NSFW Scene Guide

Episode 1: Repatriation

Bottom-page small text contains tips with light spoilers

for future episodes~!

Scene One - Veska

Even the Gods can't save you if you can't figure out how to get this one on your own. Tell Veska you want her body when given the option.

If you don't want your Duversa to come on too strong here, worry not. There will be plenty of opportunities to seduce Veska in future episodes, whether you get this scene or not.

Scenes Two and Three – Branko

To get the blowjob scene, inquire about “the other way” after Branko mentions it in conversation. The scene will play out very differently depending on what your sub/dom rating.

A character with a high enough dom rating can unlock scene two by making him a counteroffer and giving him a show instead.

Scene Four - Erika

Another self-explanatory one. Ask Erika if you can kiss her while bathing in the river.

Though you can miss her amorous encounters in Episode 1, Erika is Duversa's sole sex partner in Jezebel that cannot be avoided. If tomboys aren't your cup of tea, there will be options to skip any mandatory NSFW scenes in future episodes.

Scene Five – August

Choose to “make them jealous” when considering how to deal with August’s gang. A moderate-to-dom Duversa can exact her revenge in a much more permanent fashion by selecting “Antagonize them further”.

The multiple different ways this scene can play out will have consequences in future episodes. Depending on what you do, the Red Scorpions can either be dead, in jail, or free men afterward.

Scene Six – Scars

“Attempt to flaunt your noble status” when dealing with Scars and Griffinsbane. If Du vessa’s sub rating is too high, she cannot avoid this encounter unless you choose not to visit Griffinsbane to begin with. An alternate ending to the scene is possible with a high enough dom rating.

The dynamic between Du vessa and Scars is dramatically altered based on whether this scene is triggered or not. It could be worth dealing with Griffinsbane differently in multiple playthroughs if you want to see as much content as possible in the future.

Scene Seven – Ondrea

Choose to visit the Citadel Sava and attempt negotiations with Ondrea, then accept his proposition. This scene is possible regardless of whether you picked him as your first lover or not at the start of the game. Only a moderate-to-dom Duversa can manage to call his bluff and turn down anal sex.

Scene Eight – Erika

Choose “Pounce” after Erika’s confession, which will occur regardless of whether you kissed her or not earlier in the episode.

Scene Nine – Dallan

This is the only scene in Episode 1 that can be considered particularly “missable”. If you want to trigger this scene, you will need to choose “Viciously berate him”, which is only possible if you have picked mean dialogue options with Dallan at least twice throughout the episode. The scene plays out dramatically differently depending on whether Duversa is Sub, Dom, or Neutral.

There are four unique paths you can go down with Dallan in Episode 1 that will change the way he behaves in future episodes.

- The normal path, which you are automatically on. Don’t assume this is the ‘boring one’, or that it won’t be worth pursuing in its own right.
- A path unlocked via triggering Scene Nine (which will be different depending on your Sub/Dom alignment)
- A path exclusive to dom Duversa, unlocked via picking “Viciously berate him” > “Take control, once and for all”
- A path unlocked via kissing him both times when prompted and then selecting “Yes” when he is at your bedroom door.
