Stats

- At the beginning of the game, you’re told to allocate a certain number of points to the different stats.
- Many combinations can work but to experience the most content, for min-maxing it is recommended to start with 5 Intelligence, 5 Strength, 5 Sexuality, 0 Charisma, 0 Dexterity
- First meet Lara in the cafeteria, and go to the shooting range every day to level up dexterity to the maximum,
- Then find Jack and go down his path to unlock Amber. With Amber you can begin to level up Charisma through the bar sequence. From there you’ll gain stats naturally.
- Intelligence you receive by reading books in your room.
- Strength you increase by training in the gym
- Sexuality can be increased by some sexual encounters
- Sexuality and Strength affect your HP in battle, while Dexterity and Strength affect your DMG in battle.
- To enter Ronda’s Romance/Corruption Route you will need at least 3 in Strength otherwise you will enter her Femdom Route. Other things can usually be achieved through different means as well.

UI

- There are markers on the map that can point you towards areas with events or other things of interest. Movement is through the map and sometimes you need to read the messages you receive to continue down certain paths.

Important Choices

You can start going down content as you please at any order. But the walkthrough provided will give a more or less optimal path to access most of the content for the game.

- Go to the “Office”

After meeting with Adam, you could theoretically head out on your mission immediately but would miss out on the quests and routes of some characters on the mothership.

- If you want to leave the ship, you can go to the Hangar and decide to depart.

Ronda

- Go to the “Gym”
- Begin your training
- Go to “My Room”
- Go to sleep
- Leave

- Go to the Shooting Range
- Visit her in her room
- Pick Romance or Corruption (Sexuality or Lara's secret needs to be discovered)
- Visit her in her room
- After you return from Hope 1 the 2nd time, you need to sleep a few times in your room to get the message from Lara to come to the shooting range
- Go to the shooting range
- Impregnation content is unlocked for romance and corruption by going to her room and telling her to stop taking the pill. Cumming inside will impregnate her then. Telling her to go back on the pill will not change that.
- After you impregnated her, wait 5 nights, then you'll get a message to visit Lara
- Visit Lara
- Sleep 5 nights
- Visit Lara

Main

- Depart the ship after you're done with the quests on the ship (Leaving will end all quests except for Ronda's and Lara's secret might make you miss out on them in the future.)
- Yes
- Exhaust questions
- Exhaust questions
- Wait to be found
- Smile and nod
- Threat (Gain 1 relationship with Qhov'iny but requires 5 strength)
- (Let her if you want to get a Blowjob from Ingrixa or Stop her)
- Skill check in the next sequence where you gain relationship with Qhov'iny if your dexterity is at least 4.
- Yes or No (If you pick No, you'll be able to attack the queen and if your dexterity is at least 5)
- Bow gives 1 relationship with Marena while not bowing loses 1 (For romance you need to balance it else you might enter other routes)
- Exhaust options
- Everything is optional except the arena
- Choose to attack since the turtle bug is weak if it charges, you can choose to defend.
- Go to the prison to meet Canary and potentially get a bj if you Karma is on the negative end. You'll lose your rations and potentially get debuffed in upcoming battles. If you have the cookie which you can buy from the vending machine, you can give that to her instead. You will gain relationship points with Qhov'iny and Canary if you give it for free.
- Go to the shaman hut
- Exhaust options
- Exhaust options
- Ask about her species
- Do you have a currency? (If you have 5 intelligence you will gain 1 relationship point with Boruda)
- Leave
- I am ready
- So, you're a princess
- What to look out for in this place?
- I can handle it
- Do you know this area well?
- Continue your journey

- Try to survive 5 rounds or defeat Krahit (Gain a trophy)
- You were worried about me?
- Are you impressed?
- What now?
- (Option to stare at her if your relationship is high enough)
- If your stats in strength are high enough you can accept her food and carry on else you can get sick from accepting it. Declining will lower your hp for the upcoming fight, as well as look weak to the Arongs.
- See you back in the village then
- Refuse to turn over your weapons and you'll have to fight the guard
- I'm here to negotiate
- If you want to sabotage Ih'ae ask if he has a better solution else it is either
- Who are you? (Lowers relationship with the leader, but reveal his name)
- What if I am (To challenge him to a fight, you'll lose reputation with Arongs if you back down)

The fight with the leader of Arongs is quite difficult since he has 160hp. You'll most likely have to poison him and ask Victoria for help.

- Go to the market
- Exhaust questions (If your stats in intelligence are high enough you can try to buy the poison from her. You can also have sex with her if your charisma and sexuality is at least 5)
- Anything I can help you with?
- Yes
- Anything specific you're looking?
- Have you been here before?
- Proceed
- It is
- Leave
- I'll challenge Arongs' leader
- Yes
- No (You can leave the camp at a later time)
- Visit the campfire
- Exhaust questions
- When you ask for food, give it a try or throw it on the ground (+ Relationship with Engrasa – Relationship with Veina)
- Do you serve food for the leader too? (Option to poison the leader or gain relationship points with Veina)
- I would like to ask you for a favor (If you want to poison the leader)
- Leave
- Visit the shaman's hut
- (More options if you have lower karma)
- Introduce yourself
- What is this place?
- Exhaust questions
- Option to poison the leader through Engrasa if you have low karma
- Fight with the leader should be possible if you poisoned him and have the support from Victoria.
- If you won you can choose to make Engrasa your mate to unlock the scene with her

Main – Make Peace between Ih’ae and Arongs

- After talking with Grog without agreeing to Sabotage, return to the Ih’ae Village by leaving
- Go to the palace
- Visit Boruda
- Speak with the Queen again if your Intelligence was too low to propose the contraception potion on your own
- Speak with Boruda about the potion
- Speak with Engrasa in the Arongs Village
- Return to Boruda
- Search for the ingredients in the forest, if your dexterity is too low, there might be a fight.
- Return to Boruda
- Return to Engrasa
- Return to the Queen or Boruda
- Option to marry the queen afterwards, if you’re the arena champion or have enough charisma or intelligence
- Leave when you are ready

Main – Sabotage Ih’ae or both

- Return to the village after you agreed to sabotage the Ih’ae
- Either warn the Queen which will lead to the destruction of both, or go to the prison and tell Canary to sabotage the Ih’ae
- Return to Grog
- Leave when you are ready

Main – Beat Grog without Poison

- Go to the palace of the Ih’ae
- You’ll be free to leave, or prove yourself to Marena and marry her.
- Leave when you are ready

Main – Beat Grog with poison

- Go to the palace of the Ih’ae
- You’ll have to submit to the Ih’ae, which will doom the Arongs, or you fight against her and defeat her guards, which will allow you to enter the corruption route of the queen.
- Leave when you are ready

Main – Return to the Mothership

- Speak with Cassandra on the bridge
- Speak with Adam in his office
- Depart to Hope 1 again when you are ready
- Speak with Victoria
- Speak with your allies depending who survived
- Ih’ae will support you if you romanced or corrupted the queen no matter what, and if you’re a friend if you agree to slow down the colonization process
- The Arongs will support you if you made peace or otherwise if your Karma is low.
- Speak with Victoria when you’re ready to fight off the threat to the colony

- Return to the mothership through Victoria
- Speak with Cassandra
- You can go to the armory now and buy items through Canary
- You can go to Hope 2 through the hangar now.

Main – Hope 2

- Talk to the guard, with a high enough sexual skill you can do her a favor that might be useful later. The other options are fine as well
- Ask the mayor questions
- Visit the tavern and after you talk with Helgi ask her about Losca
- If your intelligence is high enough you can threaten to expose her cheating (7 Intelligence required). Otherwise you need to collect money from Anza
- If you had sex with Anza before you can use that as leverage, or do other checks, otherwise you need to confess her sins at the church.
- There you can find out about the secret candidate. The nun will reward you for finding the candidate with a sexual favor.
- Go to the workshop and talk to Luna. With 7 or more intelligence you can help Luna with her work.
- If you have 5 or more intelligence you could find out that Luna was the reason the golems rebelled. You can use that to enter a future romance or corruption route.
- Afterwards you can talk about her being the secret candidate and return to the nun.
- You can also collect the money from Anza and return that to Losca.
- At the tavern you can get the drinks and drinking the strongest drink you need 6 strength or 6 intelligence to gain the medal as a reward.
- If you drink the juice you can get 1 extra point in Sexuality.
- After you gain the support of Losca, you can go on a hunt with her. Using the Grenade Launcher for the Lavaworm fight is useful since it deals more damage.
- You can avoid the fight against the golem with enough strength, intelligence or dexterity.
- Against First you can negotiate or attack him right away. Defeating him here makes him weaker for the final battle.
- After returning you can speak with Helgi to start a relationship with her. It's important to be confident and be interested in her.
- You can find an ally if you decide to sneak in to save the scouts at the tavern. Speak with Losca
- If you want to help the golems you need to speak with Luna at the workshop and convince her.
- After you managed to find an ally for the distraction speak with Kix or Losca again to do the operation
- If you took the energy source or the faulty one, or didn't get one in the first place, then you return to First and tell him about it.
- If you decide to annihilate them with the help of the mothership, you need to fight two golems. Best is to defend when they're about to attack
- If you let the golems suicide charge the city, you're locked out of the Grulxeik content.
- If you annihilate them, then you're unable to do Luna's route.
- If you achieve peace with the real source of energy then Losca will be upset.
- Afterwards you can return to the mothership. After sleeping you can go to the bridge and receive a medal.

- From here on you can visit Hope 2 and Hope 1 again
- After returning the Election begins.
- If you agreed to an interview you can influence it a bit and get a new scene with the journalist with enough sexuality. Depending on your answers your candidate might lose or gain influence
- You can help Luna to win by doing her tasks like getting her coffee from the cafeteria on the ship, posting posters in the tavern, talking with Saki about neon posters and with Amber about a concert. Amber and Saki require you to not have fallen out with them.
- When you are ready you can start the election by talking with Luna. You can choose to support the mayor too. Best won there by just supporting him and not helping Luna.

Main – Hope 1

- Returning to Hope 1 you are informed by Victoria about the monster threatening your new colony. If Qhov'iny is not pregnant she will join you. It's best to have some heal packs or stim packs equipped and use a high dmg weapon like the rocket launcher. You can dodge the guardian if you defend when it burrows. Time is best used to heal when it's gone or reload.
- You can visit Ingrixa to witness Boruda's funeral
- You can visit the Arongs and if you're the leader you can meet with Engrasa
- If you had a relationship with Veina before, she will ask you to get spices for her
- You have several options with the Merchant and if you had sex with her before you can suggest a threesome
- If Qhov'iny is not pregnant you can hunt down the guardian if it fled or heal it (Only possible if you lowered the intensity of the colonization efforts during a previous visit)

Main – Ending

- After the election or if Gurlholm is destroyed and if you got the signal you can speak with Cassandra about Hope 3

Arena

- Go to the village and enter the arena.
- First fight is easy, just try to defend when he is finished charging
- Second fight will be advantageous if you have more dexterity. If he charges, do not attack, but wait or defend, afterwards you'll hit for sure.
- Third fight can be won by having 10 in Intelligence or surviving 6 rounds. You'll likely not survive a charged attack by Reinor, which is why you have to defend.

Qhov'iny

- Go to the arena and ask if you can help her, if your relationship is good enough you can enter her romance or corruption route
- Speak with Qhov'iny after you return to Hope 1

Ingrixa

- Go to the shaman hut and ask Ingrixa if you can help her. If you mated with her before, you will be able to enter her corruption route, otherwise you'll be locked into her romance route.
- Speak with Ingrixa after you return to Hope 1

Marena

- You can romance the queen by winning in the arena
- To corrupt her you need to kill Grog with the poison and then refuse to kneel to her. You then need to win the fight against her guards.
- After you return to Hope 1 you need to visit her in the palace

Engrasa

- Defeat Grog and become the leader of the Arongs.
- Agree for her to become your mate
- After you return to Hope 1 you need to visit her in the throne room of the Arongs

Hope 1 Brothel

- Depending on your choice either Rose, Celine or both of them open a brothel there.
- If the aliens survive they'll ask you to recruit some of them for it.
- The options are Boruda and Nrol if they are alive
- Go to the shaman hut for Boruda and to the Arongs Village for Nrol

Helgi

- If you had sex with her before you can visit her after coming back to Hope 2 and meet up for a date

Losca

- After returning to Hope 2. If you have a good relationship with her, you can go to the bathhouse together and start a new relationship

Novina
