplay.

You can do chores at Leah’s Home. Access further Bondage scenes.

Not doing the chores and going to sleep will trigger a punishment scene.

If you reach Maximum Condemnation, Leah’s path will end in a permanent loop where you are severely punished. The only way out then is Rebirth or Loading a Save.

Chastity will work the same. Once a week, if you have not cum on your own during a scene, a release scene will trigger.

If you are Immaculate at this point, Leah can condition you to only be able to achieve orgasm with a specific kink. Just choose the option where you ejaculate and if it’s the first time, you won’t be able to ejaculate in other scenes and at the day of your release you will only be able to climax with that specific scene. If you are Impure or not a virgin, you can choose at which scene to climax freely, anytime.

There is an option to reset the conditioning for orgasm called CONDITION in Leah's chat window, however it will also set your virginity to "Immaculate" Therefore, once you climax in a scene, you will be conditioned again in the abovementioned manner. You won't get the benefits of not being "Immaculate" such as climaxing at any given scene.

Sylventhure

Improved B.D.S.M. stats are recommended. At least 10 for each. Earning at least 3 points through the results of the minigames will trigger a reward scene. Earning 4 will trigger a better reward scene. 2 points and less will trigger a punishment scene. (If you cannot see minigames and the event feels short you might have a blocked kink.)

Gym

Not taking the money Claire offers you will unlock a further interaction with Claire. You can visit her and click Buy after this event for a short scene.

Amaya

Keep talking to her and choose the option to compliment her sexiness after you ask her what she thinks of you. Increase her condemnation to level to and access a scene through her ACT > CONDEMNATION menu.

!!!WARNING!!!

The following section will mention the EXTREME and SENSITIVE content in the Update 0.1.7. Please only read if you are willing to be aware of the existence of such kinks/fetishes/scenes.
