Sofia: Sofia seems affected, she just does the cleaning and cooking. I could talk to her in the kitchen.

Dana: I should have lunch with Dana over the weekend and find out how she's doing. I hope she's not sad about Dad.

Erica: I should see how Erica is handling the situation of Dad.

Kara: Kara seems to be happy. It's weird considering what Dad said. I should ask her and see what is happening.

Lucia: It's a pity that Lucia has to put up with shit to make ends meet. It seems that her economic situation is no better than ours. Better to stop thinking about it and get to class.

Alicia: I have to go to class.

Sofia: I really want to do the Mandin course. I have to find a moment and watch the course on the computer.

Also the first lesson is free.

Sofia: I have to go to Amarzong. The way things are, it would be good for me to have a job and earn a little money.

Sofia: Mom, she used to watch TV on the weekend nights with Dad.

Now that Dad is gone, this is a good opportunity to just spend some time with her.

Dana: Dana goes out on Friday after class to relax. I could catch her before she leaves and see if she wants some company.

She will probably come home to change first.

Erica: Sounds like Erica is going to be studying hard. I would be surprised if I found her taking it easy.

Kara: Kara is really happy for her business. I even saw her in very sexy underwear and she didn't get angry.

I have to follow up. On Sunday the girls usually meet. I could eat with Dana to pass a little time.

Lucia: Mike and I worked on our classwork at his house. However, Lucia did not seem to be there.

Claire: I'd like to study with her, but she probably wouldn't accept it. Would the director have anything to do with Claire's grades? With all the touching... I'll have to settle for studying with Mike for now.

Alicia: Alicia always looks at her mobile with a happy face. What the hell was she doing?

Sofia: Mom looked a little sad. I guess she's not used to going to bed alone.

On Sunday I could go back to her room at night and show her that I care about her.

Dana: I have to see Dana's Diary. I'm very curious.

Erica: On Fridays Erica tans her skin and then locks herself in the bathroom for a long time.

I have to figure out what she does without being detected.

Kara: Kara usually has her coffee before leaving for work. I wonder if dad has sent her the money he promised.

Lucia: I've been left wanting to enter Lucia's room. Lucia is not there and Mike is downstairs and would not find out.

Claire: I'd like to study with her, but she probably wouldn't accept it. Would the director have anything to do with Claire's grades? With all the touching... I'll have to settle for studying with Mike for now.

Alicia: I have to create a distraction after class and look at the phone.

Carla: Carla is super hot. Maybe I could invite her for a coffee or something at the weekend.

Sofia: Mom She spends all day cleaning. I'm sure a massage would go well.

I could put Mandin's techniques into practice when she's on the couch reading her magazines.

Dana: She has noted in her diary that she is stressed about work. I'll ask her when we have lunch together. I'm sure she likes that I worry about her..

Erica: Erica went to a party in a knockout dress. I have to keep spying on her on Friday without her seeing me and find out something else. After the pool she goes to the bathroom.

Kara: I have the key to Kara's room. I can only think about trying it when at night.

Lucia: Now I will be able to spy on Lucia. I can't wait to see her naked.

Claire: I wonder what will happen to Claire if she fails the course.

Alicia: That idiot Jack messed up my plan. I have to try again.

Carla: Carla apparently can't leave work at the weekend. But Louie might not be there again. Maybe I could spend time with her alone at work.

 Sofia: It's proving to be very difficult for Mom to let me massage her. I will wash the dishes before trying to give her a massage.

If I show I care about her, I don't think she will tell me no.

 Dana: I should talk to Dana when she's done working. Maybe Sunday.

 Erica: I will leave her alone for now.

 Kara: I got very horny seeing Kara sleeping. But I dare not go ahead without some kind of pills that leave her in a very deep sleep.

 Lucia: I have to keep looking out the window to see if I see anything interesting.

 Claire: I could also approach Claire after class and see how she wants us to work on the assignment together.

 Alicia: I need the access pin to be able to see Alicia's phone. It is 3 digits.

Dana: Dana started doing gymnastics. Will she be taking care of her physique? I have to take a look.

Erica: I will leave her alone for now.

Sofia: I don't think I can go from a foot massage to a pussy massage without Mom noticing. I have to find other ways to get close to her. Sunday she comes over to pick up the laundry.

Dana: I saw Dana's pink nipples. But now she seems very self-conscious and stays in her room late on weekends.

Dana: Dana will probably be relaxing on the couch on Saturday. It's a good time to tickle her and test her limits.

Erica: I will leave her alone for now.

Kara: Kara usually sunbathes in a bikini on Sundays. Maybe now I can go further with her. And she usually showers afterwards and hangs out naked in her room.

Kara: I still can't believe Kara gave me a handjob. I wonder what she thought about it.

Lucia: I should look in the shopping centre for a good gift for Lucia.

Claire: End version Claire.

Alicia: I need the access pin to be able to see Alicia's phone. It is 3 digits.

Carla: Louie was there at the weekend, but I found out that Carla wants a big house. But money is not the issue apparently. I should probably go back to see her when she's not so busy.

Dana: I think Dana feels more comfortable with me now, after the tickling on the couch. I could try again in the gym.

Erica: I will leave her alone for now.

Sofia: I found the photos that Sofia took when she was younger. But now I have more questions. Whose hand was that? He was pushing her for naughty pictures. Under Construction

Sofia: How did Mom do at work? She woke up with a hung-over look on her face. But with enormous tits.

Dana: It happened again. I pressed my cock into her pussy and she's not mad. I have to find out if she writes anything.

Dana: Dana shut herself in her room again at noon. Last time she touched her breasts. Does it have something to do with doing exercise?

Erica: I will leave her alone for now. I'll just have to focus on Dana.

Sofia: I found the photos that Sofia took when she was younger. But now I have more questions. Whose hand was that? He was pushing her for naughty pictures. Under Construction

Sofia: What were those assholes up to?! I should keep an eye on Mom when she goes to work. Just in case.

Dana: I'll give her some space but she seems to be locking herself in her room and hanging around the kitchen.

Erica: On Saturday I'll try to get the sofa to myself and take a nap. I hope I'm faster than Erica.

Kara: I'll have to wait and see how Kara's sales turn out thanks to the new website.

Kara: I probably won't be able to do more with Kara until then. I should see what the other girls are up to.

Lucia: I got Lucia's message. She is getting very nervous. But I want to keep on enjoying her body.

Claire: End version Claire.

Alicia: End version Alicia.
