

[Demons and Witches Realm]

ATLAS

"You're pretty quiet tonight. That's not like you."

LEYALA

"I guess so... Just... don't worry about it; I'm lost in thoughts."

ATLAS

"Lost in your thoughts, huh. I can help you find your way; I have a pretty good sense of direction."

LEYALA

"You find these jokes on the internet?"

ATLAS

"I consider myself a fine humorist, dear. Don't make fun of my innate talent-"

LEYALA

"I can think of many other talents, but humor isn't one of them. Sorry to let you know."

ATLAS THINKING

"Lucius, what did you do to put her in a bad mood... She was fine till she came back..."

ATLAS

"You've got some bite tonight. Did it go poorly with Lucius?"

"..."

ATLAS

"The "I don't want to talk about it" silence women are so fond of never miss. I feel like an idiot wanting to listen to your problems now."

"...I don't think 'poorly' is the word, but it was a bit of a letdown."

ATLAS

"You're not learning what you wanted?"

LEYALA

"Well, from a purely pragmatic point of view, I learned a lot of things about leading people, ruling, principalities, politics, all this stuff. I am still far from mastering and understanding all this, but..."

"But I thought maybe I could get closer to him."

ATLAS

"I don't wanna be a killjoy, but you can't expect him to embrace everything that happens in such a short period. And then he needs time to adapt to it."

LEYALA

"I know, I know, but... he's still my father. My real one. In the end, I truly feel like fathers just have a hard time showing affection."

ATLAS

"Even if you are on the right track about dad having trouble showing affection, I think Lucius has always been a leader, maybe a mentor but sadly, not a father."

LEYALA

"What does that mean?"

"It means that I have never seen him show any concrete evidence of love."

#Leyala can either look a bit sad or angry about Atlas's words. I guess it's up to you to see what's better.

ATLAS

"It doesn't mean he doesn't like you. I can see that he cares about you; I've worked with him enough during all this time to know that."

LEYALA

"You see things I don't see then. I feel like I'm back with my foster family where everything was business-like."

ATLAS

"If you need a hug, just tell me."

LEYALA (smiling)

"Oh, shut up!"

ATLAS

"So?"

LEYALA (trying to stay mad)

"I'm not in the mood for anything, smartass."

ATLAS

"Ms. Leyala, I must say I am greatly saddened and afflicted by your rejection. I'm off forthwith to find another bond mate."

"Ahh! Stop trying to make me smile! Geez... I want to be mad..."

ATLAS

"And I don't want you to be mad. As I told you before, Lucius cares for you in his own way. Do you see him giving as much of his time to anyone other than you?"

ATLAS

"Yes, Kali too. You know what I meant. Being a tutor is far from his favorite pastime, but I know when he does it heartily without even thinking about it."

LEYALA

"So he's teaching us stuff heartily now? If Kali and I agree with something, it's that he's so focused on what he tried to teach us that it's almost like we aren't there to his eyes."

ATLAS

"He only teaches you both what he already masters so that he doesn't mess up."

#Leyala stops talking for a while, switching her eyes towards the floor or going to lie down on the bed, one arm in front of her eyes. (Again, it's just ideas for you to use and maybe see the same scene I have in mind)

"...Sorry you have to give me a pep talk... I'm acting like a child..."

ATLAS

"It's fine. I'm the one who said I was willing to listen to your problems."

LEYALA

"Thank you. And you know..."

"Yeah?"

LEYALA

"You're kind of like that priest on the other side of the confessional when you talk like that. All that's missing is the outer cassock, and you're good to go!"

ATLAS

"...I was expecting an astute comment. And now I don't know why I expected this."

"Ahah! At least I took you by surprise, proving once again that I'm not boring. Right...?"

ATLAS

"Glad to see you went from an upset to a smiling, confident woman in a matter of minutes."

LEYALA

"It's because of you. Next time let me be angry longer."

ATLAS

"Yes, I understand. My influence is far too overwhelming for me to stay with you all the time."

LEYALA

"You think you're funny?"

ATLAS

"I swear I'm trying."

LEYALA

"I'm sure you can do better. Anyway, can I ask you a closing question?"

ATLAS

"No, you can't."

LEYALA

"You think you know when I can speak to him in father-daughter terms? I have some things I want to talk to him about."

ATLAS THINKING

"I really feel like I'm talking to a wall sometimes, but well, whatever."

ATLAS

"I'm not in his head, but he's probably nervous imagining what you'd think of him if he screwed something up in front of you. So wait a bit until he's more comfortable."

LEYALA

"Screwing this? How could he do this? He's the King of this Realm. From what I learned, he never messed up anything during his whole ruling."

ATLAS

"He never messed up anything political or warfare-related, yeah. However, as a reminder, because of his actions, your mom kinda almost died, Kali and you too in the same process."

ATLAS

"And he knows that you also know about this. So, well, his confidence is on the off button. Just show him you're not resentful, and it should go well."

"I don't want to be a pain in the ass... but you know how insecure I am about this because of my foster family..."

LEYALA

"How would you know all that? You're not his son."

"You ended up being much more talkative than I thought you were at first when we started this conversation."

"You don't answer my question, Atlas."

"Alright..."

"How to word this... I guess it's because I have experienced much the same thing. A father similar to Lucius, a tad cold, aloof, not smiling much."

#The screen became a bit blurry, and more and more blurry after Atlas's speech to show some of his souvenirs?

ATLAS

"After all these years, they're the only people I remember from back then. My dad, mom, brother, his family, our mistakes."

ATLAS

"As far as I can remember, my father never showed any affection. He only knew how to be strict and callous with us; that's how it was back then, walk or die; I understood that much later."

ATLAS

"I was burdened with a lot of responsibility. My parents named me Atlas for a reason after all."

#You can depict a younger Atlas with his father and Odysseus training together.

"I somehow grasped, thanks to Luci- Dad, that you had a bad relationship with your brother."

ATLAS

"I wouldn't say we had a bad relationship; it was more of an ego battle of who's going to be the best of us. Siblings are like that most of the time."

LEYALA

"I don't feel like that about Kali."

ATLAS

"If you say so... Anyway, training after training forced me to become as harsh as my father, and my brother was soon put aside even if he did his best..."

ATLAS

"I gradually climbed the ranks. I was maybe 21 years old when I joined Krypteia, one year after I had integrated the Spartan army."

ATLAS

"A short while later, I was enrolled as a hippeis. Only 300 of us qualified to join the unit, but just like Lucius, my father couldn't say kudos or be proud."

ATLAS

"My mother tried to reconcile us, but to no avail. It was all about family honor and my father's reputation. I felt like a trophy."

ATLAS

"I went to battle with Odysseus and didn't talk to my parents after that. I saw war as a way to let off steam. Unfortunately, during our raid, something went wrong."

LEYALA

"Have you been taken captive?"

"A spear went through my torso, killing me almost on the spot. I only recall some sensations, the vagueness, and my brother that I had just saved."

LEYALA

"Heroic to the core, huh. It doesn't sound like what you were back then."

ATLAS

"To be honest, I acted on impulse. Odysseus was trying to impress me, and he screwed up. I didn't appreciate him, but he was still my brother. I couldn't let him down."

ATLAS

"Sadly, that didn't stop me from resenting him. In my last moments as a human, the... idea of revenge even crossed my mind."

ATLAS

"Lucius found me lying on the ground and offered me to join him if I left everything behind. It was 15 years later that I went back to see my family."

ATLAS

"I no longer had the heart to hate when I saw what my parents looked like. My mother was frazzled, and my father was devoid of the sparkle that animated him in the past."

ATLAS

"When I finally mustered up the courage to approach him, I felt like I was talking to another man. He asked me how I was, told me to take care of myself, to live peacefully..."

#Atlas hides from his mother at this moment.

ATLAS

"When my mother joined him, my father said he had talked to me again. It hurt me to see that she didn't seem to be shocked to hear what he was saying."

ATLAS

"I went to see her a little later. I had to explain everything to her to calm her down, even the fact that I was undead."

ATLAS

"She told me that after my death, my father crumbled between grief and regret."

ATLAS

"Old age on top of that, he was only wandering in the garden with an imaginary me with he was kinder and gentler."

ATLAS

"That's how I knew he loved me, maybe too late, but I knew nonetheless."

ATLAS

"And, as I thought, Odysseus started a new life and took care of our parents as I should have done. Despite this, my resentment towards him remained."

ATLAS

"When I came back following the promise I made to my mother, my brother was there."

"Regardless of all his excuses, I remained unfazed and put all the blame on his shoulders like a rebellious teenager."

ATLAS

"When Odysseus swore that he would find a way to "cure" me even if he had to cross the world to do it, he would."

ATLAS

"It was only after he left despite having a wife and two kids to take care of that I realized that the little brother I hated was more of a man than I was."

#There is a moment of calm where the flashback stops, and we come back to the current timeline.

LEYALA

"Thank you for opening up to me... I didn't expect that, to be honest."

ATLAS

"Let's just say I'm setting the stage for later."

LEYALA

"What does that mean?"

ATLAS

"Yeah, what does that mean?"

LEYALA

"Anyway, was your whole monologue to prove to me that Lucius cares about me because he "looks" like your father?"

ATLAS

"Should I applaud you?"

"...Keep your sarcasm for someone else... So what happened to your family after all that?"

ATLAS

"Well... when I came back to see them, I was at peace with myself, my resentment forgotten, but it was too late; my parents were dead."

ATLAS

"And my brother's wife and children hadn't heard from him in years. I found myself facing a void."

LEYALA

"If you need a hug, just tell me."

ATLAS (smiling)

"You think you're smart reusing my words?"

"Unlike you, I'm serious about it."

ATLAS

"Do whatever you want."

LEYALA

"When you say that, it means: do it. I'm getting used to you beating around the bush, so you don't show a weakness of yours."

LEYALA

"But let's talk about what we didn't finish. Do you think that realizing all this beforehand would have prevented you from feeling guilty?"

ATLAS

"Yes, that's why I'm telling you. I don't want you to make the same mistakes I did; it's that simple."

ATLAS

"If I had realized that my father was worried about me or if I had paid attention to my brother, I could have taken care of my mother, and Odysseus wouldn't have died because of me."

LEYALA

"So you also advise me to pay more attention to Kali?"

ATLAS

"Yeah, don't be dumb like I was. You're already on the right track, so I'm not really worried, but it needs to be said."

LEYALA

"Stop blaming yourself; I can hear it in your voice."

ATLAS

"You don't have to worry about me. That was a long time ago, and time does its job. After so long, even their faces have become... fuzzy memories."

LEYALA

"A long time ago...? Wait, you said you're from ancient Greece... How old are you exactly?"

ATLAS

"I can't tell you exactly what my age is since I don't even know my birth date, but I'm around 2500 years old."

LEYALA

"That's rather... important age gap now that I think of it. That said, I'm glad to know my bond-mate is a youngster."

ATLAS

"Yeah, sure, Miss 26 years old."

"So... what do you want to do now? We have some time to spare."

ATLAS

"What about sleeping?"

"This isn't funny."

ATLAS

"Of course, since it's not supposed to be, but if you have something else in your mind, don't hesitate to tell me."

LEYALA

"I'm thinking of the same thing you were thinking when you told me: I'm doing this to set the stage."

ATLAS

"Less talking, more doing then."

LEYALA (smiling)

"For once, you were the chatterbox, so your own remark is rightfully yours."

#Leyala sits up on the bed, looking in another direction and maybe putting her phone away.

ATLAS

"So I'm the one in charge tonight?"

"Don't you like it? Otherwise, we can actually sleep now as you wanted; after all, I have worked hard all day."

#There is a pause where both of them look at each other before Leyala smiles at Atlas.

"All right, all right, I get it."

"Mh-hm, what do you have in store for me?"

#Atlas, who had gotten up from where he was sitting, made her get up from the bed so that she could approach him.

ATLAS

"More than you can think of, but as they say, actions are worth more than words."

LEYALA

"I'm glad to hear. You think you can impress me?"

ATLAS

"I don't think I need to impress you to get your rocks off, to be completely fair."

LEYALA

"Well! Is that being around my father for 2500 years that makes you pompous, or is it just an event that occurs only during Full Moons?"

ATLAS

"Firstly, it's not even the full Moon; secondly, I'm not pompous, I'm realistic; thirdly, I can demonstrate what I just said within a few minutes. Maybe even less if I speedrun."

"Haha! You're talking like a nerd now!"

ATLAS

"I sometimes forget how much of a gossip you are; it's even worse in the bedroom now that I think about it..."

LEYALA

"Excuse me for wanting to talk to the one I love. I'll shut up then. And sulk. Angry."

ATLAS

"It is transpiring credibility. But rest assured, you're going to get quod erat demonstrandum'ed."

"Pfff! I'm waiting."

ATLAS

"You gonna be-"

#Leyala doesn't let him finish his sentence and puts her arms around his neck before kissing him. One of her hands goes behind his head, her fingers passing through his hair.

#She then breaks the kiss and sticks her forehead to Atlas' before pulling him towards the bed (by letting herself fall backward, still with her arms around his neck).

#Because of that, Atlas is on top of her, both arms outstretched and placed on the bed on either side of her head.

ATLAS

"What's gotten into you?"

LEYALA

"I seize the opportunity to unwind since you seem to be trying to keep me waiting to make me want it even more; I'll speed it up."

ATLAS (putting his hand in front of Leyala's mouth)

"Then you should have clearly said you wanted to do it, you know, to be more honest."

#She turns her head to avoid his hand and smiles at him mischievously, then closes her eyelids.

#Atlas gets closer to her before kissing her neck and starting to undress her. I imagine firstly the shirt, no need to show everything, but it's up to you.

"You're as eager as a starving wolf."

LEYALA

"Then it makes you the sheep."

"Trying your hand at metaphors now?"

"I would prefer my hand and yours to do something naughtier than metaphors."

ATLAS

"Lovely to note that you worked on your eloquence. That's how fast you can learn."

LEYALA

"I've learned your weak spots pretty fast too. I'm really the best, to be honest-"

#Atlas moves his lips down to her boobs. He starts playing with her nipples before sliding his hand downward.

ATLAS THINKING

"The moment my lips brushed her delicate nipples, a shiver ran down her body, and she fell silent."

ATLAS THINKING

"My tongue slid gently and again, over and over on her areolas, her nipples gradually becoming hard. I took the opportunity to glide my hand to her lower stomach, waiting for a reaction."

LEYALA

"S-Shit... Speaking of weak spots..."

"Yeah?"

LEYALA

"S-Seems like you learned a few of mine too..."

"Let's put it down to luck. I'm just investigating at the moment."

LEYALA

"You can't even lie properly."

"Maybe it's because I'm not a woman."

LEYALA

"How funny. Are you also investigating your jokes?"

ATLAS

"Did I do a good job at it?"

LEYALA

"Anyway... It's not even fair. I can't struggle against these feelings even to make the pleasure last longer. Doing this just makes me lightheaded and all tingly..."

ATLAS

"Sounds good to me."

LEYALA

"...Then, go ahead... I'm wet for you, Atlas."

#Atlas slips his hand under her pants and underwear, caressing her clitoris.

ATLAS

"As my hand began to meander under her underwear, her body tensed a bit, waiting greedily for my fingertips to skim her clit."

LEYALA

"Aah! Fuck, Atlas... Stop teasing and go for it."

ATLAS

"That would be jumping the gun, and I'm not even sure that's what you truly desire, so I'll take my time.~"

"Fuck... that... You're nothing more than a torturer..."

#Atlas stops everything he is doing and goes for her ears (speaking close to it).

"If I'm a torturer, then it's better if I go to sleep on the couch and stop it, right?"

#Leyala looks at him, still in a haze but with an annoyed expression.

"How do you control yourself... It's not even fair..."

ATLAS

"You already said that, love. And I can barely control myself; I'm also hard for you, so it's not about fairness."

LEYALA

"So... what...?"

ATLAS

"Since you're demanding tonight, what about giving me a favor that I would make sure to return later?"

LEYALA (looking toward his pants?)

"You know that I can't say no."

#She sits up on the bed/on her knees to finish undressing and look up at Atlas.

#Without saying anything, she goes for Atlas and starts undressing him. She then goes for his cock.

"You sure know how to use your whole body as an aphrodisiac..."

LEYALA (before kissing his tip)

"Which mean?"

ATLAS

"Simply means that I want you."

#She continues by licking the side of his cock, then starts sucking him off.

ATLAS THINKING

"I can tell she's still not fully confident with it... but she's not gagging anymore... Not to mention her tongue slithering along the underside of my cock."

ATLAS

"This is incredible, love... Can you go further with your lips?"

LEYALA (still sucking him)

"Hm-mh."

#Leyala then looks at him as he tries to push her head toward him, but she does that on her own before he can do it. He simply put his hand on the back of her head.

ATLAS

"Wow... Going crazy right here... calm down a bit or- (pause) ...Okay, I guess I reap what I sow."

ATLAS THINKING

"I can feel every bump of her tongue as she lingers on my glans... Not to mention the moisture and blowing..."

ATLAS (pushing a bit her head toward the base of his cock)

"Fuck... Just here..."

#She looks at him but just goes harder.

ATLAS

"Leyala! I'm close... so..."

#Leyala continues till he comes. She doesn't make any mess since she swallows.

ATLAS

"That was bliss."

ATLAS THINKING

"She even swallowed; Jesus, I might just lose control if she continues her onslaught."

LEYALA (licking his balls)

"panting I love the way you taste... And I'm dripping... I already started to soak the bed sheets."

LEYALA

"I want your cock inside me."

ATLAS

"That's so nicely put that I'm already invigorated."

LEYALA

"Yeah, take me..."

#Leyala approaches him on the bed, but he only (slowly) fingers her for the short conversation.

"Aah... What? (pause) ...Just wait for me. I will milk that dick of yours."

"Getting the fangs out, but not doing anything, just shows me you're the one who wishes to be fucked silly."

LEYALA

"T-Then... Why not try to see who will come first? The one coming first must do the dishes instead of the maids for-"

ATLAS (stop fingering her)

"I don't feel like playing a game with you right now. I only want you and nothing else. Come here, on all four."

LEYALA

"Yes. (pause) You don't need a breather...? panting (pause) I mean you came once..."

ATLAS (poking the tip of her nose)
"Of course not. I'm still fresh as a daisy."
LEYALA (while Atlas is going behind her)
"Even now, you're using some old sayings."
ATLAS (Atlas advance his cock toward her cunt)
"I'm kinda old, so it makes sense, right? But it's not the main subject right now."
LEYALA (looking back at him over her shoulder)
"Please... make me remember what we're doing."

#They start fucking. Classic doggy-style position. Slow gradually "normal-paced" (if that makes sense)?

LEYALA
"Aah... Yeah... That's it."
"I see. I have no need to ask if you're comfortable."
LEYALA
"Shit..."
ATLAS
"Already want me to go harder, love?"
LEYALA (head bent forward)
"Yes, please, use me!"
ATLAS
"Even if you're already struggling to keep up?"
LEYALA
"I... already told you to stop toying with me... Just-"

#Atlas doesn't let her finish and crank up the pace.

LEYALA
"Y-Yeah... Please... take care of me."
ATLAS
"Gladly so."
LEYALA (using one of her hands to caress her clit)
"You can... go deeper..."
"Love, what you're doing now is hot as fuck."
ATLAS THINKING
"Damn... She pushes her body towards mine without me having to do anything, plus she squeezes me tight; I never saw that before."
ATLAS THINKING
"Fuck... That's great... Even if I have already cum once, I might..."

#Atlas took her by the arms to pull her towards him while accentuating the curve of her hips.

ATLAS (close to her ear/smirking)
"You're spasming from... everywhere. Is it really that good?"
LEYALA (by lowering her head a little?)
"..."
ATLAS THINKING
"As I continued to push my cock into her slit faster and harder, her body quivered again after my glans touched her cervix very lightly."
LEYALA
"Fu... shit! Don't stop... Fuck me! I'm... I'm close..!"

#Atlas took her by the arms to pull her towards him while accentuating the curve of her hips.

"I love when you're slutty like that."

"I'm not slutty..."

ATLAS

"Yes, you are, but it's sexy as hell. For now, that's all that matters."

LEYALA

"Fuck! I'm... Yes! Atlas!"

ATLAS THINKING

"Her body twitched for a dozen seconds, her pussy clamping down on me as if seeking my cum. Her body went limp shortly afterward before wanting to fall toward the bed."

ATLAS THINKING

"I gently let go of her wrists to avoid hurting her, her body still throbbing with spasms."

LEYALA

"Finish in me... I want your cum... and grab my ass, please..."

#Atlas just does as she says, then the sex scene ends. You can do however you please; I think this scene lasts long enough anyway.

#Jumping to the scene after they took a shower and got to bed.

"That orgasm was something else. It's something completely new for me."

ATLAS

"It was a pretty long one, yeah. It's a nice kind of praise, to be honest."

LEYALA (smiling)

"I don't mind praising you like this more often then."

ATLAS

"Unfortunately, we are a little too busy to have the energy to do it every night."

LEYALA

"Speak for yourself."

ATLAS

"I forgot you were slutty."

LEYALA

ATLAS

"Right, right. Now let's sleep, shall we? Tomorrow morning we'll have as much trouble cranking as a diesel engine on a winter's day."

LEYALA

"...another saying that caught me out of guard."

"Goodnight."

LEYALA

"Yeah. Sleep well."

#Starting to fall asleep.

LEYALA

"What if I get pregnant because of all this?"

ATLAS (looking with an annoyed expression toward her)

"..."

LEYALA (smiling)

"Did I wake you up?"

ATLAS (turning his back to her)

"You're so annoying when you do that."

LEYALA

"Ahahah! Don't sulk! I can stroke your back and tell you a story to pamper you if you want."

ATLAS

"You really have the talent to be only annoying when I start to fall asleep."

LEYALA

"If I'm annoying only during those times, knock on wood. But well, good night this time, I suppose?"

"...Nite."

#Skip to the morning. Atlas is cleaning up the bedroom/putting away clothes (things they kinda messed up during the act or whatever).

#Wind sound on foliage?

"Talk about a headache... Barely four hours of sleep, but I won't have a choice to work my ass off preparing our departure."

#He sighs and puts a hand in front of his face, hiding half of his visage.

ATLAS THINKING (looking at Leyala)

"It would be nice to be able to sleep like her; she won't even budge when I tidy up things next to her."

ATLAS THINKING (putting down his hand)

"Better wake her up later; it's way too early. I have my own stuff to do anyway... even before eating."

ATLAS THINKING (with a frazzled expression?)

"Oh god... I am so pumped that I'm already shaking in anticipation..."

#He leaves the room and goes to the kitchen.

ATLAS THINKING

"I need to check on Ling Guo and Mei. It would be easier to ask Lucius directly, but even then, he must be busy with completing paperwork about them."

#In front of him, Kali, with a slice of toast in her mouth, looks him straight in the eye.

KALI

"Hi, pal. I didn't think you were a mornin' person."

ATLAS

"In fact, I am not."

KALI

"Yeah, I can pretty much feel that."

ATLAS

"What are you doing with this toast?"

#Small pause with them looking at each other.

KALI (by raising an eyebrow)

"Eating it, obviously."

ATLAS

"I'm going to make breakfast in an hour, and you're dropping crumbs all over the place."

KALI

"You're my new mom now? And if there are maids at our disposal, it would be cruel not to give them a bit of work. Work is the fuel for a healthy life; what do you think?"

ATLAS

"I think nothing of it. It's still too early for me to have the energy to grumble any longer."

KALI

"I take this as permission to eat in my room. Thanks, boss!"

ATLAS (she flew by toward her room, cutting Atlas sentence)

"I didn't say- (pause) ...Sometimes I feel like I'm talking to a wall when I deal with her."

#Atlas goes to the fridge and drinks water; after placing the bottle on the table, Yuki figures appear on the other side of the room.

YUKI (bowing)

"G-Greeting, my liege. I heard what you talked about with Lady Kali. She let me in a few minutes ago to wash your clothing."

YUKI

"I... I can clean that right now if you please... or I can do that later if I bother you."

ATLAS

"I thought I felt another presence, and I wasn't wrong. You are... (pause) Yuki, from the former Long dynasty, right?"

YUKI (bowing her head slightly)

"Yes, my liege, b-but I am now devoted to you. I made a vow with Lord Lucius with my own blood concerning this matter."

ATLAS

"Well, you didn't waste any time. I'm glad to know that I instilled that faith in you."

ATLAS

"That said, no need to kowtow when you're in here; just be polite and courteous. It will be plenty. Keep all that for when we're outside."

YUKI

"T-Thanks, sir, I will do my best."

ATLAS

"Now... You can go; I will clean Kali's mess; it's not much. Just butter and crumbs, plus I'm the one who complained about it first."

YUKI

"Are you sure about that, sir?"

ATLAS

"Yeah, just go wash our clothing; better do what Kali said. You're new; I won't overwhelm you with requests, but be prepared to live a more strenuous lifestyle in a few weeks."

YUKI (bowing slightly)

"Many thanks for your trust, my liege... I never dreamed that I would meet someone like you someday. I will do my best to make you rejoice."

ATLAS (smiling and putting a hand on her shoulder)

"Very well then! Don't lose time. I'm waiting to see this; after all, if you work hard, you'll move up in the maid ranks to become a section manager or even supervisor."

YUKI (not able to continue maintaining eye contact)

"I-I don't think I'm fit for this kind of responsible position... Anyhow, I s-shall depart from you, my prince. I'm off to do the laundry... Thank you for your kindness..."

#She quickly left the room with a dirty laundry bin in her hands, her face still flushed. Atlas looks at the door by raising an eyebrow.

"Wait! Where have your former masters been housed?"

"Second floor, red door, n°2 and 6..."

#Atlas looks a bit dumbfounded, then crosses his arms.

ATLAS THINKING

"Am I really the one who put her in this state? I don't think I'm doing anything special, though... Nervous shyness, I suppose."

ATLAS THINKING

"The exact opposite of the people she once ministered to. Well, I might as well go quickly; I don't know when I'll be gone."

#Sound effect: Door knocking, then door opening.

LING GUO

"Atla- My liege, please come in and take a seat. Glad to see you again. I thought I wasn't going to run into you again for a while."

ATLAS

"Yes, as you know, I'm quite busy, but I always have some free slots, even if it's only half an hour."

LING GUO

"Hm? Look at you; you look paler than usual. Did you sleep well?"

ATLAS

"Well, not really, but someone like you knows that one can't always enjoy a decent night's sleep if we want to be able to get everything done."

LING GUO

"Indeed, I'm pleased that you share my opinion on this matter, prince. If my daughter could understand that too, I'd be thrilled."

ATLAS

"She can't have all the qualities of a woman to herself. If only you understand this, be happy because it is part of your charm."

LING GUO

"Haha, thank you for the compliment, prince. It looks like you're still addressing me as if I were a royal. I am nothing but a subject of yours now. No need to be so civil."

ATLAS

"You have assisted us, and you remain a close ally. I have no objection respecting you as it is due. Moreover, the compliment was a real one."

LING GUO

"Thanks for your trust, prince. Now, would you like me to serve you a cup of tea?"

ATLAS

"No thanks, I'll be eating soon... Is your daughter around?"

LING GUO

"Mei is in her room, the number 6 if you want to see her. She's finishing her make-up; we had to meet and go to see Lord Lucius according to his request."

ATLAS

"Oh, no big deal then. If I'm here, it's to ask you some questions. Maybe you or Mei can fill me in."

LING GUO

"I can surely do that. I will be as frank as possible."

ATLAS

"Thanks. So, you knew about your husband and his intentions long before I got involved, but you helped me directly when I showed up."

ATLAS

"Did you already have a plan in place in anticipation that someone close to Lucius would decide to act?"

LING GUO

"Absolutely. It was an opportunity that I couldn't let slip. As you already guessed, I am an ambitious woman, and this marriage was never one of love and care."

LING GUO

"Besides, I have a heart, and all those kids Xiao was enslaving reminded me of my daughter. To let him would have been to betray myself."

"So you would be willing to sacrifice us too in the name of your ambition?"

LING GUO

"Haha! Do you think that when I have other ambitions than being in this castle? The only other ambition I have for now would be to find myself married or mistress of someone of royal virtue."

LING GUO

"Or if not me, my daughter."

ATLAS

"I see."

#Ling Guo smiles at him with a meaningful smile before putting one leg over the other, sitting on her chair/sofa.

ATLAS

"What happened to the Sunlight Blade? A weapon of such great importance capable of slaughtering all vampires needs to be ceiled."

LING GUO

"Oh, it seems like the royal family is worried about this. Lord Lucius also inquired about this matter; the sword is in its scabbard, right in my suitcases."

ATLAS

"Lucius didn't take it yesterday...?"

LING GUO

"No, he was also a bit surprised, but the scabbard can only be taken away by my family. So he wanted me to meet him with Mei to talk about it."

LING GUO

"Sadly for Xiao, he never put the scabbard on it, so a simple servant just has to lift it and put it in his chest."

ATLAS

"...Talking about the servant, do you have info about the family of these children?"

LING GUO

"Upset, angry, and vengeful, but the culprit's already dead. That said, if you imply that we probably made more enemies, then yeah, I'm aware of that."

ATLAS

"Do you know if Xiao had allies in other realms and not just in this one?"

LING GUO

"He had some. I don't know any names, but I know that his allies are mainly centered in realms where Lord Lucius has been waging war the most."

ATLAS

"Elven, Demon, and Sprite..."

LING GUO

"Most likely."

ATLAS

"I have the feeling that all this is just a mishmash of trouble. Do so many people genuinely hate Lucius...?"

LING GUO

"Do you expect an answer to this question?"

ATLAS (it make Ling Guo sarcastically smile)

"No... Please don't. (pause) I just hope I don't have to fight at every corner to fix the situation."

#The door of the room opens, revealing Mei. She enters the room and walks towards Atlas.

MEI

"I would love to see you fight, though, sir."

LING GUO

"Mei, first of all, say hello properly. Secondly, I already told you to stop eavesdropping; you are not a spy."

MEI (somewhat concerned, looking at Atlas)

"Does it really bother, sir...?"

"No worries for this time, but refrain from such behavior. Intrepidity isn't a virtue around here. The respect you give to yourself, apply it to others."

#Mei bowed slightly to ask for forgiveness, then sat next to her mother.

ATLAS

"Yuki, you former head-maid, I'm pretty sure that she mimics some of your ways. She probably admires you."

LING GUO

"She mimics mainly Mei since she both learned things together a few years prior. She has trouble talking to people who are above her."

MEI

"Yuki is a nice girl, a bit dense, but she has a kind soul. It doesn't help to get things done, but at least she's pure."

ATLAS

"When you say that, it makes me think you're not pure. What are you then?"

MEI

"Cunning and sexy."

LING GUO

"Mei."

MEI

"Mom, stop telling me what to do or how to behave; I'm over 2000 years old."

LING GUO

"And still a kid. I regret having spoiled you so much."

"You surely won't talk about this in front of him! We've already argued about it many times."

ATLAS

"Anyway, I'm going to have to leave soon, so let's avoid family feuds. I've already had my fill with this kind of issue."

MEI

"Sorry, my prince. So... I guess Yuki told you where we were housed, right?"

ATLAS

"Indeed. More importantly, since you're still young for a vampire, do you have any plans? Or you want to slack around?"

MEI

"I may not have the face of an intellectual, but I have passions and ideas. Xiao Long taught me alchemy since she saw me as a means to an end."

MEI

"...and I am a pretty good seamstress if it's of any use. I know that King Lucius doesn't like dead weight, so I would prove myself useful in some way; that's a promise."

ATLAS

"Very well. You could have gotten along well with Effie; she liked that kind of thing too."

MEI

"I hope that you will find a solution to all the problems you have with the Queen and her children. If you ever need to unwind, I will be there."

ATLAS

"sigh Don't desire too much, as Lucius' heir getting close to me can be somewhat destructive, even for someone like you."

MEI

"I was more afraid of being in China with Xiao than being there protected by your graciousness, my liege. Be assured."

ATLAS

"By the way, Ling Guo, do you know if Chen is doing great as the new steward of China?"

LING GUO

"Oh... well, he had some concerns, but the guidance provided by your associates has been invaluable. He's still a little mellow, but he knows how to be assertive. I don't doubt my son."

#Knocking sound. Everyone turns their head to the door.

LING GUO

"Yes?"

MIKEL

"This is the butler, Mikel; it's time for me to accompany you to see the king. Sorry for the delay."

LING GUO

"We're coming in a minute; prince Atlas is here--"

ATLAS (stepping up to the door)

"Don't worry about me. Lucius' orders are more important than my curiosity. Don't let me hold you up and go. Plus, I need to go back to my apartments."

LING GUO

"All right. I wish you a good day, then. Until next time."

MEI (waving)

"Goodbye."

#Atlas opens the door and sees a surprised Mikel.

"Greetings, sir. Sorry to have interrupted your conversation."

ATLAS

"It's all good. I was about to leave anyway. If you can get Natasha to look after these two for now, just in case, I'll owe you a fine bottle of wine."

MIKEL

"Do you suspect them of plotting something?"

ATLAS

"No, I just want them to be protected and guided; our estate isn't a place where it's easy to accommodate."

ATLAS

"And some people will probably seek revenge against them at some point, especially since they have scarce knowledge and items."

MIKEL

"Roger that. Then, if you'll excuse me, I have to bring our two guests to our king."

#Atlas nods and then looks at the two women's backs already starting to walk with Mikel.

ATLAS THINKING

"I just hope Tasha doesn't have any missions on the go. Allies are scarce. Losing them would be yet another blow."

ATLAS THINKING

"Alchemy and genuine guile are rare gifts... Anyhoo, I'll think about this later. I'm going to come in late from what I had planned."

#Fade to black? Back to the kitchen/living room with Leyala, Naya, and Kali.

KALI

"We almost had to wait to eat. Talk about a cook."

ATLAS

"Coming from someone who nibbles between meals, that's a bit ironic."

NAYA (smiling, looking at Atlas)

"What do you mean?"

ATLAS

"I saw her leave once again with food in your room. If you don't keep an eye on her, she'll gain weight."

KALI (rolling eye)

"Oh, fuck off, it was only a slice of bread and 3 grams of butter. I'm sure the real problem you have with that is the crumbs."

ATLAS

"Exactly."

NAYA

"At least you're honest, but if it's just that we can clean it up, you know, it's no big deal."

ATLAS

"Then why don't you do it?"

"Leyala told us to let you do all the cleaning, or you will freak out at the least dirt spot we could have forgotten."

KALI

"And she wasn't wrong."

"Ganging up on me, huh?"

#Leyala arrives still a bit asleep (coming down the stairs?) Dunno what their house/apartments look like.

LEYALA

“yawn Hi there...”

ATLAS (while Kali and Naya wave at her?)

“Hey, love. Still tired?”

LEYALA

“I'm still a tad groggy, but I'm okay.”

#She goes sitting next to Atlas while Naya and Kali are in front of them.

KALI

“I wonder who's to blame.”

NAYA

“Kali, don't try to make them uneasy.”

KALI

“Yeah, yeah, I'm just teasing Atlas, nothing more. By the way, what did you do after the maid left? I saw you sneak out.”

ATLAS

“I wanted to know some things about Xiao Long's former allies, so I went to see our guests and ask some questions.”

KALI

“Anything interesting to tell us?”

ATLAS

“Not really; I prefer telling you stuff when I have more info.”

NAYA

“Come on, don't try to appear all mysterious; it doesn't make you more charming.”

ATLAS

“Only one info then. They can help us in the future by creating tools, specialized clothes, etc. It seems like they have some knowledge on alchemy and what-not.”

KALI

“Mmm... I still have trouble believing them, if you know what I mean, but whatever. I'm not royalty; nobody cares about my opinion.”

ATLAS

“Gonna cry?”

KALI

“What if I were to?”

ATLAS

“Then Naya would be there to cheer you up, I'm sure. Maybe.”

NAYA

“It all depends on how much I get paid.”

KALI

“Wow, that's impressive. You're both so funny that I am laughing out loud.”

ATLAS

“We would make a good comedy duo, I agree.”

#Leyala removes her hand from her forehead before looking at Naya/Atlas.

LEYALA

“Stop being so loud... I have a headache...”

ATLAS

“So there are two of us.”

LEYALA

“It's my goddamn period again. It will start soon... I swear, sometimes I would like to be a guy.”

KALI

"Kinda true, but I guess having something dangling between your legs must also have its drawbacks. On a bike, for example."

"I have painkillers in my room if you need them."

LEYALA

"That should do, thanks. I'm used to it now... Otherwise, thanks for breakfast, Atlas; it's as good as ever."

NAYA

"Yeah, to be fair, I'm quite surprised you're that good of a cook. You did all this quite quickly, too, despite Kali nitpicking next to you about everything."

ATLAS

"Well, I'm more than a hundred times your age; it would be a shame if I didn't know how to cook properly after all this time."

KALI

"I wasn't nitpicking..."

"Yes, you were."

KALI

"Oh yeah, really? So what about you and your nitpicking about how I fold the clothes?"

#Seeing that they started to talk together (Naya/Kali), Atlas switches his attention to Leyala, who looks at her plate.

ATLAS

"You aren't really hungry, do you. If you really don't feel well, go lay down."

LEYALA

"I can't spend all my time sleeping. Kali told me that you were up much earlier than me, way much earlier. I should take a cue from you."

ATLAS

"No need to force you to do it; we're all different."

LEYALA

"I'll think about it. As for you, you should sleep more, you may be a vampire, but I don't want you to become a zombie."

ATLAS

"I don't do this for my own pleasure. Lucius trained me to be like that; you'll see in the future if he gives you the same treatment as me."

"Oh, great. I can't wait."

ATLAS

"I doubt he'll do the same with you as he did with me, though. You're his daughter. I was only his adoptive heir at the time."

LEYALA

"He did a pretty good job at transforming you into a man; I am at least indebted to him for that."

ATLAS

"Thanks, I guess?"

LEYALA

"Don't mind me... I'm still zonking-"

#Knock on the door/ring bell announcing Yuki is here.

"Who can it be at this hour?"

ATLAS

"You can enter."

YUKI

"H-Hello to you all. I hope you had a good breakfast. I'm here on behalf of King Lucius; he asked me to inform you that he wanted to meet you in twenty minutes in the throne room."

ATLAS

"Did he tell you why?"

YUKI

"No, he was speaking with Miss Guo and Mei just before. I think our king learned something during the discussion and felt like he needed to see you."

KALI

"Fancy for you to say this now and not before. We'll have to prepare in a rush."

ATLAS

"Don't blame her; she's not a courier, her job is to be a maid, but she still came to warn us. Be at least thankful for that."

KALI

"Yeah, yeah, I'm the big bad. But it's always easy to say when you don't have to wear makeup."

ATLAS

"You too, you don't have to wear makeup; you're more than fine without it."

#In response, Kali crosses her arms, frowns slightly, and looks away.

YUKI

"(small font?) Thank you for..."

"Hm?"

YUKI

"N-Nothing. You should go really soon. I will take care of tidying up your rooms. I won't open any drawers, I promise."

KALI

"You heard that, Naya? She won't open any drawers. You're saved."

"S-Shut up, you idiot."

LEYALA

"Yuki, is that right? I'll give you the keys to the closet. You'll find everything you need inside. If you still have some time after that, you can use the TV."

YUKI

"I... don't think it would be appropriate for me to use this thing..."

LEYALA

"It's as you want. I'm pretty sure you were assigned to our apartments, so you won't have anything else to do after all this."

YUKI

"Thank you. I'll keep that in mind... but I don't want to do anything inappropriate. Your generosity and that of Prince Atlas is already too much for someone of my caliber."

ATLAS

"Stop putting yourself down and just do your best. You'll grow and progress faster that way."

YUKI

"In that case, I'll take your advice in the hopes of becoming like you..."

KALI

"Listen to her; she sounds like an amorous teena-"

"Stop it, Kali, it's enough. We should prepare and go, follow me."

KALI

"Hey, no need to pull me by the arm!"

#They look at the two going into their room.

"Sorry about that; Kali is a bit... cynical and harsh with others. Don't think too badly of her."

YUKI

"T-This is no big deal. I'm used to it, don't worry about me... (pause) Well, I'll get to work. Have a nice day."

#After Yuki stepped away in another room, Leyala gave a small elbow blow to Atlas.

“What?”

LEYALA

“You need to stop seducing every woman you come across.”

ATLAS

“Not my fault.”

#She looks at him with a somewhat annoyed expression.

ATLAS

“You know very well that I truly love you. My feelings for Naya and Kali are still far from being the same ones and I don't know if they ever will.”

LEYALA

“Never say never.”

ATLAS

“You're not in a good mood this morning...”

LEYALA

“As I said before, don't mind me...”

#Going to the throne room.

ATLAS THINKING

“Strange that this room is even cooler than usual. There must have been traffic all morning for the drafts to cool it down so much.”

ATLAS THINKING

“I guess Lucius must have a lot of things to do, people to meet... Especially since he was awakened from the spell. Making up for lost time must not be easy.”

LUCIUS

“Ah! There you are; I almost waited. I had my doubts, but it seems like the new maid did her job.”

ATLAS

“Yes, she did, even if she seemed overwhelmed by you. She didn't know why you needed us, though. Anything regarding the other realms?”

LUCIUS

“Yes, but not only. I wanted to tell you about the Sunlight Blade. It seems like you are also worried about it. I handed it to Zyair; I know that he will know how to hide it and protect it.”

ATLAS

“Why not just destroy it?”

LUCIUS

“As vampires, we cannot. To destroy it, we would need the help of fairies or elves, and as you already know, they aren't exactly what we can call: allies.”

LUCIUS

“Moreover, this sword could be useful later, especially since the sunlight also counters demons.”

ATLAS

“That's a risky bet.”

LUCIUS

“You can't succeed without taking risks; I think you know that even better than I do, Atlas.”

ATLAS

“And what about Ling Guo and Mei?”

LUCIUS

“These two women can be useful, and they know it.”

LUCIUS

“I'm going to put them in touch with members of the bourgeoisie and the upper stratum to see if they can make connections and ease the hate that rotates towards me...”

KALI

"And of course they accepted; they wouldn't miss the opportunity to get closer to royalty."

LUCIUS

"Who wouldn't? I respect their ambitions. You seem to be quick to judge the people around you, Kali. I will ask for a bit more respect."

KALI

"...Sorry."

ATLAS (looking at Kali)

"Seriously?"

KALI (looking away)

"I said I will try to be more respectful, but I can't change in only a few days!"

ATLAS (turning back to Lucius)

"Whatever. Sorry about that. So, what's so urgent that it can't wait?"

LUCIUS

"I'm going to be direct. I need you to go to the Witches Court as soon as possible. Now."

LEYALA

"...Why does it happen so suddenly?"

LUCIUS

"Well, I don't know everything, but it seems like there's unrest there too, and they don't have that many slots available, so it's now or never."

"But I'm quite sure we don't have everything we need to go there right now..."

LUCIUS

"You and Kali are my daughters; I know you can do it. You're more than strong. Naya goes with you too and I can feel something even stronger in her. If ever, Atlas is there too, so trust yourself."

"Your dad is right; we will support you if required."

KALI

"My dad, huh. Anyway, I don't need support; you already know it."

NAYA

"Yes, because you're too prideful, indeed."

ATLAS (talking to Lucius)

"How much more time do we have before going?"

LUCIUS

"A bit more than two hours. At noon maximum, you must be gone. The witches finish their sabbaths at this time."

"Is this all?"

LUCIUS

"Yes, this is all. Keep an eye out for Leyala and Kali, please."

ATLAS

"Of course, you have my word, as always."

LUCIUS

"Also, before you go, you must know that those Witches seem to have more authority than before, so don't piss them off. Especially Kali..."

ATLAS

"I'm gonna try to keep her mouth shut when we will be in front of them, then."

#They both nod to each other while the girls are talking together. Atlas and his team exit the room; he's pensive.

"What's the big deal?"

ATLAS

"Nothing much, like you heard, we need to go in two hours or so, and I'm just thinking about visiting Timeo before going since I don't know when we will be back on track."

"You know... you don't have to be so involved in this boy's life; you aren't responsible for what happened to him."

ATLAS

"He reminds me of my little brother."

LEYALA

"I see... It's rare for you to be sentimental about something like this. Just go to see him; we'll get ready to leave with the girls. We'll join you afterward."

NAYA

"We don't have much to take care of before going to the Witch Court, so don't take too long either. Lucius told us to move fast."

ATLAS

"I already know that. Well, I'll hurry up; see you later."

#Atlas leaves the place sprinting/jogging to see Gina and Timeo. He arrives there a little out of breath. When he rings the doorbell, Gina looks at him, a bit surprised.

GINA

"Hello, Atlas. You wanted to see Timeo...?"

ATLAS

"Yeah, and I also wanted to talk about you and your situation; things need to be... cleared a bit."

GINA

"Then... come in, don't stand at the door. I don't want people to see that the prince is entering my small apartment."

#Entering the apartments.

ATLAS

"What's the problem with that?"

GINA

"I don't want to spread rumors that could destroy the bond between you and your soul mate."

ATLAS

"If that's the main reason for your concerns, don't worry, I informed them that I was coming here."

GINA

"Oh... I hope you don't mind coming all the way here, though. I always feel that my lack of competence forces people to do things for me, so..."

#They stand in the living room. Gina avoids eye contact while Atlas looks at the furniture.

"I'm here of my own free will. And for your incompetence, as long as you work to improve yourself, I don't see any problem."

GINA

"Well... it's because of this same lack that not only me but also Timeo suffered, so even by improving, it won't solve half of our problems... and it's depressing."

ATLAS

"You are depressing. Brighten up a bit, or people won't ever come to know you. Roll up your shoulders, look people in the eye, and try to smile a little. You're pretty, so show it."

#She smiles slightly, looking toward something to eat on the table, and gives one of them to Atlas.

ATLAS (Gina look back at Atlas)

"Thanks. I will overlook the fact that I brushed my teeth for once since you cooked it yourself."

GINA

"...Why are you being nice to me? I'm just a pathetic Omega who ran away from her former responsibilities. I'm sure royalty despise people like me."

ATLAS

"Lucius would, in fact, despise you; that said, fortunately for you, he doesn't care about you. Secondly, I'm not him, and as you know, I decided to help you and Timeo."

GINA

"So you do all that to appear as a nice person?"

ATLAS

"Careful about the phrasing, please."

GINA

"Sorry, that's not what I wanted to say..."

ATLAS

"If I do all that, it's because I want it, and because as a royalty, one of my duties is to keep my word no matter what."

#They paused, looking at the door where Timeo was unconscious.

GINA

"I believe you were there to pay Timeo a visit. Please, go ahead. He's still the same, but sometimes he looks even paler. It threw me off a bit, but the doctor who came said it was nothing..."

#Entering Timeo's room.

ATLAS

"I see you've already started to arrange his room even though he's not really there. If you're not a great fighter, you're a good person. I can at least tell you that."

GINA

"Unfortunately, in a pack, there's not much point in being a good person. You're just dead weight to the others."

ATLAS

"At least be proud that you have not lost the trait that makes you unique. That's rare even for an Omega."

GINA

"I promised my mother I wouldn't change. At least I achieved something."

ATLAS

"We take even small wins."

#They switch their attention to Timeo. Gina sat on the bed, Atlas on the chair in front of it (in the corner of the room?)

ATLAS

"What will you do once he regains consciousness?"

GINA

"...I don't know. I spent most of my time running away; he will probably think badly of me. And as much as I don't want to think about it, I know it will happen."

GINA

"But I also know that he needs to have everything he deserves and more, so I... will face the results of my actions."

ATLAS

"Yeah, that's the right mindset. (pause) As far as I know, Naya is helping you improve, right?"

GINA

"Help me improve, huh..."

"Yeah?"

GINA

"I guess she helps me improve by throwing me down, pushing me in the mud, and hitting my boobs with a high kick."

ATLAS

"From what I gather, you appreciate Naya a lot."

GINA

"...I don't see how that's gonna help me... By the way, thanks for talking to her; she at least calmed down a bit. I come back with fewer bruises than before."

#He looks at one of her hands which is hiding a bruise on her forearm.

ATLAS

"It's true that she's a bit hard on you, but if it angers you that much, use that annoyance to try to push her to the ground in turn."

GINA

"I'm sure you know very well that I won't be able to do it even in 10 years even if I promised to him that I will do everything in my power to become a Beta again..."

ATLAS

"sigh Aren't you tired of putting yourself down all the time? I'm not sure Timeo would appreciate and respect you if he sees his big sister act like a grieving child."

#Her eyes switch to the ground.

GINA

"...T-That wasn't nice this time..."

ATLAS

"No, it wasn't, but I prefer to be straightforward from the start. If you don't have self-esteem, you'll never get anywhere."

GINA

"When you say things like this... you sound like a guidance counselor."

ATLAS (smiling)

"...whatever, let's stop talking about subjects that make you uncomfortable. After all, I'm not here to pep-talk you."

GINA

"I... I know. So, if you're here to see Timeo, as you can see, nothing has changed. Next to that, my trip to America was a complete failure."

ATLAS

"I wasn't only a failure for you on this matter, you know. It was also for me. I know what it's like to feel helpless; that's why I looked for another solution."

GINA (brightening up)

"You mean... you thought of something else to wake him up?"

ATLAS

"Somehow, yeah. The Witches might have an answer to Timeo situation. I dunno what they can really do though, that's why I didn't talk about it to you before."

GINA

"You think they will want to help? I'm nobody for them, they don't even know who I am, same for Timeo, and even if you're there, I don't think-"

ATLAS

"We will see; stop worrying. The only thing you need to do for now is focusing on becoming stronger and keeping your brother safe."

GINA

"...yeah. (pause) Once I become stronger, will you still be around Timeo?"

#Atlas looked up a bit surprised, raising his eyebrow.

GINA

"This boy never had any masculine presence around him to help him become a man... and I think he needs that..."

ATLAS

"Gina, I am not his father. You can't ask me that."

GINA (look a bit sad)

"You still try to help like nobody ever did before for us, despite your title as an heir."

ATLAS

"It's because... No, forget it. (pause) Listen, I will continue to give you a hand occasionally until he grows up enough. That's all."

GINA

"Until he grows up enough?"

ATLAS

"It meant what it meant."

GINA (genuine smile)

"Then it's more than enough. I'm glad."

ATLAS (scratching his head?)

"To think that I will have to do so much in that small amount of time... A few centuries ago, I would have just done what was good for the realm and myself..."

GINA

"What changed?"

ATLAS

"That's a good question."

#Gina steps up from the bed while Atlas is still sitting on the chair.

GINA

"I'm sure you have the answer. Come on, tell me."

ATLAS

"You're pushy when you put your mind to it."

GINA

"Fine, I won't insist. No need to look at me like that. I only tried to be playful for once since you said I always look like I'm worried and sad."

ATLAS

"That's not exactly what I said, but yeah, it's pretty much what I meant. Nice try, though, but you won't hear something from me concerning my personal life. Not today."

#He also steps up from the chair, following her toward the door of the bedroom.

GINA

"Later then."

"You can always dream."

#They go out of the room and look at each other for a second.

GINA

"I guess you will go back to your bond-mate and the other girls... Say hello to them for me, please."

ATLAS

"To be fair, I will probably do something else before going back to them; meeting a friend before going would be nice. Dunno if he will be there, though."

GINA (looking at the handle of the door, avoiding his gaze)

"So... since you don't know about your friend... do you want to use this spare time with me...? Since we're alone, this might be the only time..."

GINA

"I want to show you how much I appreciate your help."

[CHOICE 1] — "Yeah, I have some time to spare. I hope it will be spent in a good way then."

ATLAS

"Yeah, I have some time to spare. I hope it will be spent in a good way then."

ATLAS

"That said, I must be clear with you. You need to search for another man because I'm not going to play house with you."

GINA

"Understood..."

ATLAS

"I just say that so there are no misunderstandings later."

GINA

"No, no, I understand; sorry if I looked down..."

GINA

"For now... I can at least promise that I will do my best to please you... W-Will you let me take the lead for a while?"

ATLAS

"Since we're clear, why not."

#She starts undressing in sexual and suggestive manners but soon struggles to look at Atlas when she ends up in her underwear.

ATLAS

"You don't have to be so stressed, you know, you have my authorization."

GINA

"Thank you... It's just that the last time I did it with someone... It's been about ten years..."

ATLAS

"You don't have to be ashamed of that. I can help you relax a bit if that's what you need."

#He pushes her gently toward the wall before placing his lip on her neck.

ATLAS THINKING

"She still seems as fragile in this situation as in any other. Her body trembles and shivers from the cold air, making her nipples show through her bra."

#He then ran a finger from her shoulder to her hips, passing on her tummy.

ATLAS THINKING

"Running my finger along her body, I feel her muscles twitching gently as she misses a breath."

ATLAS

"Look like you're a bit sensitive for your own good."

GINA

"Tell that to my stupid body..."

"I like people with genuine reactions, so you're lucky. Can you remove your bra?"

#She removes her bra, looking at Atlas, but keeps her panties. She moves her hand toward his crotch, then rubs it on his cock through the fabric.

ATLAS

"You're just doing that?"

"Of course not."

#She kneels down and then unzips/undresses him (before or after, it doesn't matter that much) before taking his cock in one hand and starts jerking him off.

GINA

"I know this kind of foreplay is somewhat overlooked... so, I wanted to try it. I'm surprised by the girth of it..."

ATLAS

"On the sad or the flattering ego way?"

GINA

“giggle The flattering way.”

#She accelerates the pace and starts kissing his dick.

ATLAS THINKING

“I can feel that she’s a bit awkward, but... I can see she does that with care; if it’s not love, it’s devotion. I can live with that.”

She continues jerking him off (while doing the same with her) and starts licking his cock. Before stopping, she can kiss his tip, making him believe she will blow him but stop.

ATLAS

“So you stop now?”

GINA

“Well... you said I could take the lead, so I listened to you.”

GINA

“Plus, you said you didn’t have that much time left, so please just take me against the wall and make me scream.”

ATLAS

“In this case, ask for it as any other of my subjects would.”

GINA

“Please, my prince, use me. I just want this to happen right now and nothing else.”

#Atlas pushes her toward one of the living room walls before lifting her in the air and putting her back on the same wall. She locked her legs around his waist and her arms around his neck as they looked at each other.

GINA

“I hope I’m not too heavy.”

ATLAS

“I wouldn’t worry about my weight if I were you. Open your lips.”

#They kiss, and after they let the moment longing for a moment, Atlas pushes his dick into her.

GINA

“Ah~ Sorry... if I’m a bit clumsy... I might have a few orgasms quite fast... I’m too sensitive...”

ATLAS

“I don’t see any problem with that.”

#Atlas pushes into her slowly.

ATLAS THINKING

“She’s almost too tight even if she’s wet. I can slightly feel her racing heartbeat because of that; that’s the first time I see this...”

#As he cranks up the pace, Gina squeezes her arms tighter around Atlas’ neck before nestling her head on the side of his collarbone.

ATLAS (close to her ear)

“Did you just orgasmed? Your pussy is wetter all of a sudden.”

GINA

“...Yeah, I’m sorry, it should be you, not me...”

ATLAS

“If I were only interested in my own pleasure, fucking would be a lousy experience, so don’t concern yourself with that and just orgasm for me once more.”

GINA

"I still don't understand why you are always so nice to me-"

#Atlas goes faster/harder, maintaining her by the waist/hips (dunno what would be easier to do, it might be hard enough since it's against a wall). He kisses her for a short while before Gina starts talking.

ATLAS THINKING

"I started ramming my cock even harder once again to see what would be her reaction, hoping to see her stop thinking for once and just focus on what we're doing."

ATLAS THINKING

"Her already tight pussy clamped my whole length while my cock was easily going back and forth into her. It made her twitch as she squeezed me with her leg.

GINA

"Oh, fuck! Please! Harder!"

ATLAS

"You forgot something, Gina."

GINA

"Fuck me harder, my prince, make me cum again!"

#The player can decide to stop it here or continue the animation loop if there is one. It's either she finishes him off with a blowjob, or he finishes inside, but I dunno if you have condoms added to your DAZ library (I never believed I would write that someday). Or maybe werewolves and vampires can't have kids together since they're not the same species. I decided to create both routes, so the player can also choose how they want it to end, but the final choice is yours.

BLOWJOB END

"I'm about to cum too..."

GINA

"T-Then please put it out... I will finish you with my mouth..."

#He put his cock out of her, let her come back on her feet. Then she kneels down and starts sucking him.

"Yes... Right there... Just go a bit further."

#She sucks him harder, but even slowly, until he cum in her mouth. She's not swallowing.

CREAMPIE END

GINA

"Fuck-! P-Please finishes inside... I'm in my safe period so don't... Just put it all inside me!"

#Atlas goes harder while kissing her neck as he cum inside. He still continues for a bit till she also cum again, but he slows down the pace as he caresses her tits.

GINA

"W-Wait, it's supposed to be... oh~"

ATLAS

"I can... stop now if you really want me to make you beg for it."

GINA

"No... please, I'm almost there..."

#The scene ends with Gina orgasming and going limp in Atlas arms before he puts her on the sofa.

#Both ends here converge to the same dialogues > Aftermath of sex scene: Gina is lying on the sofa, and hand to her forehead, looking at the ceiling, before looking at Atlas.

GINA

"You're leaving already?"

"Don't say 'already' when I'm almost late because of my own lust."

GINA

"You're sure it won't create problems... I mean... what we just did."

ATLAS

"Not if it's a one-time thing, so keep that in mind. Anyway, it looked like you needed a good fuck."

GINA

"Thank you..."

ATLAS

"...You're welcome, I guess. It was also good for me, you know. Sadly, I can't be there any longer, so... See you in a while."

GINA

"Didn't you say you needed to finish this quickly?"

"I still have- (pause) Well, no, I don't have time left. Shit..."

ATLAS

"Well, sorry if this is awkward, but I can't be there anymore. I will have to sprint toward the rendezvous point..."

GINA

"Go, your mission is more important than what we were doing there. See you later."

ATLAS

"Oh, and by the way... Don't forget to add, prince or heir when you talk to me outside of your home."

GINA

"Of course, I only talk to you using your name when nobody is around, my prince."

#Atlas smiles at her before stepping out of the house, the door shut, letting Gina alone in the "house."

#She goes to check Timeo once again, touching his forehead.

GINA (small font)

"I wonder if one day he will look at me as he looks at his bond mate... I suppose that it would be great for the two of us..."

GINA (small font)

"Even if things like this are taboo... I will try to do my best... Vampires aren't monogamous after all..."

GINA (small font)

"Right...?"

END N°1 of the 1st update.

[CHOICE 2] — "Sorry Gina, I won't accept this offer. Don't take it personally, please."

ATLAS

"Sorry, Gina, I won't accept this offer. Don't take it personally, please."

GINA

"It's alright. I already thought you would say no even before asking. It was stupid to ask you that when you already have someone in your heart."

ATLAS

"Calm down; it's not like I'm accustomed to people wanting my attention and women searching for my goodwill... without being pretentious."

GINA (smirking)

"Without being pretentious, really?"

ATLAS

"Alright, maybe there is a bit of pride there, but as royalty, it's not rare to see people doing what I said."

GINA

"Surely, yeah. Anyway, you should go see your friend if it's important. I will look out after my brother and train alone while you're all away."

GINA

"I don't know if I will be able to do much, but maybe I will achieve things on my own."

ATLAS

"This is how you know that you progress. If it really happens, Naya should see it, as harsh as she can be with you. I doubt that she wouldn't praise you for it."

GINA

"Then I just have to try and see for myself."

ATLAS

"I'm sure you can do this, so stop depressing after each one of your failures and focus on what you have to do. Okay?"

GINA

"Understood, my prince."

ATLAS

"It's rare to hear you call me by that name. It's almost uncanny."

GINA

"We just never meet outside; I would speak to you using the honorable surname that people use when addressing royalty. I don't want more problems."

ATLAS

"Since you're a werewolf, plus a new face here, yeah, better to avoid any problems. Well then, I need to go. See you next time."

GINA

"See you."

#Atlas goes out, but stops at the entrance, thinking.

"I wonder what Zyair and his men will do while we are away."

ATLAS THINKING

"If the special force can investigate stuff regarding alchemy, etc.... We could have a better chance later on to force or coax the other realms."

ATLAS THINKING

"Especially since we have the mother-daughter duo that can help us with that. Must also investigate that."

ATLAS THINKING

"To think I only have a few hours of sleep..."

#Second Update.

In front of the door heading to the Witches & Demons realms.

●—[If Atlas didn't have sex with Gina]

#Instead of the girls waiting for him, he's the one waiting for them. Kali looks like she doesn't want to be there.

LEYALA

"It's rare that you arrive ahead of us. Did Gina have something to do?"

ATLAS

"No, she proposed to do something, but I refused, so I decided to go rather than leaving her in the lurch for too long."

LEYALA

"Nice of you. So, how was she doing apart from that?"

ATLAS

"She's as concerned about everything as ever, but at this point, I think this is something she cannot control."

NAYA (looking somewhere else, buried in her thought)

"Of course, she can control it; if I can do it, she can also do the same. She's just far too pessimistic... (pause) God, it's so irritating."

ATLAS

"Not everyone is like you. She may be able to reduce her stress but not cancel it as you do; plus, you have a special power. Don't put yourself in the same category as her."

NAYA (raising an eyebrow)

"Are you trying to protect her?"

ATLAS

"I'm just stating a fact. You're an Alpha; she's an Omega trying to become a Beta again. You have a power related to a prophecy; she doesn't. That's all."

NAYA

"...I guess you have a point."

ATLAS (Naya roll her eyes in response)

"More than one."

●—[If Atlas have sex with Gina]

#The girls are already here; Kali is sitting on the ground, her back against a wall/tree. When she sees Atlas, she stands up and smiles at him sarcastically (if this is even possible).

KALI

"Look at you. You're almost late for the party. What a bond-mate you are... It's like something slowed you down."

ATLAS

"Sorry about that. The road was full of pitfalls."

KALI

"Pitfalls, huh... Nice one, boss; it seems like you don't waste time. At least—"

#Naya elbows Kali in the ribs while looking at her with a "shut up" gaze.

KALI (shrugging)

"If I can't joke anymore."

NAYA

"There is nothing funny about... You just need to learn when to shut up..."

●—[The 2 Paths join here]

"Anyway, we're good to go. Since it's a short trip, we only brought with us things that are essential if things start getting out of hand. Some snacks and... daggers."

ATLAS

"Yeah, it's better to anticipate. There could be drama, witches are often at odds with the interests of our realm, not that they're bad, but they favor their interests first."

#Leyala leads the way; she's the first one to walk toward the portal. The others follow her.

LEYALA

"It's like that for every country or realm in a way... Or at least it should be. Lucius... Dad is rather complacent compared to the other realms. It surprised me quite a bit."

ATLAS (scratching his chin)

"We're known for our diversity of races, ideologies, politics, etc. In a way, Lucius is the product of this diversified realm. That said... I don't know if complacent is the right word to describe him."

"He's been at war even with his own people for quite a long time. First with the werewolves, some other vampires, then with human vampire hunters who managed to get the best of us at some point."

LEYALA

"The Middle Ages and the Renaissance must not have been an enjoyable era."

ATLAS

"Yeah, everything was fucking soiled and gross. Athens was a thousand times cleaner... (pause after he saw Leyala looking at him with an amused expression) Sorry about that; we should get going, me nagging is of small importance."

"Sometimes you sound like a cynical old man, you know that?"

ATLAS

"Alas, yes, I already know that. No need to pinpoint it again."

LEYALA

"And it must be said that he isn't that young either. He's a real old man, just without the back pain and the missing teeth."

NAYA

"Without the wrinkles, too, it's advantageous to be a vampire. Us werewolves live a lot less than you."

ATLAS

"You live easily five to six times longer than any human could hope. It's not that big of a deal if you ask me."

NAYA (shrugging)

"Whatever, it's not like I'm going to die of old age tomorrow anyway. (pause) And now that I'm in front of it, I can say it's more than a fancy portal."

They're approaching the portal after advancing underground. Kali is looking up as they come closer and start to see it.

KALI

"I thought we had reached the peak of wealth with Lucius' castle entrance. It looks like I was wrong."

ATLAS

"It's just the witches who made this, not us. They don't need wealth to do any of this; they're quite handy and know how to ask nature for help."

NAYA

"They even dug the hole up to here?"

ATLAS

"Lucius told me that they asked for a portal out of sight, so they dug it underground with our help. They always acted as some kind of scared cats."

"I guess they like their privacy."

ATLAS

"They're mostly afraid of being run over. Witches are the closest to human beings; it's not for naught that they have allied with demons."

#They stop in front of the portal. Atlas is heading inside it; Naya's sentence stops him. Leyala is touching the gate.

LEYALA (tiny font, as some background dialogue)

"The fuck... it's freezing..."

"You don't seem to like witches very much."

ATLAS

"Well, what I say is simply the truth. They're good at many things; survival isn't one of these things. They were almost annihilated during the witch hunts organized by humans."

LEYALA (she turns her head to Atlas with an ironic smile)

"Humans also got the best of the vampires; you told it yourself."

"Only because Lucius was waging war against the other realms. In a way, Lucius' reckless behavior saved humans from mass extinction."

ATLAS

"They were forced to flee this realm because they were persecuted and unable to survive, so they sought a new realm to live in. Luckily, since paganism is closely related to demons, they were accepted there."

NAYA (looking at Leyala, smiling.)

"Feels like I'm taking a history class. He's always like this with you?"

"Don't agitate him further, ahah!"

"..."

#Atlas advances into the portal, almost passing through. He talks before going entirely through.

ATLAS

"...Fuck off. Just go through the damn portal, or I'll leave you alone on the other side."

NAYA (smirking)

"Alright, you don't have to scowl-"

#Atlas goes through the portal before Naya can finish her sentence. We see the other side of it without anyone close to it. The two guards wait for them further away.

ATLAS THINKING

"It looks just like I remember it was back then. I guess time is also frozen here. On the other hand, all the decorations that existed before have been removed..."

ATLAS THINKING (Leyala appear behind him)

"I guess they listened when people told them it was too much rococo."

LEYALA

"What are you thinking?"

ATLAS

"Nothing interesting."

KALI

"As ever."

"Says you."

#Naya positions herself between Kali and Atlas, chafing her arms.

NAYA (frowning?)

"It's freezing here... Why did they want their realms to be this cold...?"

ATLAS

"I don't know much about this, but it probably has some kind of link with their magic."

KALI

"I can pretty much feel that everything around us is impregnated with magic if it's a useful confirmation."

"You mean the very components of what surrounds us?"

#Kali shrugs at the question before turning her attention to the guard advancing toward them.

KALI

"Strange guys incoming."

ATLAS (after pushing her a bit by the shoulder to salute the guard)

"They're just some random guards; stop acting like an asocial prick. (pause, the guards look at them silently) ...Hi?"

GUARD 1

"Greetings. You must be the guests that the Queen told us to check out."

GUARD 2

"Of course they are the guests, idiot, he's Lucius' heir, it's something everyone knows, basic information. Where did your overall culture go?"

GUARD 1

"I was only joking."

GUARD 2

"Right... (pause) Sir, ladies, sorry for this, we're kinda tired. Now, as you already know, we will accompany you to the Queen. Once there, she will ask for the same respect you would give to your king."

GUARD 2

"So please, be polite and courteous despite what she can say."

ATLAS

"We know each other vaguely, so that shouldn't be a problem."

GUARD 2

"Things have changed a bit since you came here, so don't put much trust in these old talks you had with her in the past."

ATLAS

"Is that a threat?"

GUARD 2

"No, just a brief explanation. My job is only to accompany you and explain to you some basic information you might be unaware of, nothing else, Sir."

ATLAS

"Whatever. We'll follow you."

#After they start following them, both guards are a few feet away from them. Now more at ease, the girls start talking again.

"By the way, Naya, was your nickname really Puppy when you were little? I heard that back in America; I just recalled... Was that the name you gave yourself?"

"Oh god..."

LEYALA

"I mean, I don't want to start nickname-shaming you, but it's kinda cute."

NAYA

"Is that Kali who told you that?"

#Kali nods her head in denial.

ATLAS

"Puppy, huh."

NAYA

"I was nine... maybe ten..."

ATLAS

"That wasn't even 10 years ago. A blink of an eye for me. Make me want to call you Puppy from now on."

NAYA

"Look what you did, Leyala. Proud of yourself?"

"Don't be like that. It's okay to have some strange nickname; we all did at some point."

ATLAS

"I don't think I ever had one. They didn't give you a nickname on the battlefield; at best, you were given a number, so I can't relate."

"...You make a great pair of pain in the ass. I don't know if having two bond mates like you around me will be a good influence."

ATLAS

"Worry not, my child, nobody will know about it. It will be our secret. Probably."

LEYALA

"Probably."

NAYA (turning to Kali)

"Ganging up on me, huh. Why does my bond-mate don't try to bite them back?"

KALI

"It's rare to see you embarrassed, so I'm chillin' and enjoying the show from the backseat. Don't blame me."

NAYA

"Really now...?"

KALI (raising her index finger)

"I already told you not to be ashamed of that either."

LEYALA

"If even Kali doesn't do anything about that, I think you're doomed."

NAYA

"Ah... Shaddup, you want to play this game, right? Then what about Yuki?"

LEYALA

"Yes...?"

NAYA

"Come on, girl, I'm sure you saw it too; even a guy as dense as osmium would have seen it. She has a complete crush on Atlas, am I right?"

LEYALA

"Well... I guess she has. It's pretty obvious, even back when we were in Asia, she looked at him with insistence, so..."

NAYA

"A new contender has joined the fray. It's starting to pile up if you want my honest opinion. How far do you plan to stop at Atlas? Is three not enough?"

ATLAS

"I like odd numbers, so it's either 3, 5, or 7. I'm still uncertain, though."

LEYALA (elbowing him)

"Hey! Don't joke with that!"

ATLAS

"Ouch... no need to use violence. Can't you see she's just trying to return the teasing toward you?"

"Of course I can see that, but you know why I can't accept that you say things like this... (tiny font ->) especially in front of other people..."

ATLAS

"Sorry, sorry, that said your little catfights are somehow entertaining."

LEYALA

"You're the one teasing me now..."

"Just a bit-"

KALI

"Guys, we should tone it down; we're getting close to the court."

#Since they're close to the court, their expressions switch. Kali makes sure to be behind Naya, at the very back, while Atlas and Leyala are at the front.

"Sure."

NAYA

"Right, let's focus back on what we have to do. With all the things we have to do and all the unknown things we encounter, I have to admit that I am quite stressed."

ATLAS

"It's okay, Puppy, you're gonna have time for yourself soon enough. The quicker we find a solution to the issues, the faster you're gonna have a breather."

NAYA (frowning)

"Call me like that again and-"

#The guards stop them by obstructing the way with their swords/spears (if they have weapons). Atlas looks at them by raising an eyebrow, a bit irritated.

"Yeah?"

GUARD 2

"Sorry to interrupt, but the Queen is waiting for you just on the other side. Since you're guests here, be aware that you cannot say everything and have to apologize if the Queen asks you to."

ATLAS

"She's as arrogant as ever, I suppose."

GUARD 2 (the 2 guards remove their weapons from the way)

"...Very well, better not keep her waiting even more. Go in."

#As they enter the court, Naya gives him a discreet punch.

NAYA (frowning)

"You heard me, Atlas?"

ATLAS (patting her head)

"Puppy."

#She throws off his hand, then looks at Leyala by raising an eyebrow. Leyala smiles at her, then they all advance in the court. Atlas goes inside it, first looking directly at Arianne. After everyone enters the court, Arianne starts talking.

ARIANNE (broad smile, elbow on the desk, fist closed, supporting her head. If she's even sitting)

"Delighted to welcome you, Atlas. It has been a long time since King Lucius tried to contact us. I thought he would come himself, but I will be content with you."

ATLAS

"Sorry, he couldn't come on his own. I'm sure you can relate to the responsibilities of governing a kingdom, especially after all the commotion. I'm certain it's reached your ears."

ARIANNE (with irony)

"More or less, the information coming from your realm is always evasive, so I don't know the full story of your visit."

ATLAS

"Well, to be honest with you, I don't think it's up to me to tell you every detail, especially right now."

ARIANNE

"You all are here to ask something from us. Wouldn't it be fair if we could have at least the main reason for why and what happened?"

ATLAS

"Lucius himself asked me to shut it about this, for now, I'm sorry. You'll get this info from Ba'el soon enough."

SERAPHINA

"I think it would be better to cooperate and talk peacefully than going in headfirst like a bull as you do, sister..."

ARIANNE (without looking at her sister, rolling her eyes)

"Now, this is why you can't become a Queen. (pause - she sighs) So, prince Atlas, what is your request? Might as well get straight to the point."

#Seraphina looks a bit down because of the words of her sister. Atlas looks at her before taking a step forward to speak.

ATLAS

"A legend says that the royal family has access to a spell that can locate anyone with witch blood or something related to it. We have reasons to believe that this is more than a legend."

ATLAS

"Since you wanted me to go straight to the point, to be clear, we need your help with this specific matter."

ARIANNE

"I see what your goal is... Ophelia... (pause) always has been a smart girl, it's not even sure that we can locate her, but we can at least have an idea of where she is, probably."

"My lady, if I may be so bold, I think it's a bad idea to use a spell at that time of year when the residual magic is uneven and unstable. It would be like drinking a glass of holy water for a vampire."

ARIANNE

"I'm well aware of that; that's why I'm waiting for our dear and only male guest to utter his second request. At least, I'm pretty sure there's a second one, right?"

ARIANNE

#Arianne brightened up a bit and sat on her chair more comfortably, putting her on the desk, a slight smile on her face.

ATLAS

"We need your help to create a potion capable of giving back the power of a powerful being, Kerros. He lost all his strength during the last centuries and needs help coming back to his senses."

#The council looks at each other, Seraphina appears a bit stunned. Arianne, on the other hand, smiles even more but doesn't say anything.

SERAPHINA

"The Sprite King? I don't know about that. Dealing with Norandhil can be dangerous... As allies, we have to support each other, but..."

"The demons are your allies; we don't have to solve the problems of your alliances. We're part of it just because we have no choice but to comply."

#Atlas scratches his beard before turning to Seraphina.

ATLAS

"I concede that they are chaotic, but they have been weakened for centuries. Helping them could strengthen our ties and allow us to establish new and more agreeable partnerships."

"I believe that re-establishing agreements on magical goods trading would be a major improvement, but the risks must be weighed up."

ATLAS

"That's why we-"

ARIANNE

"You want to fix Kerros' problem, right? More than fixing his fucked up health, you're looking to make just a stronger ally. I'm not trying to be a naysayer here, but what's in it for us?"

ATLAS

"Magic goods trades, fewer taxes, easier access to our borders, so that witches can more conveniently return to the wild for an amount of time to recover residual magic and not suffer from the lack of it."

"We know well that the energy in this realm isn't the one in which you're native; it harms you in the long run."

ARIANNE

"We are doing well enough that we don't need this; it would only be useful for children and young people."

ATLAS

"Isn't it the role of a Queen to protect this portion of the population?"

ARIANNE

"Don't worry; I'm doing it without needing outside help, unlike your realm. That said, if it allows us to renew political treaties with Lucius, I am willing to make a concession."

"...I'm listening then."

#Her smile disappears as she sticks her two hands together and puts them under her chin, her elbows once again resting on her desk.

ARIANNE

"I will create a potion for Kerros. His power will be restored in no more than a few hours after drinking it. It's probably going to be foul, but he'll be good as new soon after that."

ARIANNE

"That's all."

ATLAS

"What about Ophelia? This is an important matter; we were hoping that since you're our allies, you could do it soon so that we can resolve everything promptly."

ARIANNE (pointing her index finger toward Atlas)

"Ba'el is your main ally, and even if you're our allies by extension, I decided that she will be judged here, in front of her peers."

ARIANNE

"Just as other vampires punish vampires, we must do the same with our community. It is our duty. The judgment would be fair; you could even witness it if you want."

ATLAS

"I disagree. The colossal damage Ophelia caused is in our realm, not in yours. She must face those she has wronged, not those she sees as peers."

ARIANNE (smiling)

"Listen, I know you won't like what I'm gonna say, but it needs to be said since you seem to be completely oblivious to magic. Let me educate you a bit."

#Atlas & Kali became irritated and tense.

ATLAS

"...Very well, I'm listening. Let us hear your O so valuable knowledge."

ARIANNE

"Good. So, for that kind of spell to work even just a bit, the victim needs to have an idea, a vice, a desire that they refrain, and that becomes like a noxious afterthought."

ARIANNE

"That's why succubus magic works so well; they use magic to exacerbate men's vices. The spell used on Lucius is no different from that. And to have worked so well for so long, the idea of doing this to Effie..."

ARIANNE

"How to word this... Yeah, he pretty much wanted to harm Effie or get rid of her since long ago, probably more than an afterthought at this point. So putting all the blame on Ophelia is childish."

ARIANNE

"Are you happy now? Did my O so valuable knowledge be of any help?"

SERAPHINA

"Wait. Sister, why didn't you say any of that to us? The council and I don't know any of these matters..."

ARIANNE

"Trivial issues do not require an assembly to solve."

ATLAS

"If I were you, I'd be careful about what comes out of my mouth."

ARIANNE

"Threatening me in my own kingdom! The ever-smart terrans!"

ARIANNE

"As a reminder, I have agreed to help you. Sooo... If you really want to punish someone, take care of Lucius while we take care of Ophelia. Sounds good, doesn't it?"

ATLAS

"You'd better pipe down soon enough before I lose-"

LEYALA

"Wait! We can't know for sure if Lucius would have acted as he did without the spell, so what you're saying is completely biased."

ARIANNE

"I'm afraid that even the Terran women have lost their intellect in the last centuries."

#Atlas tries to talk to Arianne, but Leyala stops him.

"What are you trying to say?"

ARIANNE

"You want me to condemn or even kill someone based on suspicion, right?"

ARIANNE

"If it was supposed to work like that, the Terran executioners would have their work cut out for them. You'd have to get out the sharpening stones; the blades would get dull too quickly."

LEYALA

"Suspicion is enough to search for evidence, and at this point, the presumption of innocence isn't relevant anymore. She's hiding because she knows she screwed up."

ARIANNE

"That's true, but even y'all doesn't know the extent of her deeds, somebody might have helped her, or she might have done even worse on Lucius' back. Nobody knows; that's why we will be the ones taking charge."

KALI

"I would like to intervene..."

NAYA (tiny font)

"Wait... You don't have to talk-"

KALI

"I know how to behave, geez. Let me breathe a bit."

ARIANNE

"So? Go ahead, girl... You're an interesting one; I can sense some magic emanating from you."

KALI

"I'm sure you realize what Ophelia has done is despicable and merits punishment. If it happened in your realm, you would have liked to be able to punish the person. It's common sense."

"Of course, but it's not that simple; witches, vampires, werewolves have different cultures. That's why I said she will be judged here and that she will have a fair trial which you could all attend."

KALI

"So you want to do this trial here to be traditional? Don't you think it's a bit absurd?"

ARIANNE

"Absurd, huh? The problem here is that the Terran high hierarchy wants to use this trial as an asset to show to your people that Lucius, his iron fist, and his army are back on their feet, ready and steady."

"Now tell me what is more absurd between the two: to care for one's people and bring justice traditionally; staying true to yourself and to your people, or..."

ARIANNE

"To hide troubles from the people while taking advantage of the goodwill of others to solve the problems you have created yourself? Not a hard question to answer."

KALI

"...We're good? Are you done with your monologue? Ophelia created huge messes in 3 realms: Human, Sprites, and Witches. Don't tell me that it's normal that she's still free."

KALI

"The Sprites have seen their king down on his knees for 400 years because of this bullshit. Besides that, the Humans lost their Queen and gained a mad king as a result."

KALI

"And you, who look so haughty, didn't feel soiled by what she did? A witch who dishonors your whole homeland? Be honest with yourself."

ARIANNE

"Arguments related to feelings don't matter to me; let's be pragmatic. It's also not with grand words and an angry tone that you'll change my mind, little girl."

KALI

"You fucki-"

#Naya put a hand on her shoulder.

NAYA

"It's useless. At this point, arguing won't lead us anywhere."

ARIANNE

"Yeah, exactly, it won't lead anywhere."

KALI (tiny font)

"Yeah, no point talking to a dirty sack of grease..."

NAYA (tiny font)

"Calm down; I know you've been through a lot because of this, but..."

#Atlas looks at the two of them, taking a few steps back, talking together, before switching his attention toward Arianne.

"Is this really the extent of what you have to answer to our requests?"

ARIANNE

"What do you want me to say? I prioritize my people, no surprise there. Besides, I will help you get Kerros back on track. It's better than nothing."

ATLAS

"We never asked you to do anything all these years, not once. Despite that, you still get financial aid from us since you're amongst the elders of the Terran realm even if you're not there anymore."

ATLAS

"You have been treated as an equal all this time; I would have expected more charity."

ARIANNE

"Where was your charity when we were burned alive at the stakes?"

ATLAS

"Because you think we were in better shape than you? Survival was almost impossible; the humans of that time compared to today were monsters."

ATLAS

"If you refuse our requests because of a grudge, it's-"

ARIANNE

"No, I refuse to hear a moralizing line from you, especially about grudges. You're the least qualified person within a thousand miles to talk about grudges."

"I gave you my reasons; this grudge is just another small drop of water filling the vase. I am just taking into consideration what my people think of you all."

ATLAS

"Don't be too cocky, Arianne. I'm sure you're aware that Ba'el can force your hand. You may be strong as you are now, but you're not the true ruler of this realm."

ARIANNE

"Whatever you say. How many centuries have passed since you visited me? Three hundred years? No, four hundred years. In four hundred years, a lot can happen."

"You are playing a dangerous game."

"I hope you're gonna have fun antagonizing me when you get back to Lucius."

ATLAS

"sigh I hope at least that in the future we can have an agreement. I will pass on what you told me to Lucius in due form."

ARIANNE

"Oh, it seems like you matured a bit since last time. Anyway, I wish you a good day; it's almost time for us to go, and probably for you too. Time flows differently here after all."

ATLAS

"Yeah, but we have everything we need on us. We took some food in anticipation, so I wish you a pleasant meal."

ARIANNE

"By the way! Who are these girls? I never saw them before, and you're someone who prefers to do this kind of mission alone, so I'm a bit surprised."

"I don't think we're friends, so keep these types of personal questions for yourself."

ARIANNE

"You're no fun to be always so stubborn and professional. That said, I wouldn't insist. Let's go, Seraphina; we've done our part."

SERAPHINA

"Our part? What are you talking about? You were the only one talking."

ARIANNE (disappearing, tiny font)

"Of course, I have the last word; I'm the Queen."

#Atlas and Leyala look at them disappearing behind the door/curtain. They look at each other, Naya and Kali far behind.

"That was something else..."

ATLAS

"Well, as I said, I was expecting it a bit. I'm just wondering where this is going. If everyone holds a grudge, even me, we won't move forward."

LEYALA

"You shouldn't put too much pressure on yourself; Lucius is back. Plus, you've been running the realm almost single-handedly for 400 years."

ATLAS

"Nice of you to try and cheer me up, but I'm not down in the dumps either. I just imagine that the other realms will start to see through our charade. An attack may be coming any day now."

LEYALA

"Yeah... better go then. I hope Luci- Dad will have some idea to balance the situation."

ATLAS

"He will probably get ideas, but practically, we don't have a lot of solutions, not more than 2 or 3. To act too forcefully would be to violate our contract with them."

"They still seem to be deeply resentful of what happened so long ago..."

"Scars don't always go away with time, especially when you live several millennia."

#On their way back (with the guards in front of them), Naya and Kali join them.

KALI

"What a fucking bitch she is."

"Don't say that when the guard is just a few feet away..."

KALI

"I'm stating a fact. How do you want me to stay still and be compliant when I have a ho in front of me..."

LEYALA

"At least you didn't say that directly to her..."

NAYA

"She was about to do it; if I didn't intervene, she would have flamed her. She has trouble remembering who her father is, apparently."

KALI

"Like if I care about this whole ordeal. Whether he's my father or not doesn't change the fact that she's a bitch."

#Naya elbowed her again with an annoyed gaze.

KALI (frowning)

"What?!"

"You know very well what, you damn monkey."

#Atlas is looking at them from behind with an amused smile. Leyala is coming on the left to Kali to try talking with her.

ATLAS THINKING

"We'll have no choice but to force their hand gently, thanks to Ba'el. That said, I wonder where he is; we haven't heard from him in a long time."

ATLAS THINKING

"I guess Lucius has everything necessary, but we'll have to keep an eye on the other realms as well at this point."

ATLAS THINKING

"All that's left is to try to explain this to him without stirring up his anger too much."

#Directly into Lucius' meeting room. ●—Since I dunno what it looks like, I'm gonna guess that Lucius is sitting on a chair, same for Atlas and Kali (she's looking at the ceiling, seemingly tired). Leyala is standing next to them, and Naya, who feels out of place, is behind them, leaning against a wall.

LUCIUS

"So that's what happened. I expected a certain amount of resistance, but that she'd get away with her words, but for her to indulge in those words..."

LUCIUS

"It seems that she's forgetting where she came from."

"What do you mean?"

LUCIUS

"We came from about the same place. We have established pacts together, pacts that have been damaged by time and the technological advance of humans."

LUCIUS

"I wish I could have continued an uncompromising alliance, but apparently, it's going to be difficult..."

ATLAS

"To be honest, I think cutting part of our financial help during the next month if they don't accept would be one of the few things to do."

LUCIUS

"It would be a low blow, perhaps essential later, but we should try other ways before coming to that. That said, she was always cocky, arrogant, but it seems that her miserable temperament has worsened."

KALI (focusing back on Lucius)

"She also didn't tell everything she knew to her council. If she hides things even from her closest allies out of boastfulness, we could have the upper hand by taking advantage of her small moments of weakness."

NAYA

"You sound like a ravenous predator when you talk like that."

KALI

"She disrespected everyone, so I'm not going to sugarcoat her. We could try to contact her council, or maybe the other witch, her sister. Maybe they would be more likely to listen to us."

LUCIUS

"I highly doubt that it would work. The witches are, for the most part, a really chauvinistic race, even if they disagree on some subjects, sowing discord between them is impossible."

LEYALA

"So, what's your idea?"

ATLAS

"You will ask Ba'el, right?"

LUCIUS

"Yes, I might as well use my network. Ba'el will make her comply; he has the right to do anything to their people since he's the one who accepted them, so she will need to listen..."

LUCIUS

"I'm not a fan of this solution, but right now, it's the only thing that can solve the issue fast and without making sparks."

ATLAS

"I guess we will need to meet him soon to talk in detail about it."

LUCIUS

"If everything is done before tomorrow, no, but it might be complicated to do what has to be done with only half a day on the clock."

LUCIUS

"I'm sending an emissary to the Demon Kingdom, it might take the afternoon and the night before he comes back, so I will probably send you there tomorrow."

KALI

"We can't stay still for more than 12 hours, can we?"

LUCIUS

"Not right now; an uncertain climate doesn't give the freedom to rest. Also, don't forget to join me in my office at the same hour as the other days. We will continue the lesson on geo-politics."

"Come on; it's not that bad."

#Kali slumps in her seat, hiding her face with both hands.

KALI

"Yeah, yeah..."

#Lucius stood up from his seat after looking at his stuff. He looks at everyone before advancing toward them.

LUCIUS

"...Since you don't have any more information to give me, I'm going."

ATLAS (he stand back and join Naya while he let the 2 sister talks)

"Very well."

LUCIUS

"I have a meeting with some lords; it's going to be a long talk over trifles, but making allies is always important. I'll try to teach you that in a little while. It will be beneficial for you, Kali."

KALI

"Why did I know you would be saying stuff like that..."

LEYALA

"Well, maybe because you actually need some help with making allies."

KALI

"What is that supposed to mean?"

LEYALA (smiling, her index finger pointing upward?)

"That you're neither friendly nor business-like nor easy to deal with. Most people wouldn't even think about allying with you in any way imaginable."

"And then people tell me I have to be tactful, eh."

#Lucius walks toward Naya & Atlas, who is standing a bit farther than Kali & Leyala.

LUCIUS (tiny font, whispering)

"Am I really boring Kali...?"

NAYA (she first look a bit stunned but smile back at him)

"No, no, don't worry, she just likes to complain. I'm pretty sure she appreciates your presence; she'll always be too proud to admit it, though."

ATLAS

"Since they both get along well, Leyala must be rubbing off on her a bit, and vice versa. They're sisters of the soul, after all."

LUCIUS

"They... get along well?"

"...Pretty much, yeah."

NAYA

"Don't let us slow you down, King; we don't want to keep you from being on time for your meeting."

LUCIUS

"Yeah, see you soon. Take a break before tomorrow. It would be better for everyone."

"Roger."

#Naya and Atlas look at each other after Lucius goes out of the room.

NAYA

"Haha! That was a bit awkward."

ATLAS

"I guess he has some trouble understanding his daughters."

NAYA

"That was cute, though."

ATLAS

"I don't know if he sees it that way; he probably feels bad about it, but it's not our role to help him with this, so I simply let him do what he thinks is better."

NAYA

"To each person the lesson they need to learn?"

ATLAS

"That's a pretty fitting sentence, yeah. Even the Terran king needs to learn that stuff."

#Leyala comes back to them, with Kali behind her.

LEYALA

"He already gets out in no more than a few seconds? I didn't even see him do it."

NAYA

"Of course. You were too occupied sisting out with Kali. He rushed out 'cause he was already a tad late."

LEYALA

"Oh well, in that case, we might as well go home since we have nothing else to do."

ATLAS

"I was going to suggest going to the bar, but seeing Kali's face, I'll drop the suggestion."

KALI

"Piss off."

ATLAS

"I'm just trying to say that you don't look like you want anything. As ever."

#Heading out the room.

KALI

"I'm training every day and taking lessons every now and then, so don't try to-"

NAYA (smiling, raising an eyebrow)

"He's just messing with you, Kali. No need to be like this."

KALI (tiny font, turning her head to the side)

"...probably thinks he's smart, huh."

#Fade to black before we switch to the 4 of them in Atlas' living room. ●—Everyone is sitting on the sofa (Leyala, Kali, and then Atlas in order) except Naya. It's just a mental image of the scene.

"Want a coffee?"

ATLAS

"Why not."

NAYA

"So, are you going to tell us who Ba'el is? I understand that he was a valuable ally, but Lucius spoke of him in a positive way. That's sorta rare."

"I grasped that he was one of dad's friends; it's not that hard to guess. I heard him talk about his alliance during one of our lessons."

ATLAS

"He's a bit more than a simple friend. I guess you can call him Lucius "best" friend, I don't know everything, but they worked together for a long time backed by Arianne."

#Naya gives the cup of coffee to Atlas.

NAYA

"Best friend? I didn't see Lucius as a man with a thing like best friends; he is apparently always so occupied and buried in his thoughts that I have trouble imagining him chilling with a pal."

ATLAS

"There was a time when there were far fewer problems, so he had time to relax with his buddies. This has not been the case for several centuries now..."

KALI

"What a workaholic monster he is. I have no intention of becoming like him... I will probably die of high blood pressure if I live like this."

#It makes everyone smile.

"It's just a few centuries, you know."

KALI

"Don't say that kind of shit; it sounds fuckin' weird... (pause - tiny font ->) Just a few centuries... my ass..."

#He takes a sip of his coffee, puts the cup on the table, and resumes.

ATLAS

"...Anyway, Ba'el is the King of Pythonium, of the demons, if you prefer. He's also part of the very limited club of the most powerful beings of the 7 realms."

NAYA (sitting on a chair in front of them, dunno how the living room is)

"I never met any demons, even in my dreams. I heard they're powerful beings acting on magic and feelings..."

ATLAS

"Yes, that's why I find it suspicious that Arianne acted so cocky when he's supposed to be in charge. Norandhil and Ba'el are Terran friends."

ATLAS (putting a hand on chin, like the thinking emoji)

"Norandhil is a pain to deal with since you don't know how they will act; they're just chaotic. But Ba'el is more than trustworthy; every lord knows that."

NAYA

"Then, why didn't he do anything during the last 450 years? I wouldn't want a friend who left me in deep shit for so long without intervening."

ATLAS

"Yeah... I know. I'm also wondering about that... Something's unclear about this mess."

KALI (she's checking her phone/book or looking at the TV)

"I smell a rat, as the old folks would say."

"Nothing can be easy these days. I haven't had a break in 500 years; it's getting hard to sleep well."

LEYALA

"Most of the time, you could sleep more, but you get up to visit people or do housework."

#He turns toward her with an annoyed expression.

ATLAS

"You three are messing up the place; it's not my fault. You're going to have to start learning some manners; if Lucius could teach you anything, I'd gladly add that to the list."

KALI (dismayed expression)

"To think that everyone tells me to stop bitching when we have Atlas to lecture us on the crumbs we have left on the table is an unfunny joke."

ATLAS (slight smile)

"At least I know how to clean my fucking bedsheet and don't need help doing the dishes."

KALI

"Blah, blah, blah."

NAYA

"Hahaha! Well, you two have a dynamic relationship; I can at least be sure about this."

#He turns toward her with an annoyed expression.

LEYALA

"Oh, by the way, it's almost time for us to go to Lucius' office."

KALI (tiny font)

"Goddamn it..."

LEYALA

"Come on, stop grumbling for a minute. We have to go in like, five minutes."

KALI

"Yeah, yeah, I know, you don't have to babble right next to me. I already have a headache; you're only going to aggravate it."

#She stands up and goes toward her shoes.

"At least try to be a bit more positive, she's your sister, and you're gonna see your father."

KALI

"I feel like I'm in a foster home sometimes... (pause) It's only gibbering and gibbering. So stop telling the same thing endlessly, or I'm gonna end up having to beat someone senseless."

"We can try that whenever you want, it's not like you can truly defeat me."

KALI

"Don't play with fire too much; next time we train, I'm gonna aim for your boobs; you won't get over it for a week."

NAYA

"That's what I was searching for. The urge to be challenged immediately puts you back on your feet. Now go and stop slacking around."

KALI (disappointed)

"So that was your only motive. Nice strategy, smartass."

NAYA

"I rarely do things that are pointless; you should know better. Now hurry up before I hear Leyala complaining as well."

#Kali shows her middle finger to Naya with a smirk before exiting the room (just before leaving, Naya says the line below).

"Love you too."

#Naya drinks the rest of her coffee and then sits on the sofa since only Atlas is here now.

NAYA

"I know you have other plans than doing stuff with me, but what about doing something to pass the time before you leave?"

ATLAS

"What's your proposition?"

NAYA

"What do you think of a few Uno games?"

ATLAS

"If you're up to that, I hope you're ready to get dominated."

NAYA

"Whatever you say, mister, like if Uno required any skills to win."

ATLAS

"I'm pretty sure you're saying that for everything you try or do. One day it's going to backfire against you, you know."

NAYA

"Then why not try something interesting? Since we have some time to spare, we can do a strip game, and if I win, you stop grumbling for a month, and if I lose, we're doing it."

ATLAS

"You're in shape today. I didn't expect that you would 'offer' me this."

"Killing time doesn't happen by itself. And we are also linked by this bond; our feelings are shared by the four of us."

ATLAS (smiling)

"Alright, I understood already that you somehow heard us last night. Who would have thought that you'd go and listen to us; that's a bit creepy, don't you think?"

NAYA

"Firstly, it wasn't hard to hear you. Secondly, I still have a bit of trouble with that casual attitude towards sex that you have, but I guess that's what happens when you live almost for god know how many years."

ATLAS

"Sorry if that sets you off. I've been accustomed to this lifestyle for centuries, even millennia now."

NAYA

"It's not really a problem. I hope to get used to it too; it will liberate me somewhat."

ATLAS

"If that's what you're looking for, I can definitely help."

NAYA

"Oh, and I'm definitely not worried about that. So, are we going to play some game or what?"

ATLAS

"Let's shuffle the cards then."

#Naya is naked, Atlas only with a boxer shorts. They're both still on the sofa.

ATLAS

"It looks like it wasn't only by chance that I won."

"I was so fucking close..."

"That's truly heartbreaking."

"Look at you; you just have your boxer shorts on; the rest is on the ground."

ATLAS

"You have more clothing on you than me, so I would have won anyway--"

NAYA

"Ah! Don't be too cocky. I can beat you at billiards or monopoly with ease."

ATLAS (teasing her with the appropriate expression)

"You were one game away from me. You should have kept your +4 for later in the game, but you didn't, not my fault."

ATLAS

"That said, I accept the challenge about a game of pool, but first, we have some business to attend to."

NAYA

"Yeah, a deal is a deal. I was hoping to win, but luck decided otherwise. So, what kind of activity do you prefer? I'm not exactly used to doing it with a man, but I do like being on top."

ATLAS

"In this case, better start with something soft. Just come on my lap; it should do, right? Nobody will come at this hour, so we can do this here."

NAYA

"I hope so; if not, the next time I cook, I'll put 50 grams of Espelette pepper on your dish."

#He sits on the bed, and then she follows him. She seems hesitant but comes on his lap (I think it's the lotus position if I remember correctly, but here without penetration), so they end in front of each other (to switch on cowgirl later).

"So you're one of these rare romantic men?"

ATLAS

"I'm quite sure it's not that rare if the dude has some feelings for the girl in front of him."

NAYA

"I consider that a compliment, so what are you up to in the short time we have left? We better hurry up, or I'll need to fuck you senseless."

ATLAS

"Glad to see you're confident, but don't overdo it either; you just told me you're not experienced."

NAYA

"Inexperienced with men, yeah, it doesn't mean I don't know how to please you. After all this time training and getting more flexible, I can do things that are quite steamy."

ATLAS

"Let's not get ahead of yourself, will you?"

#She leans in to kiss him as Atlas starts to caress her tummy then her breasts.

ATLAS THINKING

"I didn't think she would be so eager. After all, she was the one who suggested it, so it must have been on her mind for a while now."

ATLAS THINKING

"Naya wraps her legs around me tightly enough to keep me from moving while her lips still tasting of coffee caress mine. Still hesitant to use her tongue, I preferred to let her go at her own pace."

ATLAS THINKING

"My hand crept down her cheeks, waiting for a positive or negative reaction. However, she simply let me do it after moaning quietly."

NAYA (smirking)

"I can feel your cock throbbing against me, y'know? If you're that hard already, I'm worried about how long you're going to last."

ATLAS

"What can I say? You're hot; I can't control what happens down there due to that."

#Naya pushes him on the bed, coming on top of him, nibbling his neck.

ATLAS

"That was the first time a woman tried to take the lead from the get-go with me."

NAYA

"How does it feel?"

"Different."

NAYA

"I'm sure you're aware that I wasn't expecting this answer... I'll try to make you say it."

ATLAS (smiling)

"Try it."

#She straightens up and sits on him; she removes his underpants and starts jerking him off while doing the same with herself.

NAYA

"Tell me if I'm doing it wrongly..."

#Atlas doesn't answer and lets her do what she started.

ATLAS THINKING

"For a first time, she puts her heart into it. I can feel her tense a bit when she touches herself... but as much as I want to do it myself, it's not my time to shine."

ATLAS THINKING

"As the beginning of a hot sensation builds up in my groin, I can slightly hear the sound of her finger crossing the pass of her slit, getting wetter and wetter with each passing second."

ATLAS THINKING

"Her breathing becomes heavier, her attack on my cock becomes slower, leaving me wanting more."

NAYA (lightly panting)

"Seems like I'm good to go."

#Naya grabs his cock and takes it inside her.

ATLAS

"You're tight... Don't you want to use a condom?"

NAYA

"You already know that werewolves can't get pregnant if not in heat, so we can be a bit wild..."

"One never knows for sure, better safe than sorry."

#She puts her index on his lips with a smile as she starts to move slowly. She puts her other hand on his chest to keep herself in place.

NAYA (smiling)

"Shh. Don't ruin the moment with your unnecessary comments."

#She now brings the hand on his lips to his chest and speeds up the pace a little.

ATLAS THINKING

"The sight of her slowly moving breasts is almost hypnotic, making me want to suck on them, fondle them, even as she speeds up, their bouncing is a delightful dance."

ATLAS THINKING

"And as she does this, I can feel each of her twitching around my shaft, as if trying to match its shape and form."

ATLAS THINKING

"Her movements are sometimes too ample, bringing out my cock from her slit, and she plunges it gently again."

#Naya speeds up the pace as she straightens up a bit to have a better grasp at what she can do with her body and moves forwards and backward (see what you can do, I don't know if making a 3D animation of this is possible).

"You know how to do it for someone inexperienced, not that I mind, of course."

NAYA

"I don't need training or experience to know how to use my body for charity purposes."

ATLAS (smiling and straightening back to a sitting position, with Naya on his lap)

"Charity purposes? Let me show you some charity then."

#He pushes her on the bed to make her lie down and puts his two hands on each side of her head, arm stretched.

"Kiss me."

"No, you're a bad puppy after all."

"Here you go again-"

#Atlas starts to touch her clit, as she spreads her legs. She bites her index finger while watching him.

#After some time, he starts to fuck her by raising her hips with a pillow (I don't know if you have the stuff to do this, but having sex in this position without raising the hips of the girl is a tad "trickier," so just do it as you can, here what I'm talking about, since I don't think I explained it adequately: this or this).

"Gosh... Fuck me harder... You stopped me just to make me crave; that's a douche move."

ATLAS

"I wouldn't say that."

#He kissed her for a second and gradually sped up the pace.

"Yeah... that's the spot..."

ATLAS

"Feeling good already?"

NAYA

"I was already horny way before the end of the game because of you..."

ATLAS (nibbling her neck for an instant)

"Oh, I turn you on that much? Then you will have to beg for me to continue."

#He stops his movement and looks directly at Naya in the eyes.

ATLAS THINKING

"I tried a gamble to judge how willing she was to play this little game with me. I know that her animalistic characteristics are helping, but that's what makes it fun."

ATLAS

"So, will you? I have enough self-control to stop even if I want you more than anything right now."

#Naya first looks a bit annoyed at Atlas's word, but she ends up smiling and grabs him by the neck to force him to lie down on her. She locks his neck in an embrace and looks at him in the eyes, once again.

NAYA

"Please fuck me... I beg of you. We don't have much time, so please, go wild and fuck me silly."

ATLAS

"Now, this is good wording."

#Naya bends her knee, still lying on her back, and then Atlas goes back to going back and forth with his hips, but he goes faster than before while fondling one of her breasts.

"Your cock is just perfect..."

ATLAS

"I noticed thanks to how much you try to squeeze me."

ATLAS THINKING

"Every time my prick pushes into her, it's as if she's trying to suck out whatever cum I might have in me, like a vortex of pleasure."

ATLAS THINKING

"Sliding in and out is no problem as her love juice begins to flow down her pussy. Each penetration making her shiver thanks to the new sensations make me want to go even harder."

"Ah! Fuck! I'm... gonna cum soon..."

ATLAS

"Let it come then, don't fight it; I want to see how lewd you can be when it happens."

NAYA (smiling)

"You're a perv."

ATLAS THINKING

"Despite her comments, she actively tried to push me on the edge with how much she gripped against my shaft. As her breathing became more erratic, I also knew that it was our last line before stopping."

ATLA THINKING

"Naya looked at me with the eye of a demanding puppy asking for a treat before putting one of her hands at the back of my head."

"Show me what you got for the final act..."

#Atlas smiles as Naya locks her legs around him. He kisses her and cranks up the pace, making Naya bend her back.

ATLAS THINKING

"She was making some lewd noise but tried to hide them, so I did my best to let her moan slip through this barrier she still tried to keep."

ATLAS THINKING

"I gladly pounded her harder as she asked while trying to find her G-spot with my cock, since the position was made for this kinda thing. She wavered soon enough."

"Haaa...! Shit! You got it... That feels amazing..."

ATLAS THINKING

"As I rammed my dick into her again, it made a somewhat loud wet sound, and her whole body trembled. She still wanted to say something, but she stopped as her nails scratched my back."

ATLAS

"Haa... I'm close."

"Do it! Creampie me... Haaa... Don't hold back!"

ATLAS THINKING

"It was getting harder to move since of the busy days and lack of sleep, but I did my best to pleasure her as her hold became almost suffocating."

ATLAS THINKING

"She tried to fight it for a few seconds, but her efforts were destroyed fast as I caressed her clits, freeing her of her last barrier."

NAYA

"Fuck... I'm cumming! Haha! Gosh... Just a bit more..."

ATLAS THINKING

"While she was still orgasming, trying to keep up with the sensation, I continued pounding her, don't hold back just as she told me, making sure to drench her pussy with my cum."

ATLAS THINKING

"I didn't try to fight it and let the sensation engulf me. Still coping with her orgasm, her pussy contracted hard enough to slow my ejaculation, making me even hornier."

"Haaa... Fuck... That was something else..."

#Atlas places his two hands on both sides of her head. She put her arms from around Atlas to let them fall on either side of her.

"Indeed, that was another type of experience... I haven't had an orgasm like that ever before..."

ATLAS

"Glad to be the first one to make you come like this."

#She pinches his nose.

"Don't say embarrassing stuff like this."

#Atlas lies down next to her, not completely limps.

"You're still lively down there."

ATLAS

"My friend below is never satisfied with one salvo, but we don't have time to do much more today. You've got your pack to deal with."

ATLAS

"However... I clearly want to do that again during the next few weeks."

NAYA (smirking)

"Hahaha! One salvo! Now, I can also see that you're kinda demanding. Is that what Leyala deals with?"

ATLAS (shrugging)

"Of course, you three became too important for me to hide my needs. Is that bad in any way?"

NAYA

"That's sexy and a bit clingy if you ask me, don't be like that with Kali, or she will freak out. But it's fine for me; you can be however you want; I'm not picky."

#She sits on the sofa and looks at the clock/phone hour.

NAYA

"Now, if you want a tip, sex during the full moon is something else too- (pause) Oh shit! It's already this late! I have duties to attend to; look at what you did!"

"You were the one who started this little game."

#She smiles broadly while putting her chest forward, as she is proud of herself.

NAYA

"Haha! I know, I know, I'm just messing with you. But for now, we better speed up to go... and... and air out the living room, otherwise the girls will know where we did it."

ATLAS (handing her her clothing)

"Smart move indeed. Here are your clothes, just go. I still have some time before going; I will do the rest."

#She put her clothing back on, looking at the clock/phone hour.

NAYA (smiling)

"Thank you. Also, don't forget to see if we soiled the sofa while doing it; you may find some dirt, or worse! Crumbs."

ATLAS (rolling eye)

"That's so funny; I'm hilarious. Same two jokes."

NAYA (smirking)

"I know, I'm the most talented comedian around town. And as the most talented one, I have duties to attend to, so I'll leave you to it."

ATLAS

"Whatever... I like cleaning anyway."

#She goes to the toilet to clean herself.

ATLAS THINKING

"She got me this time..."

Third Update

#Leyala & Kali are in Lucius' room as he searches through some folders. He's focused on something else but looks at them with a book/notebook in his hand. Before sitting, he raises his gaze toward Kali.

LUCIUS

"For starters, I want to know your opinion about the situation concerning the Witches. What are your ideas on how to handle the issue? No need to rush the matter; I want your honest insight."

KALI

"If honesty is what you look for, then I would say that I'm a fan of the carrot-and-stick policy. Applying pressure while giving a reward in return. However, it doesn't seem to bother Arianne."

"So the best thing would be, in my opinion, to take advantage of the alliance with the demons to capture a witch and use her as a bargaining chip; the Queen's sister would be a good idea for this plan."

"Maybe it would work, but the problems between their kingdoms and ours would only worsen afterward. I don't think it's in our best interest to add fuel to the fire."

LUCIUS

"So what do you propose, Leyala?"

LEYALA

"Asking for a popular opinion in the Witches' Kingdom, they're several billion; we could find help among these people. Even if they would be few, it's the minorities that build the world, for good or evil."

LEYALA

"An idea spreads like wildfire, using the argument that their children are in danger if they don't have access to enough residual magic would make their people react to a threat that isn't even confirmed."

LEYALA

"To calm the people, the Queen would either be forced to prove that the rumor was false, which would take a long time, or calm the people quickly by accepting the deal that was proposed."

#Lucius and Kali looked at her a bit surprised. Lucius smiles proudly, but Kali rolls her eyes.

KALI

"You're even more extreme than I am, and yet I'm still seen as the most vicious."

LUCIUS

"You're not vicious, just hot-headed and quick-witted, while your sister is more thoughtful and pragmatic. To each their own qualities."

KALI

"I'm not hot-headed."

LUCIUS

"We will have to work on your emotion management."

"Tsk!"

#Lucius turns back from Kali to Leyala with a little sigh, but then he smiles at his daughter.

LUCIUS

"Your strategy was on point Leyala, it's one of our solutions, but it can create havoc inside their rank; we don't want to disrupt them..."

LEYALA

"Isn't the benefit-risk ratio positive?"

LUCIUS

"It would be if my past decisions when I was bewitched didn't hurt them, but now, if they find that the Terran created false information to force their Queen to accept a deal against the will of her people..."

LUCIUS

"You can be almost sure that they would want a war."

KALI

"We should be able to shred them, right? That would just be suicide to declare war."

LUCIUS

"In terms of numbers, our realm has 8 billion people, of which 7,800,000,000 are humans; that's less than 200 million vampires and werewolves, without talking about our rivalry."

LUCIUS

"Next to that, the Witches Kingdom has 3 billion people, with each the capacity to use magic, ranging from black magic to voodoo or even druidism."

LUCIUS

"They can attack without us noticing; it would take us some time to detect it. They strike from a distance; we strike in hand-to-hand fights; if they attack first, they have the advantage."

#Leyala holds her head with her hand as Kali stretches on her chair.

"Yeah, even if we win, the damage will remain, and it will be a hard blow for everyone. On top of that, the peeps would question the royalty, and revolts are to be avoided."

LUCIUS

"Exactly, that's what I'm talking about. That's why as a ruler, you have to think not only for your people but also for yourself and the nobilities. Each lord can give you their own 'bonus,' so cherish them."

KALI (by raising an eyebrow)

"Cherish people who were born with silver spoons in their mouths, huh... I would have a hard time doing that."

LUCIUS

"Put your ego away for a minute and listen to what your instinct tells you. Your sprite blood should allow you to do that even more easily than for Leyala or me."

"So you're hinting at the fact that the decision one has to make in this situation is to show a good facade to his people to get their praise...?"

LUCIUS

"Indeed, that's what I've been doing since I came back. Meeting with syndicates, the representatives of middle-class families, the associations for new vampires and the lords."

LUCIUS

"Syndicates put you in a good light if they like you. Rebuilding your image is important to avoid negative criticism. Meet with newcomers to find new recruits, etc."

LUCIUS

"And of course the Lords, for funding and military aid. If we implicitly show to the Witches that our army is defending its borders and ready to go, it will go against what Arianne thinks."

LUCIUS

"Since she thinks we're feeble right now, she allows herself some whims; if we show her that we're not, she will think about it again."

"You want to go to the Witches kingdom yourself, right?"

LUCIUS

"Yes, to see me directly will surprise her. Sadly, Atlas lacks the authority that I have; I may be able to talk with her. With everything backing me up, it might work, but Ba'el is another worrisome matter."

LUCIUS

"That's why we need to investigate this first."

#Kali leans back in her chair and crosses her arms.

KALI

"Jesus... It's far too hypocritical for me to buy into. I prefer to assume my ideals and my thoughts by charging headlong into the enemy."

LUCIUS

"That's why you and Leyala make a good duo. You are two different people with the same soul; you echo each other, so listen to what the other has to say, you two."

LEYALA (smiling, looking at Kali)

"Of course, even if Kali doesn't make it easy."

KALI (exasperated)

"Whatever."

#Lucius pushed the book he picked up earlier toward them.

LUCIUS

"To finish with this lesson, the book that you need to read concerning this topic is 'The Prince' from Nicollo Machiavelli. It's not essential, but a fine addition to your knowledge."

KALI

"I know this dude... I'm sure I heard his name somewhere."

LEYALA

"I hope you know his name, yeah... He's a famous man of the Middle Age."

LUCIUS

"Just take a look at the book and see if you have any interest in it. This human understood the mechanisms of power better than any politician leading today's human society."

KALI (taking the book)

"If you say so."

#Kali put her elbow on the table after looking at the book for a while. She starts talking while looking at it.

KALI

"Isn't it a little dangerous to let Leyala hang around the Witch Queen? From the way she's acting, I'm sure she's a cunt playing with people as she wants."

KALI

"Leyala has not awakened her vampire or sprite power; if Arianne is that good of a witch, isn't it possible that she can mess things up because of this?"

#Lucius looks at Leyala for an instant and switches to Kali with a serious expression, both his hands joined together.

LUCIUS

"Being in constant contact with vampires will most likely do the trick; it will probably awaken her power soon enough, but in the case, it doesn't work, I'll feed her some of my blood."

"Waiting too long would indeed put her in danger, you're right."

#Leyala turns her head to the side with a worried expression.

LUCIUS

"I know you don't like the idea, but I prefer doing this than letting my daughter run in the wild with no real means to protect herself."

LEYALA

"I know, that's not the problem..."

LUCIUS (after the pause, he switches his gaze toward the table)

"Then let me know. (pause) ...When you're ready to talk about it."

LUCIUS

"Anyway, it's the end of this session; you can dismiss if you want to, I won't take more of your time. You both did well."

#Kali stands up, followed by Leyala, but she stops and scratches the back of her head.

"C-Can we spend some time together to talk and get to know each other more? Talking about lectures and politics won't really bridge the gap between us, I'm afraid..."

#Kali looks at her a bit annoyed, but she gives her a very slight smile, as Lucius looks almost shocked, but as soon as Leyala turns toward him, he collects himself.

"Of course, if you think it's beneficial for us, I won't protest against it."

#Kali sits on the table as Leyala goes back to sitting on her chair.

LUCIUS

"Please don't sit on the table."

KALI

"..All right."

#She goes back to sitting on her chair with a tired expression; she addresses a thoughtful gaze to Leyala.

LEYALA

"So... I guess we're still strangers even if we do things together since it's not really something that allows us to... talk."

LUCIUS (looking somewhere else)

"Sorry if what I've been doing since we met didn't meet your expectations; I only want to give you the knowledge that would allow you to strive even better than I did."

LEYALA

"It's not a problem; it'll come in handy one day. (pause) I was wondering what you were doing outside of work, Atlas told me that you used to have more time for yourself, but that hasn't been the case for a while, so..."

LUCIUS

"Ah, yes, it's been a long time since I've sat down for a drink with friends. I used to hunt with humans, but my hunting license must have expired."

KALI

"So actually, outside of work, you don't do much."

LUCIUS

"I sometimes play chess with some lords; I read books on psychology, war and I like astronomy."

LEYALA

"Don't you do something that allows you to unwind...?"

LUCIUS

"It's maybe just me, but unwinding is the first step toward laziness, so I prefer to always stay in motion, even if it's only in my head."

#Kali leans back on her chair, almost going limp and "sliding" on it as if she was going to slump to the ground. She keeps a serious expression, but it's clearly visible that she is bored.

#Leyala looks at her with insistence.

"What?"

LEYALA (turning back to Lucius)

"...Nothing. (pause) To be fair, I somehow am the same; right now, it's a bit hard to think about unwinding, but as soon as I can, I will go to a bar to drink a good daiquiri."

LUCIUS

"Drinking alcohol isn't good for you."

KALI

"If that's all you have to say?"

#There is a slight pause where Lucius doesn't say anything but appears annoyed at Kali's behavior.

LEYALA (smiling)

"That's not a big deal; I've been an adult for more years than I would like to be..."

LEYALA

"I never drank to the point of being drunk, though. I have no problem regulating myself, so you don't have to worry... (pause) I wouldn't mind having a drink and a chat with you two when we have time."

#Leyala looks at Kali again, frowning a bit. Kali rolls her eyes discreetly by straightening up on her chair.

KALI (seeing that Leyala still look at her, she continues)

"...I wouldn't mind."

KALI

"Even if I like a good margarita, I doubt they will have my favorite drink, though."

"What's this drink?"

KALI

"Tears of annoying and cocky enemies."

"That was just like you, edgy."

KALI (shrugging)

"Whatever, I don't give a fuck about your opinion on my favorite drink."

LUCIUS

"Talk to us with more respect, please; this is all I ask... I know you're... sistering out, or something, but still..."

KALI (by raising an eyebrow)

"Did you hear that from Naya or Atlas?"

#Lucius sighs and slumps down a bit on his chair before turning to Leyala, seemingly trying to find something to say.

LUCIUS

"I guess you started drinking where you grew up. I don't remember talking about the country you lived in before; maybe we can do this now."

LEYALA THINKING

"He's so awkward even with his questions..."

LEYALA

"It was in London; I grew up there. If I remember correctly, it was in a pub with my best friend Becky and her boyfriend; they're both humans. I hope one day to see them again."

KALI

"If they haven't broken up."

"You are..."

#Kali crosses her arm with a proud little smile, turning her head slightly to the side.

LUCIUS

"Growing up in England and especially London is a feat in itself."

LUCIUS (slight smile)

"By the way, do you know the Queen knows about our existence? Once, she was given special gifts in exchange for her silence, which is why she's so old but still alive and lively."

KALI (brightening up)

"Now that's the kind of info I fancy. The most far-fetched conspiracy theories have not thought of this one. Now I just have to create a Reddit thread and-"

LEYALA (containing a laugh)

"Pff! Shut it; you sound like Atlas when you say that kind of idiotic stuff."

KALI

"I'm like Atlas now? No, I don't think so, sorry, Miss."

LUCIUS

"I agree with Leyala; you and Atlas have more in common than you seem to think."

LEYALA THINKING

"I managed to make them talk, more than growing up in London, this is what I call a real feat... That said, my brain is in turmoil... I need to find a new topic... (pause) quick!"

LUCIUS

"I sometimes need to go to England to meet with other European lords that can't move to Italy; maybe you could accompany me some time to see your friends."

LEYALA (smiling and after the pause: thoughtful, her hand on her chin)

"Really?! Well, it might be a nice idea, Kali could accompany us, showing her the city I grew up in is a great idea and- (pause) Ah... My foster family is around there... I don't want them to see me..."

KALI

"Yeah, I somehow heard from you last time that they were violent. Not that I don't want to visit your homeland, I like tourism, you see, but you're sensitive, I don't wanna have to comfort you if something happens."

#Kali suddenly opens her eyes wide, putting her hands in front of her mouth.

KALI (looking at the other end of the room)

"Oopsie."

#Lucius looks at Kali first, raising his eyebrows, interested. Kali doesn't say anything, so he switches to Leyala.

LUCIUS

"Your foster family was abusive toward you? What did they exactly do?"

LEYALA (tense smile)

"I-It's nothing to worry about, it wasn't that much of an issue anyway, and I kinda forgot about them, so..."

LUCIUS

"If they wronged you, they need to encounter the result of their actions. You reap what you sow, right? To let people who have committed sins go unpunished is to partake of that sin."

LEYALA

"'There's no need to stir up dry soil during rainy days' is another saying of the same kind. There is really no need to-"

LUCIUS

"They're in England, huh..."

LEYALA

"Please don't."

LUCIUS

"So, they used violence against you during your childhood, and you want me to stay still when these humans are still living their best life?"

LEYALA

"Don't worry about it; I got out of this mess myself a long time ago, no need to add fuel to the fire."

LUCIUS

"It's not that easy. If someone learns that you were abused, it will undermine the trust that people place in you when I introduce you. To let people know that your former-"

LEYALA

"I beg of you, don't interfere with them. They might be bad people; they still are the ones who gave me a roof, something to eat... when you weren't there. So please, stop talking about this."

#Lucius is a bit surprised and hurt by her words, so he crosses his arm and stops looking at her.

"Okay... but someday..."

#He stops talking and gets up from his chair, his arms stretched and hands on the table with a somewhat angry gaze.

KALI

"I almost feel like I'm in a theater. I listen and observe. I analyze and scrutinize while I can't go out because one girl blocks the path. But now that act 1 is over, can I go pee now?"

#Leyala and Lucius smile (Lucius still looking at the table).

"If you hadn't opened your mouth, it might not have lasted as long."

KALI

"Next time, I won't just try to sit on the table; I'll pee on it to assert my dominance and show you that if I want to go, I have my fucking reason."

"Haha! You're flawed sometimes."

"Flawed, me? Be realistic."

#Lucius looks at them before looking at the book on the table next to Kali (from Machiavelli). He closes his eyelids and sighs.

#Fade to black?

#Atlas is walking in the estate buried in his thoughts. Zyair and Tasha call out to him, but he doesn't hear/see them.

"Hey! Ya Atlas! You hear me, pal?"

ATLAS

"Ah...? Hey, my bad, I'm overthinking lately."

TASHA

"We pretty much saw this. You seem quite preoccupied these days, not that it's unjustified, but you should take a breather."

"Yeah, everybody tells me this."

"So what about hanging out for a bit? Sounds good?"

"Sure, why not? I was mainly wandering in the open anyway."

#The 3 of them start walking together.

"You're a hard man to get a hold of. As volatile as air itself, one moment you're there, 2 minutes later, we're looking for you, but you're in another realm."

ATLAS

"I know, sorry, Lucius gave me some work since he came back. Not just small tasks, so..."

ZYAIR (elbowing him)

"All good; it's not like I really missed you anyway."

TASHA

"Well, you know, except for the favor you asked me for about the two Chinese vampires, I thought you had forgotten we existed, I almost cried."

ATLAS

"I can see the sadness in your eyes; it tells me that you're lying. Otherwise, be reassured, I could never forget my fourth favorite girl. That would be too cruel."

TASHA

"Oh my, what happened? I fell so much into the ranking in a matter of weeks. Scary."

ATLAS

"One can't stay at the top for eternity."

"When you're talking like this, you make me feel old."

"We all are a bit old, though."

"Speak for yourself."

"I feel like my age is something that seems to be one of the main topics discussed these days."

ZYAIR

"If it can make you feel better, we're just two centuries apart."

TASHA

"Haha! Just two!"

#They go to sit on a bench somewhere nearby (it seems better like this, but if you don't have the stuff to do it, let them stand and talk in a quiet area).

ZYAIR

"I'm fucking tired... To be more precise, I feel like a sack of shit. Don't you know about you, but I need to travel and meet people all around the country to recruit new people..."

"Plus, we eat some disgusting Italian and French during our trips."

"You have absolutely no taste; this is becoming evident."

ZYAIR

"You should try it then."

TASHA (annoyed expression)

"...Yay, it's complaining time!"

ATLAS THINKING

"I didn't think I would talk about this with them since they don't like to talk about work, but it was Zyair who started speaking about the situation and all the mess that it is."

ATLAS THINKING

"Tasha didn't seem thrilled, but as usual, she keeps up with him in his rants, and I end up doing the same."

ATLAS THINKING

"Zyair's brigade apparently had been too busy for several weeks to take breaks. Fortunately for him, he had the advantage of being the leader."

ATLAS THINKING

"They seem to be studying the Sunlight sword to see what we can do with it. As for Tasha, she didn't have much to say about Mei and Ling Guo since she hardly had time to watch them."

#Zyair stretches his back after yawning.

"The other time, we were surprised to hear that you had finally found your bond-mate or bond-mates, I should say. After the failed marriages of yours, we had lost hope."

ATLAS

"Yeah, it also surprised me. More than just a bond-mate, I'm bonded to three people. It kinda weirded me out at first since I always had trouble getting close to people..."

"That's not new; you've been like this since I first met you."

ATLAS

"I don't even know how long it took me to consider you a friend, but it's best if you don't know."

TASHA

"You're an asshole sometimes; I guess that's part of your charm."

"That's not new either. At this point, I'm used to it."

ATLAS

"Despite that, with the three of them, it just feels natural. My defiance disappears, and I can think and talk to them freely. It's still weird to me..."

ZYAIR

"Am I seeing the extremely rare sight of a sappy Atlas?"

TASHA

"Come on, don't make him feel uncomfortable! It would be silly to ruin the moment since it's cute."

#Atlas looks at Zyair in the eyes as Tasha raises an eyebrow, an amused smile on her face.

"I won't let you bully me with your toxic masculinity, pal; you should be careful if you don't want to get your ass spanked."

TASHA

"Oh? This is a bit gay, doesn't it? I wouldn't mind seeing that. Some boy love never hurts."

ZYAIR (sighing)

"Keep your fantasies for yourself."

"Hahaha!"

ATLAS (at the pause, Zyair change expression to one of boredom)

"Anyway, you're just jealous because Tolkien was inspired by me to create Aragorn. (pause) A manly, kind, affectionate, humble man not afraid of his emotions."

ZYAIR (rolling his eyes)

"Ugh, please not again, I heard too many times. One more time, and I'm gonna go crazy."

#Tasha hid her face with one of her hands, leaning forward with a broad smile as if ready to laugh.

ATLAS

"The writer probably based his entire story on what I told him about the realm-"

ZYAIR

"And it's because of what you told him about the elves that he made different races of them. Now please, I beg your mercy, don't talk about it anymore."

ATLAS (index finger pointing up)

"Well, to give more precision-"

"By all the Saints, what did I do to deserve this..."

ATLAS (smiling)

"He kinda changed what I told him about the dragons, but he kept the main issue every realm had with them-"

ZYAIR

"Arh... You're so fucking annoying when you want to be-"

#Tasha put her hand on Zyair's mouth, who looked at her with visible incomprehension.

TASHA (looking at Atlas, blocking the views he had of Zyair. She also removed her hand from Zyair face)

"What about the two other girls? I mean, the one I haven't met nor seen. Well, you know me, I'm curious."

ATLAS

"You mean Kali and Naya then. Right now, what I learned by being close to them is that Kali is one of the impulsive types; she's kinda more Sprite than Vampire even if she's ¾ vampires."

TASHA (amused smile)

"You talk about her as if she's a Pokemon."

"..."

TASHA

"Whatever, continue as if I didn't say anything."

ATLAS

"Ruthless as she is, it's not hard to see that she's Lucius' daughter; she tends to advocate violence first, talk later. That's just like him as he was during the last centuries."

ATLAS

"And even if she's far from her full potential, she's insanely powerful. It's almost concerning when you realize that with only ¼ Sprite blood, she has marking unheard before."

ATLAS

"That said, I can see that she cares about the people close to her... She acts way more harshly with strangers."

TASHA

"Do I have to worry then?"

"No, no, if she meets you, she will probably say that she doesn't give a fuck about you and that you can do anything as long as it doesn't piss her off."

TASHA

"Lovely. (pause) What about the other dudette? I hope she's a bit more agreeable, or I will struggle to find topics to talk about."

ATLAS

"You won't have to worry about her in the slightest; Naya is way more composed; now that I think about it, you're alike."

TASHA

"Oh, nice, she must be perfect then."

"Vanity overdose."

TASHA (slight smile, joking around)

"Shut up, YOU. You're just blind to my numerous qualities. Now, if she's like me, I guess she's also confident, pretty, and funny."

ATLAS

"I don't know about the funny part concerning you, but she makes some good jokes here and there. She wants to appear tough, but she's vulnerable, more than she wants people to think she is."

ATLAS

"It's also evident that she will be more powerful than Kali someday. That's an impressive feat for a werewolf, to give an example: she will soon be able to move at my speed."

"That's quite the achievement, indeed. Training with you surely unlocked something in her."

ATLAS

"It would be a lie to say that it is only due to me. She trains with Kali, which allows both of them to progress at high speed. They make a good duet."

ATLAS

"Naya softens Kali's hard edges with her innocence while Kali helps her become what she fears to be by encouraging her in... all ways possible. Sometimes a bit brutal."

TASHA

"That's some inspiring shit. I feel like they will become known, somehow. I can't wait to meet them."

ATLAS

"It will happen soon anyway. No need to rush it."

"You're the one who depicts them as amazing people, not me."

#Naya appears at the other end of the place, firstly looking away but then looking at them.

ATLAS

"Well, speak of the devil. It seems like I summoned you by talking about you."

"Huh? This is a bit suspicious; what did you..."

#She turns towards Tasha and Zyair with a smile.

NAYA

"Please don't believe anything he said about me unless it's a compliment. That said, even if it was one, he probably toned it down, just so you know."

ZYAIR (turning to Tasha)

"He was right, you seem to be alike, and that pains me."

TASHA

"That's perfect! Glad to meet you, Naya, we were just talking about you 'cause I'm a bit curious. I'm Natasha, and this is my bond-mate Zyair."

"Heya, miss, nice to meet you."

"Just call me Naya; no formal terms with me, please."

ZYAIR

"I'm following the standards I've been told to adhere to for two millennia. I'd rather keep it that way if you don't mind. As the bond-mate of Lucius' daughter, it requires me to do so."

NAYA (uneasy smile)

"All right, I'll let you get accustomed to me first then. (pause) Since you're here, can I ask you something?"

ZYAIR

"Yes, of course; what is it?"

NAYA

"If I'm not mistaken, your mother is in charge of the African continent. Atlas told me so. I wanted to know if having a meeting with her to talk about the werewolves on her territory was possible."

NAYA

"So... I was wondering if it would be okay."

"As I told you, even if my mom didn't want to, she would be obligated to accept since you're mate, Kali is Lucius' successor."

"Well, I don't want to disrespect her or be entitled. She's been an ally for a long time; forcing things isn't the way to go. Everyone needs the respect they deserve."

#Zyair looks at her straight in the eyes, a bit baffled, but he ends up sighing with a smile.

"That's rare. To be honest, I'm surprised; young people tend to be ruthless rulers, but you seem like a considerate and thoughtful one."

NAYA

"It's the only way to achieve cohesion and peace between vampires and werewolves in the future, so I'm doing my best to be what I preached."

ZYAIR

"Why not then? I'm not against the idea. I'll book this meeting for her since she's quite busy. I can also attend this meeting since I'll inherit her position sooner or later; what do you think, Miss?"

"Seems fair to me."

#Atlas frowns and looks at the ground, both his hands on his knees.

ATLAS

"Take this opportunity to tell your mother that we need her army. I'll take care of the paperwork so that everything is in order. As for you, Tasha, do you know if your father is going to court anytime soon?"

"Yes, if I remember well, he's coming in a few days, but why do you need both an army and Enforcers?"

ATLAS

"America may be stabilized, but we need to show what happens when people are dumb enough to defy the crown. This is intimidation."

"It sounds like a barbaric attempt to demonstrate the power of an already powerful kingdom; I don't know if that's really necessary, but well..."

ATLAS

"You saw with Xiao Long that it wasn't enough to stop him. He's not the only one who wants the crown; people sometimes need an advertisement to avoid the harsh punishment."

"I just feel like it will exacerbate the envy of these people."

ATLAS

"Everything we do will exacerbate their envy. That's why they need a Damocles sword over their heads; it's just a short-term fix while we recover from what's happened."

ATLAS

"I need the Enforcers to look for someone to rule over America..."

ATLAS THINKING

"...Zyair would be the best solution, but his role here is too important to let him go away like this for an indeterminate period. As a commander, his presence is necessary."

ATLAS (looking at Tasha)

"Cain would be the best choice we have, but I didn't see him in court for a long time. I need your father to investigate this, Tasha."

ATLAS

"And we need the African army because the Witch Queen is being shady. From what I've seen, she's not afraid of Lucius at all; she also seems to think that her army can take over us."

"Seems like the hoe needs a little reminder."

NAYA

"Is Lucius really that powerful? Everyone talks about him like he's some kind of powerhouse, so I'm wondering."

"Hmm... good question. In his prime, he could probably crush one-third of her army; magic may be strong, but if a true vampire is fueled by the need to kill, it's almost useless."

"Then why is an army needed..."

ATLAS

"He's been dormant for four hundred years; him still being alive is something close to a miracle, even more than this since he's still able to fight, but it's not enough; he's really weakened."

ATLAS

"As he is right now, he's not the most powerful entity in the seven realms. If people realize this, it would be bad for everyone."

"I know; you already said that."

ATLAS

"So... using the army will cause fewer casualties in the Witches kingdom, making it look as if we care-"

"When in fact, we're just trying to hide Lucius' state, huh."

ATLAS

"The main idea is that if we use our army, that will cause more casualties, and so, slow the pace at which we'll locate Ophelia. It would weaken us and open our defense for an enemy attack."

NAYA

"Did the seven realms ever know a moment of calm?"

"Maybe during its creation after the Big Bang, yeah."

"Doesn't doing nothing also make us look weak? Other realms could see this as a reason to launch an assault toward us, right?"

ATLAS

"That's exactly why we need to do this."

NAYA

"I see... We all are treading on thin ice."

ATLAS

"We need to think about our next move, but I believe in Lucius' knowledge and experience to make the final choice."

ATLAS

"If it doesn't go well, I may need to do this myself, though."

ZYAIR

"Don't think about this; let's just go to the bar and drink some random cocktail to do something other than mental-masturbating ourselves for no good reason."

ATLAS

"Why not."

"Stop saying these two words and move your ass already, I don't want to talk anymore about work, or I'll die."

"You know a decent bar around here? Last time I checked to go out with Kali, I found nothing interesting..."

TASHA

"We have some quasi-secret addresses with the best bartenders around Italy. If you want to come back with her, you just have to say that you're Natasha's friend. They'll let you in."

NAYA (after the pause, she talk to Atlas)

"I'll remember this, thanks. (pause) Why didn't you tell us what good places are around here, 'cause of this, Kali never wants to leave the sofa when she has some free time..."

#Tasha and Zyair are already walking away from them without looking back.

"Because none of you asked me."

#She looks at him with an annoyed gaze but ends up cutting her annoyance with a movement of the hand and takes his hand to force him off the bench (if no bench, she simply takes him by the arm to make him move faster).

"...Forget it. Let's follow them."

#Time skip. Atlas enters his apartment and stops in front of the living room. Leyala and Kali are watching TV, but they look at him as he enters the room.

KALI (by raising an eyebrow)

"We haven't waited for you to eat- (pause) You killed her or what?"

ATLAS

"She's only dead-drunk."

KALI

"From how she snores, it sounds like it's true. (pause) The reason why I don't go to drink with her is that she's out way too fast. It's bad for her."

ATLAS

"She didn't tell me any of this. She pretty much enjoyed drinking from what I've seen; after three drinks, she was spacing out, though."

"And?"

"And she slumped at the fourth one."

#She comes to check on Naya while Leyala is still sitting on the sofa.

KALI

"It's not that serious; in a few hours, her metabolism will have suppressed all the alcohol in her blood. It's one of the werewolves' perks."

LEYALA

"This discussion reminds me of what we talked about with Lu- Dad. The whole thing about Daiquiri, Margarita, and tears of your enemies, that's a strange coincidence."

ATLAS

"Talking about Lucius, how did your meeting with him go?"

KALI

"I cringed my ass off."

LEYALA

"If you tried to talk more, it wouldn't have been so awkward."

ATLAS

"You tried to have some kind of daughters-father talk?"

LEYALA

"Yeah... it was a bit... um... uneasy? But since you warned me it was okay, I wasn't really shocked at how difficult it is for him to open up or even discuss random things with us."

KALI

"It wasn't only difficult if you want my opinion..."

ATLAS

"Don't try to go at his pace; you can force his hand a little with this; he won't mind. It's not like he doesn't understand what you're trying to do."

KALI

"I don't mind either about this whole family issue, not for now at least. We waited for you two to come back, so if we can now go to sleep, it would be very cool."

KALI

"Can we?"

"Yeah, yeah."

#Atlas goes toward the bedroom as Leyala turns off the TV and joins them. As he stops, he gives her back to Kali; she nods and enters her room.

KALI

"Night."

"See you tomorrow."

#Leyala is behind him, at the door of their bedroom.

LEYALA

"You're good? You seem a bit worn out?"

ATLAS

"I'm okay, I just need something to refresh me a bit, I also drank a bit when I was with Zyair and Tasha, so I'm still fuzzy."

"What do you want to do? Go out to take a cold breather?"

ATLAS

"It's hardly cold outside; it won't help even a bit. I'll go take a shower."

"Want me to come? I'm feeling a bit adventurous tonight."

#As he's already coming to the bathroom, Leyala follows him.

"So?"

"I'm a tad moribund, but maybe you can push the right buttons to get me up and running again."

LEYALA

"Pff! Moribund! Who still uses this word but you! Haha!"

"Are you here to laugh at me or take a shower?"

LEYALA

"Don't be like that; I'm coming; you don't need to be all grumpy. Do you realize you're touchy when you're even just a bit tired?"

ATLAS (standing in the door dial)

"...I know, yeah. Anyway, what do you want to do in the shower? I need some help picturing what you're looking for."

LEYALA

"Something new, maybe? I'm not at ease with everything, but I'm up to trying some random experience. I'm sure you understand what I mean; now scoot over, please."

#Atlas moves to let her enter the room and closes the door afterward. Without talking, he undresses while looking at Leyala and goes into the shower, followed by her soon after (dunno if it's a shower or a bathtub, but I'm assuming it's easier to find some 3D shower model). Also, since it might be hard to render water (maybe you can actually do it), maybe try to do it only by rendering, not animation.

"So, that's a refreshing water temperature... It should do, right?"

ATLAS

"No, I don't think so; I'm almost sure the water is almost boiling."

"It's just a bit hot, don't overdo it."

ATLAS

"Women and the water they use being just being "a little hot." I bet you can cook pasta with it, but it's all good, I guess."

"Not my fault if you can't cope with a 122 F° shower."

ATLAS

"Like it's normal. At one point in my life, I was cleaning myself by jumping into a river at 41 F°..."

LEYALA

"Welcome to the 21st century; we have hot water."

#Atlas pushes her (playfully) to the side of the shower against the wall/transparent surface (see what's better) before coming closer to her.

"It looks like you still have plenty of energy."

"I took a nap after I got home just in case. I thought about what I could do with the rest of my day while thinking about you."

"A wonderful initiative."

LEYALA

"I might stop soon, though. I'm going to wear you down if I keep doing this."

ATLAS

"Don't worry. I'm never too tired for that kinda thing."

"I'm not surprised."

#She advanced her head towards Atlas', made him believe that she was going to kiss him, but she squatted just before to bring her mouth to the height of his crotch.

LEYALA

"You know, I might start to like doing this more than I initially thought..."

"Oh? It makes me proud in a way. Anyway, you know you're a safe space here; I won't judge your kinks... but I'll tease you, though."

#Leyala begins by moving her lips along his cock while taking his cock in one hand.

LEYALA (slight smile)

"You're even harder than usual... Is it alcohol?"

ATLAS

"Who knows. It's definitely not because of you; I know that for sure."

"Really?"

#She stops licking his cock and only jerks him off faster.

ATLAS THINKING

"As she somehow knows I'm already aroused, Leyala stops her lips and continues to do the work with her hand only, pushing out the first drop of precum."

"Haha. What the fuck did you drink to be this twitchy?"

ATLAS

"...Tasha likes to make some useless pranks and put some unnamed aphrodisiac in my cocktail, at least that's what she told me, so she must be laughing by now."

LEYALA

"You have some interesting friends... It can also be a placebo effect. Either way, I'm going to help you relieve you from your burden."

#Leyala starts blowing him, but just the tip at first.

ATLAS THINKING

"A quiet moan escaped from my lips as her tongue slipped on my tip from time to time. The suction she exerted was enough to make me grunt."

ATLAS THINKING

"She bobbed her head back-and-forth after some time, probably to make me crave just a bit more."

ATLAS THINKING

"I could still feel her hesitation and her gagging at some point, but compared to the first time, she was already doing better."

"Pleased?"

ATLAS

"Yeah..."

ATLAS THINKING

"She managed to utter a word with my dick in her mouth, which made it vibrate and sent a shiver through my spine."

#She tries to go to the base of his cock, and goes faster.

ATLAS THINKING

"The gag reflex she struggled with right now forced her to go slowly, making me shiver with the combination with the hot water."

ATLAS THINKING

"Since I was already zoning out because of alcohol and tiredness, she was playing with me without moderation-"

#She stops and stands up in front of him before wrapping her arms around his neck.

"You're leaving me like this? It's cruel, don't think I'm going to let such an affront go unpunished."

"What? You're going to spank me?"

ATLAS

"It's an idea like any other."

LEYALA

"If I stopped, it's because, in your state, I'm not sure you can fire a second shot. I also want to have my share. I can afford to be a little selfish, right?"

ATLAS

"I don't know about that."

LEYALA

"Now, my heir, can you fuck me please? I've been feeling light-headed for a while..."

#Atlas lifts her off the ground to place her against the wall (what I think about).

"I guess doing it in the shower is one of your fantasies since you're the one who suggested it."

"Just the thought of you with me, both dripping with hot water, makes me shudder. You already know I want you, so stop dragging out the fun and start, please..."

#Atlas begins to move and kiss her collarbone.

ATLAS THINKING

"When my cock entered her pussy, I was welcomed by hot stickiness other than the water trickling on us. She twitched slightly and gripped me tighter after my first movement."

ATLAS (smiling)

"You were waiting for this to happen, right?"

"I... guess so..."

"You'll have to admit you're slutty at some point."

#Leyala sulks for a second at his words, but when he continues to move, she leans her head into his chest.

ATLAS THINKING

"The alcohol which makes me a little dizzy also allows me to feel less the physical constraints allow me to penetrate it without me being disturbed."

ATLAS THINKING

"The sensations that I felt were different from the ones I knew. Not that I advocate drunk sex, naturally... but it's kinda troubling to feel like this..."

"...Ah... You feel so good inside me..."

ATLAS THINKING

"As she spoke, her pussy clenched down on my shaft, not accustomed to the size. Judging by her breathing, she loved it like that, so I pushed even deeper into her."

ATLAS THINKING

"Instinctively, my hips quickened the pace even more."

"Oh... shit... fuck... I-I..."

"W-Wait a bit for me to get used to your girth or..."

ATLAS

"Or what?"

LEYALA

"Or... I might come way too early..."

ATLAS THINKING

"Her breathing became a bit heavier as I slowed down, listening to what she told me, but just as I thought, it wasn't what she really wanted, so I teased her."

ATLAS

"You want me to go even slower? Maybe even pull out?"

"...Haaa... You... have to go faster... You can't let me be like this..."

#Atlas penetrates her faster than before as her expression changes.

"Her heavy breathing gradually turned into sexy and carnal moans. Both the sound she made and the slapping of my hips against her echoed in the shower along with the water's rhythm."

ATLAS THINKING

"Lost in the sensations, no word seemed to want to come out of her mouth. The desire to hear her beg me to be rougher, rumbling in me, I increased the speed."

"...Haa... Look at me."

"Y-Yeah?"

"If you beg for it, I'll make you cum."

LEYALA (looking away shyly)

"...Please... fuck me harder and make me come... I can only... Haa... think about this right now."

#Atlas talks close to her ear and starts to go faster while Leyala puts one of her feet on the ground to be better balanced and not slip.

ATLAS THINKING

"Horny as I would also cum soon, but I greeted my teeth to fight the urge."

ATLAS THINKING

"Now that she had one leg down, her pussy was much tighter and rubbed against my entire length with warm pressure, pushing me almost toward my limit."

"Your big cock feels too good! I... can't..."

"You're so hot when you lose your mind like this..."

LEYALA

"Fuck! Haaa... Please Atlas! I'm... I'm almost there... Faster..."

ATLAS THINKING

"At this point, I was going to go all out with what little energy I have left. The only thing I have to do is make her cum first, then..."

ATLAS THINKING

"I thrust my hips into her harder, my orgasm close to slipping through as finally, she came while sticking her body to mine, quivering."

"Ah! Fuck yeah... I... I'm cumming!"

ATLAS THINKING

"Leyala loses her balance for a second, her knee-trembling and trying to stay still with my help. Sadly for her, I won't stop until I cum too."

"Yes! That's... you're hitting the... Haaa..."

"I'm gonna cum too..."

"Yes... Cum for me... Release it where you want..."

ATLAS THINKING (while nibbling her neck)

"In a final effort, I pound her as I stop to fight the urge to cum and let it overwhelm me. My brain, already clouded by other stuff, froze for a bit at the sensation before relaxing slowly."

"Fuck... That was good..."

"Yeah, it really was, love, but I'm out. I feel like I completed a marathon."

"So no second shot for today. You leave me wanting more."

"Another day, another story. I'll give you some love later, no worries. (pause) So, how does it feel to accomplish one of your fantasies?"

"...Hmm... I feel relieved and weird at the same time... It's like a souvenir now..."

"Anyway, what was that? I thought you were hornier than me, but you lasted longer. It shouldn't have happened."

ATLAS

"That was your goal? Take advantage of weaknesses to make me burst first? That was a pernicious idea."

"You over-dramatize the whole thing. I was merely trying to see the extent of my sexiness."

ATLAS

"I don't think you have to do that to know that I want you. You just wanted an ego booster, be honest."

"I wouldn't do that; I'm a good girl."

"Yeaah, whatever. Let's shower before the water becomes cold; we used a bit too much of it already."

"Yeah, yeah... To think that you can change from a warm demeanor to your usual self in a matter of minutes."

"It's called post-nut clarity."

"Men really can't enjoy their orgasm for too long, eh..."
