PROLOGUE: A BLISSFUL MORNING

「Master..... Is it not about time for you to wake up?」

Even though I was still somewhat sleepy, I could hear the cleanest, the most gentle and the loveliest voice in the entire world quietly ringing in my ear.

「..... It's eight in the morning, and the sun is starting to rise. What do you say that we watch it together?」

I could feel a cool and smooth texture of a finger brushing against my forehead. Drowsiness was still taking a firm hold of me, but I could feel that same finger gently touch my messy bed hair. But it did not end just there. The finger then went down and affectionately stroked my cheek..... and then my neck and my chest. It was the touch filled with so much love and affection as it tried its best to wake me up.

「(Ahh..... This is pure bliss. I would like to stay like that forever if I could.....)」

I could not stop having such idle thoughts going through my head in response to such a loving caress and stimulation. Plus that voice filled with benevolence and affection. Today, just like yesterday, Evelyn's lovely voice awakened me from my sleep, healing both my body and my soul at the same time.

「..... Nhh..... Nnnhhh..... But, I'm still sleepy.....」

「Fufu, that seems to indeed be the case here. I thought that you might say that, Master..... But even though you said that you want to sleep some more, I know that you must wake up in the morning, so I wanted to make sure that you do so.」

「..... Hm? Could it be, you have stayed up all this time just for that!?」

「Y-Yes, that's right..... I mean, I was just so happy and delighted to be looking at your sleeping face that I just.....」

「And you did that even after we had sex all night long!? A-Are you being serious right now!?」

I suddenly jerked my upper body forward, but doing it all of a sudden like that made me feel quite dizzy and lightheaded for a moment out there. Being told something like that first thing in the morning made me feel quite embarrassed, so I sat on the verge of the bed to try to hide it somehow, but..... it honestly made me feel quite happy. Especially since the one to surprise me like that was a beautiful woman with blushing red cheeks and radiant smile on her face.

「If it is an order from you, Master, I want to do everything in my power to fulfill it..... B-But, if I happened to startle you by doing so, I am so sorry about that! I promise that I am going to be more careful next time around.....」

Shining, smooth brown skin, and long silver hair that fell straight down well below her shoulders. This era that I was currently living in, no..... I am pretty much sure that there was no other woman in this world across its entire long history who would look as beautiful as her. Of that I was sure. And above all else, the long and pointed ears that were quivering in a cute manner with her even cuter gestures, a trait that was impossible for humankind to develop. This woman was not human, but a Dark Elf. Her name is Evelyn Celebrian, and she seemed really desperate to think of new ways in which she could please me on a daily basis.

「..... Evelyn.」

「Y-Yes, Master? What is it?」

「I know that I may have already said it many times before, but those clothes..... They really suit you. You look incredibly cute in them.」

「H-Huh.....! Ah, ahh, t-thank you..... so very much for those kind words, Master. They really make me feel happy.....」

I know that this may sound weird, but Evelyn was not from this world. She comes from the world of the Elves, “Alfheim”, where I happened to meet her for the first time. Well, a whole lot of things have happened since then, but right now..... because of various reasons and circumstances she was currently living with me in my original world. We lived together in modern day Japan, in a small one room apartment.

「(At first I was really worried what would happen..... That it might not actually work out, but.....)」

And finally, after a while I was starting to get used to those new and miraculous circumstances of mine. Or at least I thought I was getting used to them..... Because right now I was once again catching myself thinking that it was actually nothing more but a blissful dream.

「(I mean, this is..... This room is so run down no matter how you look at it..... But still! Who would have thought that a Dark Elf would be sitting in a room like that! A modern room full of electronic devices, without even the smallest fantasy element to it.....!)」

「Umm, Master? If you don't mind me doing that, I would like to start preparing breakfast right away. Surely you must be hungry, are you not?」

「Hm? Oh, y-yeah. I'm starving, in fact! Besides, everything that you cook always tastes delicious, Evelyn..... I'm looking forward to what you are going to make today.」

「R-Really now, I can only make something simple and not overly complicated, but..... I will try my best to make sure that it suits your tastes, Master!」

「When it comes to me, everything that you are going to make will be delicious, Evelyn! So don't worry about it!」

「..... Hueh.....!？」

All of a sudden I had a huge urge to hug Evelyn really tightly. At that moment I could literally hear her face turning bright red and steam coming out of her ears. Holding her really close to me, I slowly inhaled the sweet aroma that her hair was emitting.

「Nnhh..... M-Master, it tickles.....」

Her hair smelled of magic flowers, something that you would not be able to find here in this world. Her body seemed to be so frail and delicate that I thought it would snap in half the moment I would embrace her too hard. Because I hugged her up front like that, I could also feel her huge boobs press against me and spread all over my chest. They were so soft, and yet so elastic it was simply unreal.

「..... That's because Master bought it specifically for me. And because those clothes were chosen specifically by Master, I had full confidence that they would look good on me as well.....」

Right now Evelyn was wearing a pink buzzard shirt and black miniskirt made out of black and fluffy material. Even though those were cheap clothes from a second hand store that every girl around her age would wear on a daily basis, she cried tears of joy when I originally presented them to her.

「Master, the day you bought me those clothes, you also replaced my collar with a cute ribbon. A cute black ribbon with a small heart at its center..... At that time, those Western-styled clothes became my greatest treasure. Those clothes and this ribbon are proof that the Master is always thinking about me, and I will always think of Master thanks to them. It's the greatest form of connection we can have with one another.」

「I mean, it's because, at the time you looked like you really wanted them, so I wanted you to have them. And I mean, they were pretty cheap, so there is no need for you to treasure them or anything like that.....」

「..... Maybe so, but for me, those clothes are more important than my life. A priceless treasure that cannot be replaced by anything else.」

Evelyn said that with a radiant smile on her face, at the same time placing her hand on top of the ribbon tied around her neck. Then she reached out to me, put her arms behind my back and pressed my head against her chest, causing my nostrils to be filled with even sweeter aroma than before.

「..... You are the only one that I yearn for, Master. No matter where, no matter when, it is only going to be you. That will never change. I promise you that.....」

Evelyn closed her eyes seductively and entrusted herself to my warm embrace. Why was someone like her here in the first place? Someone so beautiful and lustrous and dazzling? It was then that I remembered that day when I came back to my original world, and why Evelyn decided to follow me all the way out here in the first place.....
